2007 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

the Champions of College Football

Hey Fightin' Tigers, fight all the way
Play Fightin' Tigers, win the game today

You've got the know how,
your're doing fine,
hang on to the ball as you hit the wall
And smash right through the line

You've got to go for a touchdown
Run up the score.
Make Mike the Tiger stand right up and roar.

Roar!

Give it all of your might as you fight tonight
and keep the goal in view.

Victory for LSU!

From Billy Cannon's Halloween Run in 1959 to the Earthquake Game in 1988 to LSU claiming the 2003 national title at the Superdome in New Orleans. Relive some of the most spectacular and unforgettable moments in LSU history.

National Champions

Not since 1958 had an LSU football team put together the type of season that fans witnessed in 2003. Trace the Tigers' steps from the SEC Championship game win over Georgia all the way to their meeting with President Bush at the White House as LSU claimed the school's first national title in football in 45 years.

Nick Saban

LSU coach Nick Saban etched his name alongside some of the greatest to have ever coached college football in 2003, leading the Tigers to the national title, while being named national coach of the year by three organizations. In four years, Saban has led LSU to a national title, a pair of SEC championships and to four bowl games.

History

Tinsley, Stewart, Tittle, Taylor, Cannon, Jones and Hilliard. Those are just some of the many names that highlight LSU's rich tradition of football, one that dates back to 1893 when the Tigers faced Tulane in New Orleans for the start of LSU football. Since then, the Tigers have claimed nine SEC titles and a pair of national championships.

Death Valley

Like no other college football setting in America, Tiger Stadium, also known as "Death Valley" has been home to LSU since 1924. Seating 91,600 fans, Tiger Stadium has been called the most dreaded road-playing site in America and poll after poll has ranked Death Valley among the top 10 stadiums in all of college football.

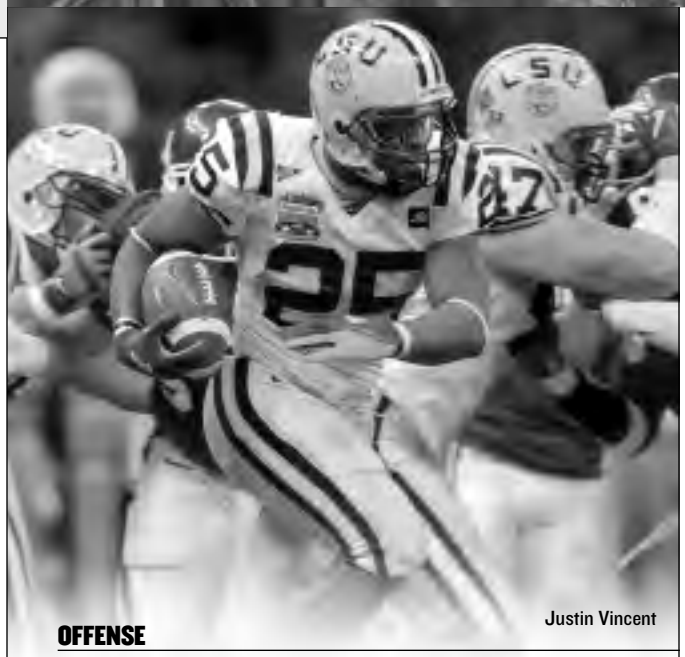
2004 Season Preview



Justin Vincent

OFFENSE

LSU's offensive philosophy is pretty simple, get the ball in the best players hands and let them make plays. With a host of skill players returning for the Tigers, the offense, despite the loss of quarterback Matt Mauck to the NFL, should be in good hands. The Tigers return six starters from an offense that sets school records for points (475), first downs (298) and touchdowns scored (54). Heading the list of returning starters is 2003 Freshman All-America running back Justin Vincent, second-team All-America center Ben Wilkerson and 2004 preseason All-America tackle Andrew Whitworth. As a unit, the Tigers return 2,439 yards rushing and 23 of the teams' 24 rushing TDs from a year ago. On the other hand, the Tigers lose two of their top two receivers in Michael Clayton (78 rec., 1,079 yards, 10 TDs) and Devery Henderson (53 rec., 861 yards, 11 TDs). Doing the bulk of the passing last year for the Tigers was Mauck, a second-team All-SEC pick in 2003, who threw a school-record 28 touchdowns after completing 229 of 358 passes for 2,825 yards.

QUARTERBACKS

Senior Marcus Randall enters fall camp as the only quarterback on the roster to have a snap at the collegiate level to his credit. Randall has played in 22 during his career with six starts, which includes the Cotton Bowl game against Texas to cap the 2002 season. In 22 games, Randall has completed 114 of 223 passes for 1,583 yards, nine touchdowns and six interceptions. Highly-regarded redshirt freshmen JaMarcus Russell and Matt Flynn both showed promise during the spring and enter fall camp in a battle for playing time for the Tigers. Both Russell and Flynn continue to learn the Tiger offense, while still getting a grasp for the speed of the college game. In Russell, the Tigers have a big-bodied quarterback with a big-time arm, who can throw the ball down the field as well as anyone in the game, while Flynn can run and throw with equal effectiveness.

RUNNING BACKS

Justin Vincent returns for his sophomore season in 2004 after setting an LSU freshman rushing record with 1,001 yards in 2003. Vincent, who was named MVP of both the SEC Championship Game and the Sugar Bowl, rushed for 201 yards and a pair of scores against Georgia in the SEC title game and then followed that with 117 yards and a TD against Oklahoma in the Sugar Bowl. Vincent will be joined in the backfield by junior Joseph Addai (520 yards, 2 TDs in 2003), sophomore Alley Broussard (389 yards, 4 TDs), senior Shyrone Carey (338 yards, 6 TDs) and sophomore Barrington Edwards (169 yards). Addai, who is considered the best of LSU's back in third-down situations, will likely split time at receiver for the Tigers in 2004. Broussard, who has trimmed 15 pounds from his frame from 2003, is a bruiser, who can get the tough yards between the tackles, while Carey is a speedster who has game-breaking ability.

FULLBACKS

Kevin Steltz returns as LSU's starter at fullback, while Shawn Jordan is expected to see plenty of action at the position after redshirting in 2003 as a true freshman. Steltz is a pure blocking fullback, while Jordan gives the Tigers a back that can be a threat both as a runner and a receiver out of the backfield.

"I won't make comparisons between this year's team and last year's team. We are not going to compete to the bar of what last year's team accomplished. We have to compete with the players we have now and get them to understand what they have to do every day." -- LSU coach Nick Saban

WIDE RECEIVERS

The loss of Michael Clayton and Devery Henderson leaves junior Skyler Green as the Tigers' top returning wide receiver. Last year, Green ranked third on the squad with 48 catches for 519 yards and five TDs, including the game-winner against Georgia in September. Joining Green as a wideout for the Tigers will be sophomores Dwayne Bowe (9 rec., 106 yards in 2003) and Craig Davis (7 rec., 63 yards) and redshirt freshman Amp Hill. The groups of Tiger wideouts, while young, can be considered one of the offensive strengths for LSU. Bolstering the receiving corps will be a trio of talented true freshmen wideouts in Early Doucet, Xavier Carter and Lavelle Hawkins, all considered among the best in the nation at their position in high school.

TIGHT END

The Tigers return a pair of experienced players at tight end in senior Demetri Robinson and junior David Jones to go along with sophomore Keith Zinger. Last year, Jones caught 13 passes for 232 yards and a touchdown, while Zinger had three receptions for 31 yards.

OFFENSIVE LINE

Perhaps the strength of the Tiger offense will be that of the line, which will be led by senior center Ben Wilkerson, junior tackle Andrew Whitworth and junior guard Nate Livings. As a unit in 2003, the Tigers allowed only 22 sacks all season and they held their opponent without a sack in five of the final six regular-season games. Last year, Wilkerson earned second-team All-America honors from the Associated Press after starting all 14 games for the Tigers. In two years with the Tigers, Whitworth has started 27 games at tackle and has given up only five sacks, while being whistled for just 13 penalties. Whitworth, along with Wilkerson, have both been listed as preseason All-America selections for the Tigers entering the 2004 season. Livings started 10 games for the Tigers in 2003, missing four games midway through the year with a knee injury. Junior Rudy Niswanger and junior Terrell McGill both return as part-time starters for the Tigers and will be looked at to fill in for the departed Rodney Reed and Stephen Peterman on the line. The Tigers also received a boost when Brandon Washington was shifted from defensive line to offensive tackle during the spring. Washington showed a great deal of promise during the spring and will be counted on for added depth to the Tiger front.

Marcus Spears

DEFENSE

The trademark of Saban-coached defenses has been one that puts constant pressure on the quarterback, while attempting to confuse the offense with disguised coverages and fronts. With the return of preseason All-America defensive end Marcus Spears to go along with six other starters, the Tigers should once again be among the best in the country. A year ago, the Tigers rode the nation's best defense all the way to the national title as the Tigers ranked first in the country in scoring (11.0 points per game) and total defense (252.0 yards per game). The Tigers also ranked among the national leaders in rushing defense (67.0 yards per game), pass defense efficiency (89.8 rating) and pass defense (185.0 yards per game). Joining Spears as starters for the Tigers include what some have considered the best cornerback tandem in the country in Corey Webster and Travis Daniels along with defensive tackle Kyle Williams, linebackers Lionel Turner and Cameron Vaughn and safety LaRon Landry.

DEFENSIVE LINE

Gone from last year's team is all-everything defensive tackle Chad Lavalais along with defensive end Marquise Hill, both of which were selected in the NFL Draft last April. Back in the trenches for the Tigers however will be first-team All-SEC pick and a preseason All-America Marcus Spears along with Kyle Williams, an honorable all-conference selection. Junior Melvin Oliver and sophomore Kirston Pittman both played valuable minutes last year and could be counted on to step in to fill the void left by the departure of Lavalais and Hill. In addition, junior college transfer Claude Wroten joined the Tigers for bowl practice and emerged from spring practice as a player who will be counted on for a starting spot when the season opens.

LINEBACKER

The return of starters Lionel Turner and Cameron Vaughn makes the linebacker position one of the strengths of the Tiger defense heading into 2004. Turner, a senior, finished second on the team with 78 tackles a year ago and he capped his junior campaign with nine tackles and two sacks against Oklahoma in the Sugar Bowl. Vaughn had 55 tackles in 14 games for the Tigers in 2003. Kenneth Hollis, a junior college transfer, redshirted last year for the Tigers and should make an impact this year as will redshirt freshmen Darius Ingram and Dominic Cooper along with true freshman Ali Highsmith.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

With the return of three of four defensive backs, including first-team All-America Corey Webster and Freshman All-America LaRon Landry, the Tigers should once again be difficult to throw against in 2004. Webster, who ranks second in school history with 14 career interceptions, will start for the third straight year at cornerback with second-year starter Travis Daniels holding down the other cornerback spot. Landry will be in charge of the deep part of the field after starting most of last season as a free safety. Other players expected to step in and contribute this year are senior Ronnie Prude, sophomores Jesse Daniels, Daniel Francis and newcomer Mario Stevenson, who was considered one of the top defensive backs in the juco ranks a year ago.

SPECIAL TEAMS

One of the reasons for the Tigers success during the Saban era has been the steady performance in all areas of special teams. Last year, the Tigers ranked first in the SEC in net punting, kickoff coverage, while also featuring the nation's top punt returner in Skyler Green. Sophomores Chris Jackson and Ryan Gaudet return to handle the kicking duties for the Tigers as the duo split the responsibilities last year with Jackson handling the kickoffs and Gaudet doing most of the placekicking. The departure of Donnie Jones leaves the punter position up for grabs with Jackson, along with redshirt freshman Patrick Fisher, battling for that spot. Green, who led the nation in punt return average in 2003 with an 18.5 average, returns as LSU's return specialist, while Gant Petty will continue to serve as the snapper on both punts and placekicks.

Justin Vincent rushes for an SEC Championship Game record 201 yards in leading LSU to a 34-13 win over Georgia to put the Tigers in the BCS National Championship Game in New Orleans on Jan. 4.

December 7

It's official… LSU, ranked No. 2 in the BCS standings, will face No. 1-ranked Oklahoma in the Sugar Bowl with a shot at the BCS National title on the line.

"I would like to say how excited we are to have the opportunity to go to the Nokia Sugar Bowl and be in the BCS Championship Game." - LSU coach Nick Saban

December 9

Nick Saban, along with offensive tackle Rodney Reed, travel to New York for the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame Banquet. Reed is honored as a National Scholar-Athlete. Saban learns of his selection as being AP National Coach of the Year.

December 11

Nick Saban named Associated Press National Coach of the Year.

"Even though I'm accepting the honor, it's for all of the players and coaches and support staff. They all had as big a part in it as I did. I'm very flattered and honored." - LSU coach Nick Saban

Nick Saban accompanies All-America defensive tackle Chad Lavalais to Orlando, Fla., for the ESPN College Football Awards Show. Lavalais is recognized for his spot on the Walter Camp Team.

December 18

With final exams now over, LSU returns to the practice field as the Tigers begin their preparation for the Sooners.

"I think you can start preparing for a game too early and I think you can practice too much for a game. I think the thing that you do not want your players to do is getting bored with the preparation or practice too much and then wear them down."
- LSU coach Nick Saban

December 23

Louisiana Governor-elect Kathleen Blanco visits practice, LSU's final workout in Baton Rouge before taking a few days off for Christmas. Blanco addressed the team and was presented a game jersey by team captains Matt Mauck, Michael Clayton and Rodney Reed.

December 28

With hundreds of fans looking on, LSU arrives at the New Orleans Marriott in what resembled a Mardi Gras scene. For the next eight days, the Tigers will call the New Orleans Marriott home as the team will be headquartered at the facility located on Canal Street. After holding their first practice in New Orleans, the Tigers relaxed that evening on a riverboat cruise aboard the "Creole Queen."

"It's an honor to be here. I feel good that we took a bus here, because it means that we're only an hour away from home. It's a pleasure to be here, and it's an honor for the state of Louisiana to have its home team playing for the national championship. We've done a lot of things to represent our state well."
- WR Michael Clayton

December 29

Despite a 40-minute delay due to Oklahoma's practice running long, LSU finally gets its first taste of the Superdome with a two-hour workout at the site of where the National Championship contest will be played. Later that night, LSU players participate in a team function called "Party at the Dock".

"We had a good workout today. We are still looking at several different things on Oklahoma. We know this is a special opportunity and we are going to make the best of it."
- CB Travis Daniels

December 30

LSU coach Nick Saban meets with members of the media at the Hyatt in a formal press conference following practice in the Superdome. Among those people seen at LSU's practice include actor and LSU fan John Goodman and former NFL standout Terrell Buckley. The Tigers wind down after their third practice in New Orleans with a trip to Rock-N-Bowl as players bowled with even a few trying their hand on stage with the band.

"We're certainly playing a very challenging team in terms of what they do offensively and what kind of skill players they have. Oklahoma certainly does not have many weaknesses. I think our team is the same in a lot of ways in terms of the speed we have, so this should be a great game."
- LSU coach Nick Saban

December 31

LSU goes through its fourth workout in New Orleans followed by Tiger offense coordinator Jimbo Fisher, along with five members of the starting lineup on offense, meeting the media at a 2:30 p.m. press conference at the Hyatt. Following LSU's New Year's Eve workout, many members of the squad visited a local hospital, bringing LSU gifts to sick children. The children responded by giving each member of the LSU team a personally decorated "Tiger hat". There was even one for Coach Saban.

January 1

LSU ushered in the New Year with a 1:45 practice at the Superdome. The LSU defense gets its turn with the media as coordinator Will Muschamp, along with five defensive standouts, have their press conference at the Hyatt.

"We had a good week in Baton Rouge before we came to New Orleans and basically, we had 90 percent of our game plan defensively for what we wanted to do, how we wanted to approach the game. We've since polished and hemmed some things up since we've been here." - Defensive Coordinator Will Muschamp

January 2

It's a busy day for LSU as the Tigers take their team picture in the Superdome followed by an hour-long media session at the Dome, which was televised live by ESPN News. Then it's off to practice, which is being held 15-minutes away at the New Orleans Saints Practice Facility in Metairie. Among the people in attendance at practice were NFL Hall of Famer and ABC sideline reporter Lynn Swann, five-time All-Pro Kevin Mawae and New England Patriot Brian Kinchen. Later that night, Coach Saban conducts his radio and television shows before a live audience at the Sheraton. Saban had one final stop before calling it a day and that was to appear with Terry Bowden and John Saunders on the ABC set in Jackson Square. Saban was interviewed at halftime of the Fiesta Bowl.

January 3

On the eve of the national championship game, the two head coaches meet for a a joint press conference at the Hyatt at 10:30 a.m. Later that afternoon, the Tigers go through their final on-field preparations for Oklahoma with a closed walk-thru in the Superdome.

January 4

After 8-days in the Big Easy, it's finally game time as the Tigers and Sooners battle for the BCS National Title at 8 p.m. on ABC. Jessica Simpson sings the National Anthem and shortly there after LSU leaves little doubt as to who would come out on top as Justin Vincent breaks loose on a 64-yard run on the first play of the game.

A defensive struggle for most of the second half, Marcus Spears' interception return for a touchdown in the third quarter proves to be the winning points as the Tigers claim their second national title in football, the first in 45 years, with a 21-14 win over Oklahoma. Vincent is named the MVP of the game after rushing for 117 yards and a touchdown. LSU's defense once again rose to the occasion, holding the Sooners potent offensive attack to only 154 total yards, which included just 52 yards on the ground.

"This is the best team character-wise that I've ever been associated with. I can't tell you how pleased I am that our football team can do something the entire state of Louisiana can be truly proud of."
- LSU coach Nick Saban

national champions

January 5

After just a couple hours of sleep, National Champion head coach Nick Saban and game MVP Justin Vincent address the media in an early morning press conference at the Hyatt.

"The one thing that I thought about when I woke up this morning was how proud of this football team, the coaching staff and all the people who were associated with this team I am of what they accomplished. But what may go a little unnoticed were the ethical values that this team played with, competed with and set an example for our young people and other competitors. I think that is very important for our sport, and all sports, and I can honestly say that I'm very proud of how this team represented those ethical values on and off the field throughout the season, as well as what they were able to accomplish throughout the season." - Nick Saban

"When I woke up this morning, I got a phone call from my mom, and when she asked me if this has all set in, I told her that I hadn't really had the chance to look back upon what we accomplished as a team. As far as the season ending, it's been kind of a fairytale season, so many good things happened to us, and nothing surprised me after all the hard work and dedication to the program and the coaches were behind us 100 percent." - RB Justin Vincent

The ADT National Championship Trophy comes home as the trophy is put on display in the Baton Rouge area for the first time with an appearance at halftime of LSU's women's basketball game against Auburn.

January 24

It's time to celebrate as LSU fans turn out by the thousands for the Parade of Champions in downtown Baton Rouge. In what is believed to be the largest attended parade in the history of Baton Rouge, an estimated 75,000 fans lined the downtown streets to honor the Tigers, who were also joined at the parade by the Southern University football team.

A couple hours later, 25,000 fans braved a rainy afternoon in Tiger Stadium to once again honor college football's national champions with a ceremony on the LSU campus. The celebration included the presentation of National Coach of the Year trophies to Saban along with the presentation of the Sugar Bowl Trophy, the MacArthur Bowl as well as the ADT National Championship Trophy. The hoisting of the 2003 National Championship flag in the north endzone capped the activities.

"When I was a senior in high school, I came to the opening game and the stadium wasn't quite as full and I was a little skeptical where I was going to school. I didn't know where I wanted to go. I was going to go to either Florida State or Miami (Fla.), but I came back to a game when LSU played Tennessee (in 2000). The Tigers won that game in overtime, and I was sitting right up there (pointing) when I saw the 90,000 fans from the stadium charge the field. I knew then that I wanted to be a part of something special. It has been that way since I have been here for three years playing under Coach Saban. It has been an honor, and I speak on behalf of the whole football team in everything we wanted to do, we dedicated to Jeff Boss' family. We were dedicated to success. One of the highlights this season wasn't to win a national championship. That wasn't our goal. Our goal was to play like champions and we did that this year."
- WR Michael Clayton

the white house

March 23

LSU and Southern Cal finally meet, however it's not on the gridiron, but in the East Room at the White House just prior to taking a picture with President Bush.

The Tigers and Trojans were both in Washington D.C. as part of Champions Day at the White House. Among the highlights of the trip for the Tigers was a team picture with President Bush along with the presenting of an LSU national championship jersey by Rodney Reed to the President. Before departing Washington D.C., the Tigers toured the Lincoln Memorial.

"It was great to be here. This was a fantastic experience. This was one of those things that you can't buy. To meet with the President at the White House and to come to Washington D.C. is a great experience and something that this team will remember for the rest of their lives. What makes this special is that it's something that this team earned." - LSU coach Nick Saban

EFFORT	TOUGHNESS	DISCIPLINE	COMMITTMENT	TIGER PRIDE

For years outsiders viewed the LSU football program as an unpolished gem, a potential giant in the college football world waiting to be reborn. With the wealth of resources at LSU, its tradition and the available talent within the state of Louisiana, all the program needed was the right leader to guide it.

Entering his fifth year, Nick Saban, is that leader.

A man of vision and a leader for the future, Saban has restored LSU's proud tradition and brought the Tigers back to the elite of college football in his four years, leading LSU to its first national title in 45 years. During his tenure, Saban has guide the Tigers to 39 victories, including two Southeastern Conference championships, two Sugar Bowl victories and a Peach Bowl win.

With his ability to identify and develop talent, relate to his players and staff while managing an elite program, it is safe to say that Nick Saban has made this a great time to be a part of LSU football.

"LSU has a great product. In any successful organization, you have to have a great product, you have to know what the competition is and you have to have togetherness," says Saban. "Everybody has to have a common goal and we all have to work towards that common goal. That's the way I've been successful in other endeavors."

Saban came to LSU from Michigan State where he rebuilt the Spartans into a top-10 power. Prior to his days at Michigan State, Saban spent four seasons as defensive coordinator of the Cleveland Browns. He turned the Browns' defense from the worst in the NFL in points allowed the year before his arrival into a defense that allowed the fewest points in the league in his final year with the organization in 1994.

With the nation's best recruiting class added to the already highly succesful Tigers, Saban will continue to build upon his success and continue to design his program around the fundamentals that have made him a success at every level of the sport.

THE SABAN MISSION

THE SABAN MISSION

1. To help make you a better person for having been a part of the LSU football program.

2. To help you become a successful student-athlete and earn your degree.

3. To help you reach your full athletic potential and to have the opportunity to win a championship.

4. To help launch your career so that when you leave LSU you can have the best opportunities in life.

THE TOTAL PROGRAM

Nick Saban built his reputation on defense as an assistant coach. As a head coach he has shown the ability to put together a total program. Being competitive on the field and stressing discipline and responsibility off the field, Saban's teams have proven to be consistent winners, while graduating student-athletes at the same time.

EDUCATION FIRST

Saban is a communicator who gets the best out of his players, a coach who can guarantee that a player willing to dedicate himself to the program will maximize his talents.

"I'm a player's coach. I have a tremendous amount of respect for the players in college football and the game. We care about the players first of all as people and I want them to be better people for having been a part of this program. They're here to get an education first. I want every player to work to reach his full potential as a player and as a competitor. I expect our players to commit to a standard of excellence that is very high."

TEAM OWNERSHIP

The keys to Saban's success are founded on aggressive and disciplined leadership and a philosophy of personal responsibility both on the football field and in the classroom.

"One thing that I expect our players to do is to take ownership of their team. This is the players' team. I'm the coach. I want the players to take some responsibility and ownership for all the areas that are important in building this program."

NATIONAL-SCHOLAR ATHLETES

LSU has produced six recipients of the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame National Scholar-Athlete award, including two during Nick Saban's four seasons.

ACADEMIC ALL-SEC UNDER NICK SABAN

The number of football student-athletes to earn Academic All-SEC (3.0 GPA or better) increased by almost double during Saban's four years at LSU. In 2000 and 2001, Saban's first two seasons, a total of 23 players earned Academic All-SEC, while the past two seasons a total of 41 were honored, including 25 players in 2003. The 25 in 2003 were the most Academic All-SEC selections in a single-season in school history.

AMENITIES

- 54,000 square feet of working space
- 75 computer workstations
- 14 private computer rooms in a state-of-the-art computer lab
- Additional study rooms and classrooms for private or group study
- Electronic scheduling of tutoring sessions
- A 1,000-seat auditorium for classes and lectures

Paramount to the success of the "student" half of the term student-athlete is providing LSU athletes with the best possible resources to excel in the classroom. For more than 20 years, the LSU Academic Center for Student-Athletes has helped to build well-rounded student-athletes. But as times change and technology advances, the need for further improvements still exists. As a result, the Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes opened its doors in November of 2002. A $15 million renovation to the Gym Armory not only made it among the nation's premier centers, but put it at the forefront. Improvements to the existing center give LSU student-athletes the best opportunity for success by providing access to the latest technology, as well as an array of expanded services.

COMPUTER STATIONS

Throughout the Academic Center are 75 computer stations, providing student-athletes with a quiet working environment for research, writing and studying.

BO CAMPBELL AUDITORIUM

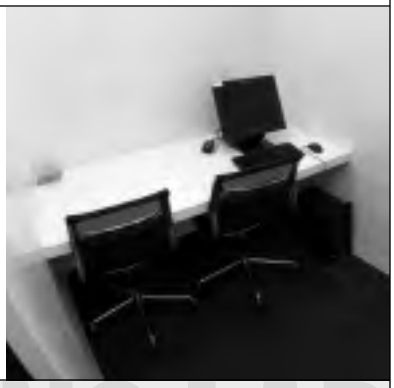
The 1,000-seat auditorium is used through the year as a classroom and lecture hall. Each seat in the auditorium has space for a laptop and a modem hookup, providing each student unlimited learning opportunities. The auditorium also contains a movie theatre size screen to aid professors with lectures and classroom activities.

THE LIBRARY

The library provides a perfect setting for individual study, or with a tutor as group.

STUDY AREA

Included in the 54,000 square feet of the Academic Center are individual study areas as well as 14 private computer rooms for student-athletes to work one-on-one with tutors or by themselves.



COMMUNICATIONS LAB

LIGHTS, CAMERA, ANSWER

Dr. Karam uses his studio to prepare LSU's student-athletes to interact with all phases of local and national media by working one-on-one in a press conference setting. The Communications Lab includes a working camera for Karam to review the session with the student-athletes.

Along with the success of the LSU Football team, comes a great deal of media attention and Dr. Tommy Karam, the Director of the Communications Lab, uses his lab, located on the fourth floor of the Cox Communications Academic Center for Student Athletes, to work with LSU student-athletes on their interactions with the media and interview skills. Karam's lab is a mock press conference setting to get the student-athletes used to handling themselves in front of both print and electronic media. He video tapes the mock interview session and reviews it with the student-athlete to help them become more comfortable in an interview setting. Karam also helps the LSU Football players get prepared for the NFL Combine by working closely with those players on the interview process.

Campus Life

Louisiana State University and Agricultural & Mechanical College has, throughout its 144-year history, served the people of Louisiana, the region, the nation, and the world. LSU is creating a revolution, one of pervasive change and advancement. For the past five years, the focus of the LSU community has been an increased commitment to excellence. Our progress has been dramatic and shows no sign of stopping.

Having witnessed many of yesterday's possibilities become today's tangible realities, the LSU community set forth to capitalize on its success. The goal was to improve our standing as a nationally competitive flagship university. Following intense discussions among the LSU Board of Supervisors, campus administrators, faculty, and student leaders, the objectives required to reach this status crystallized, providing the impetus for LSU's National Flagship Agenda.

"LOUISIANA STATE UNIVERSITY HAS A TRADITION OF GRATITUDE EXPRESSED IN SERVICE TO COMMUNITY AND COUNTRY."

President George W. Bush
2004 LSU SPRING COMMENCEMENT

Strong supporters of education throughout the state have provided resources for a variety of innovative projects that are attracting world-class researchers and their expertise to LSU. The National Flagship Agenda is working to improve the standing of the University, as well as strengthen its position as an economic engine for the state of Louisiana. As a result, the University community is even more determined to achieve excellence at every level.

LSU remains firmly focused on attaining national flagship status by 2010, the University's 150th anniversary. The resolve of the LSU community and the support of the state make these goals attainable. And, if the last five years are any indication of success, the next phase of this agenda will guarantee LSU's place in the arena of national prominence.

Because of its designation as a doctoral/research university by the Carnegie Foundation, LSU ranks in the top 2 percent of the nation's colleges and universities. This designation is shared by only 59 public and 29 private universities across the nation. LSU is also one of only 25 universities nationwide designated as both a land-grant and sea-grant college.

History and tradition began with LSU's founding in 1853 by the General Assembly of Louisiana as the Louisiana State Seminary of Learning and Military Academy near Pineville, Louisiana. The institution opened January 2, 1860. When the Civil War began, the school's first superintendent, William Tecumseh Sherman, resigned to assume a command in the Union Army. The seminary reopened in 1869, but was soon destroyed by fire. The institution moved to Baton Rouge, opening on Nov. 1, 1869.

In 1870, the Seminary was renamed Louisiana State University. In 1874, under the United States Morrill Act, the Louisiana State Agricultural & Mechanical College was established in New Orleans. The two institutions were merged by the Legislature in 1877 to become Louisiana State University and Agricultural & Mechanical College.

Construction on the present campus began in 1922 and the first classes were held in 1926. LSU experienced major growth in the 1930s and 1940s, expanding its student body, curricula, and services. During the 1960s, the University began to place increasing emphasis on research.

Recognizing the importance and extent of statewide agricultural activities of units in the LSU System, the LSU Board of Supervisors established the Center for Agricultural Sciences & Rural Development in 1972. This unit was renamed the LSU Agricultural Center in 1982. Components of the LSU Agricultural Center include the Louisiana Agricultural Experiment Station, the Louisiana Cooperative Extension Service and International Programs.

The primary mission of the LSU Agricultural Center is to conduct research in agricultural and natural resource development and to provide off-campus extension education that disseminates technological, economic, and management information to Louisiana residents.

In 1977, the Paul M. Hebert Law Center, established as the LSU Law School in 1906, was made an autonomous division of the LSU System. The Law Center provides legal education characterized by an unyielding demand for academic excellence. Its unique curriculum, based on civil law as well as substantial elements of common law, provides law graduates with qualifications and training for not one, but two legal systems. The Hebert Law Center holds membership in the Association of Law Schools and is on the approved list of the American Bar Association.

LSU, located on more than 2,000 acres in the southern part of Baton Rouge, Louisiana, is bordered on the west by the Mississippi River. The University's more than 250 principal buildings are grouped on a 650-acre plateau that constitutes the main part of the campus.

LSU and A&M College is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

WHY LSU?

"It was really quite an honor to be able to play for LSU. Being from Lockport, everybody down there is a big LSU fan. Once I graduated from high school and had to make the decision where I was going to play, LSU was the obvious choice because I had grown up an LSU fan and it was a place where my family could watch me play. LSU really helped me grow both as a player and a person. I have nothing but fond memories of the place."

Tommy Hodson
All-SEC

"I had a lot of choices coming out of high school, but when I visited LSU it was different. It felt like a family with the coaches and the players. LSU was the best place for me to go. It had everything I wanted, both football and academically. The atmosphere and the coaches made me feel very comfortable around them as well as the academic people and everybody involved with the program. I was from down the road in Louisiana and could have gone anywhere to school, but I chose to stay close to home."

Jarvis Green
Defensive End (1998-01)
New England Patriots member

"As far back as I can remember (riding bicycles, playing little league baseball), I have literally bled purple and gold. It never crossed my mind that there was anywhere else to go other than LSU. The experiences and relationships that I developed at LSU have been an integral part of my life. No other colleges existed in my mind. I am fortunate to have attended a place that I considered a dream and look forward to my association with the University until the day I die."

David Toms
2001 PGA Champion
and LSU Graduate

"I was basically an in-state guy and had always thought about going LSU for football and to get a good education. I made a lot of visits to different schools in my selection process, but everything always pointed toward LSU. My heart and my family guided me in that direction not just for the athletics, but for the academics as well. From top to bottom LSU has good people from the coaches on down the line."

Bradie James
Linebacker (1999-2002)
Dallas Cowboys member

AFRICAN-AMERICAN CULTURAL CENTER

The African-American Cultural Center provides a multifaceted approach to working with all students at LSU. It offers opportunities for people to learn about the contributions of African-American men and women in the areas of literature, science and the humanities. In addition, opportunities for the University community to have greater exposure to art exhibits, dance troupes, theatre, poetry readings and educational programs are provided.

PROGRAM GOALS

Educational programs for the African-American Cultural Center are the heart of the center. The scope of these programs fall into the following four categories:

- historical/political
- artistic
- informal student advising
- community outreach

BENEFITS

By creating and funding the African-American Cultural Center, the University community benefits in the following areas:

- retention of African-American LSU students
- attract qualified African-American student applicants to LSU
- educate the student body and the community about African-American culture
- increase racial and cultural awareness of students, faculty and staff
- assist with the recruitment and retention of African-American faculty and staff

Giving Back

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

The Community Service aspect does not only serve to enhance a student-athletes college experience, but also serves to expand character. Players not only gain a strong sense of self-worth, but also experiences personal satisfaction and growth from volunteering and community service activities. More importantly are the benefits that the community receives. It enables the community to gain an enormous advantage in feeling that they have a "partnership" with LSU student-athletes.

LSU student-athletes participate in a variety of community service projects including reading in schools, nursing home visits, hospital pediatric ward visits, speaking engagements and more in East Baton Rouge Parish.

What is CHAMPS?

The CHAMPS/Life Skills program was developed by the NCAA to help prepare student-athletes for the challenges of life beyond the playing field. Through workshops, service projects, and social events, CHAMPS, an acronym for Challenging Athletes Minds for Personal Success, brings LSU student-athletes information that will prepare them for the biggest game of all - the game of life!

HOW CAN CHAMPS HELP?

By focusing on "real life" skills and personal development, the CHAMPS Program not only assists the student-athletes with meeting daily challenges, but also enhances student-athlete's growth in their college years and beyond.

CHAMPS at LSU

The CHAMPS/Life Skills program at LSU is operated out of the Academic Center for Athletes, and the focus of the program is on five commitments viewed as critical to personal growth:

- Academic Excellence
- Athletic Excellence
- Career Development
- Personal Development
- Community Service

Mike Mallet
Director for the
CHAMPS/Life Skills program

Kristen McFadden
Assistant Director for the

JOB EXPERIENCE

Student-athletes at LSU take full advantage of their summers by developing skills in their field of study. Football players spend most of their summer participating in jobs that relate to their major like working at ...

- Hospitals
- Physical Therapy centers
- Public Relations firms
- Building Contractors
- Restaurant Management
- Engineering firms
- Accounting offices

Being a part of the LSU football program involves more than simply playing in front of more than 90,000 crazed Tiger fans on Saturdays in the fall. LSU football provides an opportunity to achieve athletic success while also getting a head start on the most important game of all - the game of life.

The LSU football program has a longstanding internal summer jobs program that aggressively seeks opportunities to help place its players in career-developing positions within the community. Every LSU football player that wants to get a leg up on their future has the opportunity to work during the summer with the goal to help players earn valuable experience.

LSU football players are expected to be extremely active in utilizing the career development resources readily available to them.

The City of Baton Rouge

The state capitol building of Louisiana, located in Baton Rouge, is the tallest capitol building in the nation at 34 stories.

Hospitality and comfort are a Southern tradition practiced to perfection around Baton Rouge. Minutes from the city, ancient moss-draped oaks, fragrant honeysuckle, formal gardens and the finest examples of Southern architecture await. Combine this with the excitement of the mighty Mississippi River, cajun music and a gourmet meal that is topped with freshly brewed cafe-au-lait at one of Baton Rouge's fine restaurants. Mix in an autumn Saturday evening at Tiger Stadium, and Baton Rouge becomes one of the most attractive cities for living, entertainment and education in the South.

"I'd been warned prior to my first visit to Baton Rouge that the legendary Death Valley mystique was a myth. That assessment couldn't have been more wrong. Tiger Stadium was as loud as any I've ever heard during the dramatic fourth quarter of Saturday's Georgia game, the festivities surrounding it as advertised.

The streets were lined with purple and gold. Smoke emanated from the grills in the parking lot. Shouts of "Go Tigers" and "Tiger Bait" echoed from the stadium deep into the heart of campus.

And that was just Friday night."

Stewart Mandel
SI.com, Sept. 21, 2003

"I've been here as a player in the early '60s. I've been here as a coach in the '80s. When the crowd is with it, there is no place like this (Tiger Stadium) in all of college football. I might add there is no place like it in the NFL. These people (LSU fans) make a difference with their squad. It's tough to play them when they get like this."

Bill Curry
ESPN Color Analyst

The band plays the first note of the fight song and more than 90,000 fans rise to their feet, captivated and transformed by what they are about to see. The energy, the noise and excitement level hit another gear as the players charge through the uprights and prepare to take the field of battle. As the game begins the fans create an atmosphere unlike any other in college football, raising their level of intensity as the magnitude of the game heightens with every turn.

This could only be a Saturday night in Tiger Stadium.

For the college football fan, it doesn't get any better than Tiger Stadium, also known as Death Valley. Already considered one of the loudest athletic venues in the world, an additional 11,600 seats were added prior to the 2000 season, creating an even more hostile environment for its visitors with its current capacity of 91,600.

LSU averaged better than 90,000 fans per game a year ago and ranked at least sixth in the nation in attendance for the fourth straight season. Tiger Stadium had over 92,000 fans attend four home games in 2003, including a record crowd of 92,251 witness LSU's 17-10 thrilling victory over Georgia. 92,000 fans also filled the stadium versus Florida (92,077), Auburn (92,085) and Arkansas (92,213), while just under that mark were on hand for the Tiger's 49-10 homecoming victory over Louisiana Tech (91,879).

"Baton Rouge happens to be the worst place in the world for a visiting team. It's like being inside a drum."

Paul "Bear" Bryant
Former Alabama Head Coach

"It makes a body tingle -- these folks go berserk when the band marches on the field."

Douglas Looney
Sports Illustrated

"College football is never better than when there's a good team in Tiger Stadium."

Lee Corso
ESPN

"Unbelievable, crazy. That place makes Notre Dame look like Romper Room.

Brad Budde
former Southern Cal All-American

"The sheer noise level is startling, and the roiled passions and unrepentant love which oozes like hot lava from the steep cliffs of the stadium onto the field can be disarming. The intense level of noise cascades almost incessantly from the stadium peaks in a close game."

LSU FOOTBALL ON NATIONAL TELEVISION

ON THE TUBE

The Tigers were in the national spotlight a great deal in 2003. ESPN College Gameday broadcast from Baton Rouge during the season and they were in New Orleans all week leading up to the BCS National Championship game. ABC, which broadcast the national championship game, also had a large prescence in the Crescent City, including having Nick Saban as a guest on the set during the week. Gameday also visited Baton Rouge for feature stories twice in 2003, including Rocket Ismail's story on the Tiger defensive secondary.

NATIONALLY TELEVISED GAMES

College football and LSU fans all across the nation had ample opportunity to root for their Tigers on television. Over the past three seasons LSU has appeared on national television 27 times, including the BSC National Championship game on ABC and 10 games on CBS.

Sports Illustrated's cover featured Sugar Bowl MVP Justin Vincent the week after LSU defeated Oklahoma in to win the National Championship.

ON THE COVER

MAGAZINE COVERS

QB Matt Mauck graced the cover of Sports Illustrated's Championship Edition magazine that was sold on news stands the weeks following LSU's victory over Oklahoma to win the national title.

DT Chad Lavalais was all smiles on this Sporting News cover following LSU's 21-14 win over Oklahoma in the National Championship Game.

Chad Lavalais shared the cover with Oklahoma's Tommy Harris on the Sporting News' Bowl preview issue.

Matt Mauck appeared on the cover of the Sporting News in early December after leading LSU to a victory over Ole Miss to vault the Tigers into national championship contention.

MEDIA ATTENTION

IN THE NEWS

Over the years, LSU has garnered a great deal of media attention, but none moreso than that during the 2003 run for the national title. The Louisiana media, including the Baton Rouge Advocate and the New Orleans Times-Picayune, have always covered the Tigers on an indepth basis, but this past season the likes of Sports Illustrated, The Sporting News, ESPN, and numerous other national media outlets surrounded LSU to grasp the full story of the National Championship season.

Former Tiger and current Sports Illustrated writer John Ed Bradley's story about his days at LSU appeared in SI's 2002 College Football preview

In 1997, Kevin Faulk and the LSU Tigers defeated No. 1 Florida and later that week were on the cover of Sports Illustrated.

In Sports Illustrated's Sept. 13, 1971 edition, SI ranked the Tigers as the preseason No. 5 team in the nation and declared Tommy Casanova the best player in the nation.

Charles McClendon LSU Football Practice Facility

The LSU football practice facility, with four lighted full-length fields and one-full length indoor field, rivals that of any major college or professional football practice complex. The LSU football complex is also equipped with a satellite medical facility, which can service injured players as well as rehab recovering players on site.

UNDER COVER

The Tigers conduct their entire winter conditioning program in the Indoor Practice Facility. The facility is also a short walk from the main practice fields, giving the Tigers a quick turnaround to continue practice when inclement weather hits.

INDOOR PRACTICE FACILITY

LSU is one of only a handful of schools in college football with a full 100-yard indoor, climate-controlled football practice facility. A new state-of-the-art turf, the same turf on which the Indianapolis Colts play their games, was installed in the spring of 1998. To simulate game conditions, the surface is crowned in the middle and all lighting is on the sides of the field. The Indoor Football Facility is located adjacent to the outdoor practice field so a practice session can resume indoors within 10 minutes if an outdoor practice is interrupted by rain or lightning.

LSU FOOTBALL OPERATIONS BUILDING

LSU's Football Operations Center will be an all-in-one facility that includes football offices, a locker room, a training room, an equipment room, and a video operations center. The $15 million facility will be located at the current site of football practice complex. The facility, which will be the finest of its kind in college athletics, will allow for more efficient time for dressing, training and practicing for the national champion Tigers. LSU's Football Operations Center will be completed in the fall of 2005.

FACILITY BUILT BY THE TIGER ATHLETIC FOUNDATION

McClendon is the winningest football coach in LSU history.

CHARLES MCCLENDON

On September 9, 2002, LSU formally named its football practice facility for Charles McClendon, the winningest football coach in school history. The facility, which features four full-length football practice fields as well as an indoor practice facility, is now known as the Charles McClendon Practice Facility.

McClendon served as head coach at LSU from 1962 to 1979, a span that saw the Tigers play in 13 bowl games. McClendon compiled a 137-59-7 overall mark in 18 seasons and was named SEC Coach of the Year twice, in 1969 and 1970, and National Coach of the Year in 1970.

In all, McClendon coached LSU to 16-winning seasons and the Tigers had six 9-win seasons under his direction. McClendon is a member of the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame, the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame and the Cotton Bowl Hall of Fame.

Jeff Boss Locker Room

The LSU locker room is located on the north end of Tiger Stadium and adjoins the recently remodeled equipment room with all the necessary features to serve a college football team. The LSU locker room was remodeled prior to the 1996 season and houses all of the football players in one room. With locker space for 115 athletes, the LSU football locker room is superior to that of many NFL franchises. Among the features of the LSU football locker room are wide dressing areas for each player, including a locker, sitting area, storage bin, a sauna and a steam room. The locker room is also equipped with seven televisions as well as a surround sound stereo system.

FACILITY RENOVATED BY THE TIGER ATHLETIC FOUNDATION

AMENITIES

- 115 lockers complete with a storage bins and a sitting area
- Two large fully functional shower rooms
- A surround sound stereo system
- Seven televisions placed so every locker can view at least one

CAPTAIN'S LOUNGE

Just off the locker room is the new Captains Lounge built during the 2002 season. The lounge is a place for current players to relax between their classes and before and after practice. The room features a 72 inch big screen TV with a DVD player and an X-box game console, pool, fooseball and ping-pong tables, a computer work station and six laptop computer hook-ups for players to work and check email.

CROSSBAR

The crossbar is a section of a goal post that stood in Tiger Stadium from 1955 to 1984. Tradition calls for the Tigers to touch this bar before they go into "Death Valley".

GOALS PYRAMID

Each Spring the seniors meet with Coach Saban to set the team goals for the upcoming season. The goal board proudly stands outside the LSU Football locker room as a daily reminder.

The 2003 LSU football team dedicated the season to Jeff Boss.

JEFF BOSS

The 2003 LSU football season was dedicated to the memory of Jeff Boss, who served as the Tigers' supervisor of athletic equipment for 24 seasons. Boss was diagnosed with brain cancer shortly after the Tigers returned from the Cotton Bowl in 2003, and he passed away on October 27 later that year. A native of Lake Charles, La., and a graduate of McNeese State University, Boss continued to work at LSU until June while undergoing treatment for his illness.

Boss wasn't on the sidelines for the Tigers' 2003 season opener against Louisiana-Monroe, marking the first time he had missed an LSU game in 24 years. Two weeks later, coach Nick Saban and a dozen football players presented Boss with the game ball from the UL-Monroe contest.

LSU honored Boss on Sept. 29, 2003 as the school named the football locker room for him at a ceremony that saw dozens of former Tiger football players and managers return to campus for the event.

Lawton Room

With seating for 140 athletes, the Bill Lawton Squad Room is one of the finest meeting rooms in the country. Built adjacent to Tiger Stadium in 1998, the Lawton Squad Room is the one of the newest additions to the LSU football program and features plush individual seating in a theatre-like atmosphere. The main auditorium has state-of-the-art audio and visual components necessary for meetings, lectures and reviewing of game tapes. Nine additional rooms are used for individual position meetings.

The room was made possible largely in part by Mr. William Lawton of Lake Charles, La.

AMENITIES

- Theatre style seating for 140 individuals
- State of the art audio/visual components
- Nine break-out rooms for individual meetings

The Tigers have nine meeting rooms inside the Lawton Room to review tape and go over game plans for the upcoming week's opponent.

HALL OF CHAMPIONS

LSU Tiger football honors its All-Americans with a painting by Jack Jaubert that is displayed in The Hall of Champions.

Situated behind the Bill Lawton Auditorium is the LSU Hall of Champions, an area that embodies the rich tradition of LSU Tiger football. The hall contains an area to sit, relax and and enjoy the LSU football tradition. The hall contains artifacts that span from the early days like Billy Cannon's 1959 Heisman to the recent past like Josh Reed's 2001 Biletnikoff Award as well as LSU's 2003 ADT National Championship trophy and both the 2001 and 2003 SEC Championship Trophies.

Each All-American in the storied tradition of the LSU Tiger football program is on the wall including both LSU's first All-American Gus Tinsley in 1935 to the most recent All-americans of 2003.

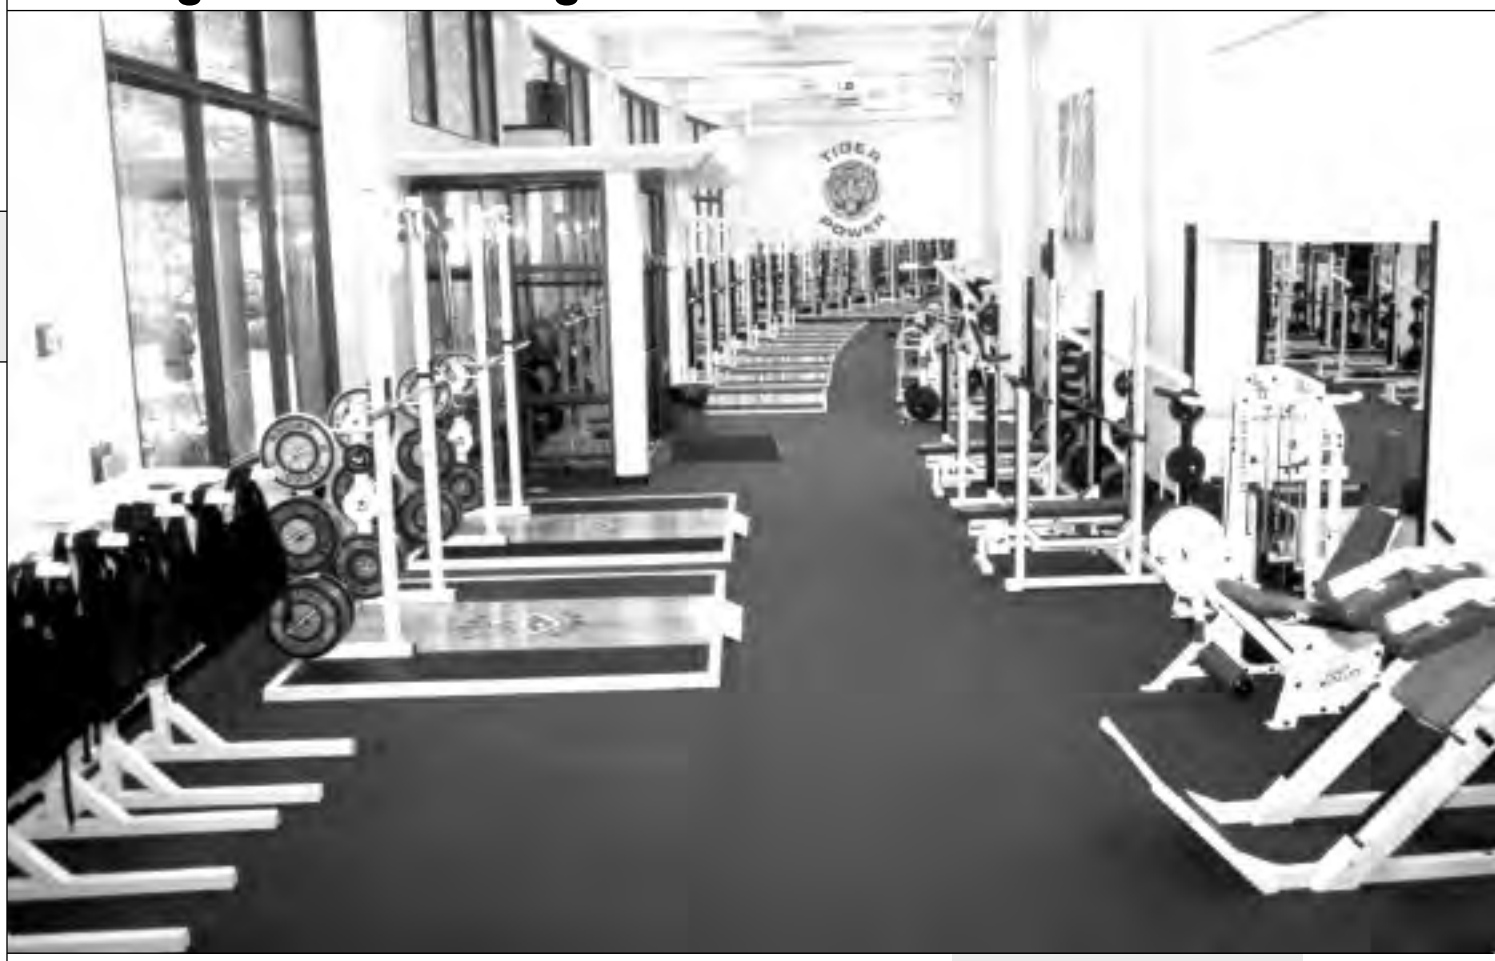
The Hall of Champions also honors those former LSU student-athletes that have made it to the National Football League. Helmets from the 32 NFL teams are displayed on the wall with a small name plaque for each LSU alumnus that has played in the league.

A further stroll down the hall and the rich history of LSU's 35 bowl games is apparent with a list of all the games and trophies, including both the 2002 and 2004 Sugar Bowl Trophies.

ADT TROPHY

LSU's 2003 ADT National Championship trophy is housed in the Hall of Champions along with the 1958 National Championship trophy, Billy Cannon's 1959 Heisman Trophy and Josh Reed's 2001 Biletnikoff Award.

Strength & Conditioning



In just four years, strength and conditioning coach Tommy Moffitt, who was named the 2003 College Football Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year by the America Football Monthly, has proven to be a perfect fit in purple and gold. Since Moffitt joined the Tigers for the 2000 season, they have become one of the most fit programs in the nation as witnessed by their success in the fourth quarter each of the past four seasons. Prior to coming to LSU, Moffitt earned the 1999 College Football Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year honor by the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society as a Miami Hurricane.

The LSU strength and conditioning facility, located in Tiger Stadium, was built in 1997 and features the latest in both strength training and cardiovascular training equipment.

Taking advantage of the best facilities in the nation, not surprisingly, LSU has had its share of Strength and Conditioning All-America recipients. LSU has had at least one Strength and Conditioning All-American five of the last seven years.

FACILITY BUILT BY THE TIGER ATHLETIC FOUNDATION

4TH QUARTER PROGRAM

Making a difference down the stretch is important in every college football game. The Tigers follow the most strenuous off-season conditioning programs that give them what they need when the clock is winding down in the fourth quarter.

The Tigers have recorded eight fourth-quarter comebacks in four years under LSU coach Nick Saban. LSU is 27-1 over the last four years when taking a lead into the fourth quarter.

LSU's 4th Quarter Comebacks Under Nick Saban:

GAME	RESULTS	4TH QUARTER DEFICIT
2000
Mississippi St.	W, 45-38	down 31-17 entering fourth quarter
Alabama	W, 30-28	down 21-14 with 11 minutes to play
Georgia Tech	W, 28-14	down 14-9 entering fourth quarter
2001
Kentucky	W, 29-25	down 25-22 with less than a minute
Tennessee	W, 31-20	down 17-16 entering fourth quarter
2002
Kentucky	W, 33-30	down 30-27 with 11 seconds to play
Ole Miss	W, 14-13	down 13-7 entering the fourth quarter
Georgia	W, 17-10	tied 10-10 with 4:25 to play

"The 4th Quarter Program is designed to take our players to the next level. Our focus with the 4th Quarter Program is in five areas – discipline, commitment, toughness, effort and pride. Our players have devoted themselves to these values and as a result, they are having a great deal of success on the field, in particular the fourth quarter."

STRENGTH COACH OF THE YEAR

Tommy Moffitt was named the 2003 College Football Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year by the American Football Monthly.

KARATE

EYE OF THE TIGER

Coach Tommy Moffitt and his staff prepare the Tigers with an intense strength and conditioning program during the off-season and in-season.

Dr. Martin J. Broussard Center for Athletic Training

LSU boasts the largest and most complete athletic training facility in all of collegiate athletics. Focused on aggressive rehabilitation, the Broussard Center for Athletic Training is furnished with the latest in technology and equipment. Some of the features of the 23,000-square foot facility include an on-site x-ray room, an in-house pharmacy, as well as state of the art hydrotherapy pools. The Broussard Center for Athletic Training is equipped with the largest hydrotherapy pools in both collegiate and professional sports and is one of the few collegiate training centers with a full-service pharmacy, as well as on-site x-ray room. LSU is also the only school in college athletics with a training room equipped with a full-service vision center. The facility is named in honor of legendary trainer Dr. Martin J. Broussard, who served as LSU's athletic trainer for several decades.

DR. MARTIN BROUSSARD

LSU's multi-million dollar athletic training facility is named in honor of Dr. Martin J. Broussard, the legendary trainer whose career spanned over 40 years at LSU, having been appointed to the position of head athletic trainer in 1948. Following his semi-retirement from the day-to-day work as trainer in 1993, he continued to serve the LSU as an Assistant to the Athletic Director through 2001 giving him well over 50 years of service to the Athletic Department.

Among his many accomplishments was the formulation of "Quick Kick", an isotonic drink used to replace liquids, vitamins and the electrolytes lost through sweating. He was a trainer for the Pan American Games in 1955 and the U.S. Olympic team in 1960. In 1963, the Rockne Foundation named him Trainer of the Year. In 1978, Broussard was named to the NATA Hall of Fame followed by the Louisiana Athletic Trainer's Hall of Fame in 1982.

Jack and Priscilla Andonie Museum

The Jack and Priscilla Andonie Museum is home to LSU's Athletics history. The museum, located at the Lod Cook Alumni Center on LSU's campus, is full of artifacts and memorabilia from the Andonie's personal collection gathered by the couple over the past three decades that total about 13,000 pieces. The museum features 51 separate displays that include at least one area in the room for each of LSU's sports. There are also displays featuring LSU's five retired jerseys, the "Early Years" of LSU athletics, the Tiger Band and Golden Girls, cheerleaders and Mike the Tiger. The center piece of the museum, that will change at least once a year, features "The Road to the National Championship." A game-by-game recap of the 2003 LSU football team's national championship season. Included in the display is a replica of the ADT National Championship trophy, coach Nick Saban's sideline headset, and an official game ball signed by the team.

Great Moments

Tiger Stadium - Oct. 31, 1959

Billy Cannon's 89-yard punt return for a touchdown against third-ranked Ole Miss is not only one of the most memorable plays in LSU football history, but is also ranks among the most memorable in college football. Cannon, the 1959 Heisman Trophy winner, fielded the punt, trailing 3-0 late in the game, at the Tiger 11-yard line and began his run into immortality. He eluded seven would-be tacklers down the east sideline and crossed the goal line of Tiger Stadium to give the top-ranked LSU Tigers the 7-3 victory.

THE 1966 COTTON BOWL 1966

Cotton Bowl - Jan. 1, 1966

LSU entered the 1966 Cotton Bowl as a heavy underdog to the second-ranked Arkansas Razorbacks, but the Tigers knew they had nothing to lose and lot of respect to gain. Arkansas, which entered the game riding a 22-game win streak and a victory over LSU meant a possible national title, struck first, but LSU's Joe Labruzzo reached the endzone twice in the second quarter to give the Tigers a 14-7 lead that would stand and foil the Razorbacks' hopes of a title.

JONES TO DAVIS 1972

Tiger Stadium - Nov. 4, 1972

In one of the most exciting endings to a game in LSU football history, Bert Jones connected with RB Brad Davis in the corner of the endzone as time expired and PK Rusty Jackson nailed the extra-point to give the Tigers a 17-16 victory over Ole Miss and kept the win streak alive at 11 straight games.

THE EARTHQUAKE 1988

Tiger Stadium - Oct. 8, 1988

QB Tommy Hodson connected with TB Eddie Fuller in the back of the endzone for the touchdown that vaulted LSU to a 7-6 victory over Auburn on Oct. 8, 1988 to help lead the LSU Tigers to its seventh SEC crown. The moment will forever be known as the "Night the Tigers Moved the Earth". The play caused such a thunderous explosion from the 79,341 fans in Tiger Stadium, the LSU Geology Department registered vibrations on a seismograph machine at the exact moment the touchdown was scored.

NO. 1 FALLS! 1997

Tiger Stadium - Oct. 11, 1997

Oct. 11, 1997 marked the first time LSU defeated the No. 1 ranked team in the nation when the Tigers upended top-ranked Florida 28-21 in Tiger Stadium. LSU jumped out to an early lead, but the Gators would score a touchdown with 6:44 remaining in the fourth quarter to cut the lead to single digits. LSU's defense sealed the victory when Raion Hill intercepted a Florida pass with less than three minutes to play and the Tigers ran out the clock to set off one of the greatest celebrations in Tiger Stadium history.

THE BLUEGRASS MIRACLE 2002

Commonwealth Stadium - Nov. 9, 2002

Trailing 30-27 to Kentucky with 11 seconds to play in the game, LSU mounted a two-play 87-yard drive that will forever be known as "The Bluegrass Miracle." QB Marcus Randall connected with WR Devery Henderson on the game-winning 75-yard pass as time expired to give the Tigers a 33-30 victory.

2003 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

New Orleans Superdome - Jan. 4, 2004

LSU, the No. 2 team in the Bowl Championship Series rankings, beat No. 1 BCS ranked Oklahoma to win the 2003 National Championship, the Tigers' first since the 1958 season, in the Nokia Sugar Bowl. Freshman RB Justin Vincent, named the game's MVP after totaling 117 yards, scampered 64 yards on the first play of the game to set the tone as LSU never trailed in the game, winning 21-14. The LSU defense, ranked No. 1 in the nation, stifled the Sooner's top-ranked offense, holding Oklahoma to 154 yards and sacking Heisman winning QB Jason White five times.

NFL Scout Day

Nearly 100 NFL representatives, including scouts, coaches and general managers, converge on the LSU campus each spring for Scout Day. Scout Day gives NFL scouts and executives an opportunity to view potential LSU pro prospects first hand through a series of drills. The LSU Indoor Facility is the ideal setting, giving both prospects and scouts all the necessary resources to conduct a productive session.

Over his last seven years as a head coach, Nick Saban has seen 38 of his players selected in the NFL draft. Currently, the Tigers have at least one representative on 23 of the 32 NFL teams. Throughout its illustrious history, LSU has produced a total of 24 first-round draft choices and had one each year from 1996-99. The Tigers had seven players drafted in the 2004 NFL draft, including Michael Clayton who was selected 15th overall by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

Retired Jerseys

The five individuals on this page are the only men to have their jerseys retired by LSU. Basketball has retired the No. 23 for Pete Maravich, No. 50 for Bob Pettit, Jr., and No. 33 for Shaquille O'Neal. Football's only retired jersey is the No. 20 worn by Billy Cannon, while baseball retired the No. 15 in honor of longtime coach and current athletics director Skip Bertman.

BOB PETIT

Led LSU to its first NCAA Final Four in 1953 and he later became the first player in NBA history to exceed the 20,000-plus point barrier. Pettit is a member of the NBA Hall of Fame and in 1997 he was named as one of the top 50 players in NBA history.

"Pistol Pete," Maravich still holds the NCAA record for career points with 3,667 and for career scoring average with 44.2 points a game. He was selected the National Player of the Year in 1970 after leading the Tigers to the NIT Final Four. He scored 50+ points an amazing 28 times. He went on to a 10-year professional career and was selected as one of the NBA's 50 greatest players in 1997.

SHAQUILLE O'NEAL

Was the first pick in the 1992 NBA Draft. He was named MVP of the league in 2000 and was a three-time NBA Finals MVP after leading the Los Angeles Lakers to three World Championships. At LSU, O'Neal averaged 21.6 points and 13.6 rebounds for his career, and in 1991, he was named the World's Amateur Athlete of the Year as well as SEC Athlete of the Year and National Player of the Year. In 1997, he was named as one of the top 50 players in NBA history.

One of the true legends of college football in the South, Cannon was the 1959 Heisman Trophy winner and helped the Tigers to the 1958 national title. Cannon's most memorable performance came in 1959 against Ole Miss when No. 1 LSU trailed No. 3 Ole Miss 3-0 in the fourth quarter. He fielded a punt, broke seven tackles and returned it 89 yards for the 7-3 victory. He went on to a successful 11-year professional career.

A legend in the college baseball ranks, Bertman created a dynasty at LSU, guiding the Tigers to five national titles in a 10-year stretch from 1991-2000. He also skippered the United States to a bronze medal at the 1996 Olympics in Atlanta and was an assistant on the gold medal-winning U.S. squad in Seoul, Korea in 1988. Bertman retired from coaching following the 2001 season and is currently the LSU athletic director.

LSU Greats

LSU's Success in each of its 20 sports is evident with this outstanding list of Tigers.

PAT HENRY

Has led the LSU track and field program to 27 national championships and 19 SEC titles. The only coach to win both men's and women's titles in the same year and became the first to accomplish the feat of winning both the men's and women's indoor national titles in the same season in 2004.

ESTHER JONES

A 21-time All-American while a LSU, Jones won a gold medal as a member of the United States' 4x100-meter relay team at the 1992 Olympic Games in Barcelona.

NICKI ARNSTAD

The 2002 NCAA Floor Exercise Co-Champion, Arnstad became the first LSU gymnast to win a national title. She was a two-time All-American and won the NCAA Central Regional Floor and All-Around Championships.

PETA-GAYE DOWDIE

A 19-time All-American. Dowdie was a member of three NCAA Championship teams during her time at LSU and went on to compete for her native Jamaica at the 2000 Sydney Olympics.

BRITNI SNEED

One of three four-time first-team All-SEC selections in conference history, Sneed was a two-time SEC Player of the Year and was a three-time NFCA All-American, leading the Tigers to the Women's College World Series in 2001.

WALTER DAVIS

An Olympian in 2000, Davis helped LSU to national titles in 2001 and 2002. The SEC Male Athlete of the Year in 2002, he won six NCAA titles and earned a school-record nine All-America honors.

DAVID TOMS

The two-time SEC Player of the Year, Toms has gone on to a successful career on the PGA Tour. Among his PGA Tour victories was a thrilling win at the PGA Championship in August of 2001.

MARIE FERDINAND

The eighth pick overall in the 2001 WNBA draft by the Utah Starzz. A Kodak All-American in 2000-01 who helped the Lady Tigers to the Elite Eight in 2000 and to the NCAA Tournament three times. She is a two-time WNBA all-star selection.

TODD WALKER

Capped his LSU career as the SEC's all-time leader in hits, runs, RBIs, and total bases. Walker, who is a member of the All-Time College World Series Team, led LSU to the national title in 1993.

MEREDITH DUNCAN

The nation's top collegiate golfer in 2002, Duncan left LSU as the schools best female golfer. She earned first-team All-America honors as a senior in 2002 and won the United States Women's Amateur Championship in 2001.

BEN MCDONALD

Named National Player of the Year in 1989 and he was later the first player chosen in the Major League Baseball Draft by the Baltimore Orioles.

LSU Football All-Americans

Y.A. TITTLE

A standout quarterback for the Tigers from 1944-47. Y.A. Tittle went on to a Hall of Fame NFL career spanning 15 seasons where he was selected NFL MVP on two occasions ('57 and '62).

BILLY CANNON

One of the true legends of college football in the South, Billy Cannon was the 1959 Heisman Trophy winner that helped the Tigers to the 1958 national title. Cannon's most memorable performance came in 1959 against Ole Miss. The top-ranked Tigers trailed No. 3 Ole Miss 3-0 in the fourth quarter when Cannon fielded a punt, broke seven tackles and returned it 89 yards as the Tigers went on to win 7-3. He went on to a successful 11-year professional career.

STEVE VAN BUREN

A halfback for the Tigers from 1941-43, Steve Van Buren was an All-SEC selection in 1943, helping LSU to an Orange Bowl victory. An NFL Hall of Famer who enjoyed an eight-year career with the Eagles.

BERT JONES

Bert Jones finished fourth in the balloting for the 1972 Heisman Trophy. LSU played in three bowl games during his career and won the SEC title his sophomore year. Tigers compiled a 26-6-1 mark during his career. His most notable feats were against Notre Dame in 1971 (28-8), and versus Ole Miss in 1972 when, with time expired, threw a touchdown pass to Brad Davis for a 17-16 LSU victory. First-team All-SEC by UPI in 1972. First pick in 1973 NFL draft by Baltimore Colts.

JIMMY TAYLOR

Jimmy Taylor was as complete a football player ever to play the game. He was named most valuable player in the 1958 Senior Bowl. His pro career is legendary with the Green Bay Packers and he was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1976. Played with the Packers from 1958-66, then with the New Orleans Saints in 1967.

TOMMY CASANOVA

Versatility personified might be the best description of the myriad talents of Tommy Casanova. During his three year LSU career, he played both offense and defense and returned punts and kickoffs. One of just two three time All-SEC performers from LSU, 1969-70-71. Played several seasons with the Cincinnati Bengals while pursuing his medical degree.

JERRY STOVALL

Jerry Stovall was the runner-up in the voting for the 1962 Heisman Trophy. He was named First-Team All-SEC in 1961 by UPI and in 1962 by both AP and UPI. Stovall played nine seasons with the St. Louis Cardinals before returning to LSU as assistant coach. He was then named head coach after the tragic death of Bo Rein in 1980 and led the Tigers to the 1983 Orange Bowl and was named National Coach of the Year by the Walter Camp Football Foundation after the 1982 season.

CHARLES ALEXANDER

During his career, Charles Alexander set nine SEC records, tied one and set 27 LSU marks. He holds the LSU records for most rushes in a game (43), most yards in a season (1686) and most yards gained per game in a season (153.3). Was named First-Team All-SEC by AP and UPI in 1977 and 1978. Drafted in first round by Cincinnati and played in the 1981 Super Bowl.

FIRST-TEAM ALL-AMERICANS

WENDELL DAVIS

One of the most prolific receivers in LSU history, Wendell Davis finished his career with a then SEC record 2,708 yards receiving. Currently ranks second in LSU history and sixth in SEC history in career receiving yards. Also ranks among the top 10 in the SEC history in single season receiving yards (1,244), single season receptions (80), and career receptions (183). First-team All-SEC by AP, UPI and SEC Coaches in 1987 and 1988.

KEVIN FAULK

LSU's all-time leading rusher and a three-time All-SEC choice, Kevin Faulk led the SEC in rushing in each of his junior and senior seasons and topped the league in scoring as a senior. As a sophomore he led the SEC in all-purpose yards and second in the league in rushing as he was named All-America by the AP as an all-purpose player. He was the SEC Freshman Offensive Player of the Year in 1995. Was a member of the 2002 and 2004 Super Bowl Champion New England Patriots.

JOSH REED

An All-American, Josh Reed re-wrote both the LSU and SEC record books with a record 94 receptions for 1,740 yards on his way to winning the Biletnikoff Award in 2001. He was a consensus first-team All-America selection and led the nation in yards per game (145.0). Reed finished his career with then an SEC record 3,001 yards receiving on 167 catches.

CHAD LAVALAIS

Chad Lavalais anchored LSU's defense that led the Tigers to the 2003 National Championship. Named the National Defensive Player of the Year by the Sporting News and was a consensus first-team All-American as well as being a finalist for both the Nagurski Award and the Outland Trophy. The first-team All-SEC selection was also named the SEC's Defensive Player of the Year. Finished career with 202 total tackles, 32.5 were for a loss and 11 were sacks.

FOUR OF A KIND

Stephen Peterman was one of four First-Team All-Americans selected from the 2003 National Championship team. It was the first time four LSU players from the same team were selected to the first-team.

The Southeastern Conference

WHAT'S THE BEST WAY TO JUDGE WHICH CONFERENCE IS THE BEST in the NATION?

Is it the quality of the competition from top to bottom in a league? Year-in and year-out, the Southeastern Conference is one of the most competitive conferences in the country.

Is it how a conference fares against non-conference competition? The SEC's 37-19 non-conference record in 2003 was the second best in the nation and only the ACC matched the SEC's five bowl wins last season.

Last season, the SEC had five victories against non-conference teams ranked in the final wire service polls (#3 Oklahoma, #5 Miami, Fla., #12 Texas, #18 Purdue, #22 Clemson), with all victories either taking place on a neutral field or on the opponents' home turf.

Is it competing for the national championship? LSU won the national championship in 2003 with a 13-1 record and a 21-14 victory over Oklahoma in the Nokia Sugar Bowl. It was the SEC's 15th national championship and the league's fourth national title since league expansion in 1992.

Is it playing in front of capacity crowds on fun-filled Saturdays with a tradition that is unparalleled? The SEC, for the 23rd straight season, recorded the largest total attendance figures in the nation with more than 6.1 million fans attending games at SEC stadiums in 2003. SEC stadiums were filled to an NCAA-high 97.1 percent last season. Seven SEC teams were in the top 13 in the nation in average and total attendance.

Is it being the nation's most watched college football conference? The SEC is the only conference in the nation to have a nationally-network televised game each week during the season with its CBS Sports affiliation. The SEC is also showcased on most Saturday nights on ESPN and ESPN2 and Jefferson-Pilot Sports brings the SEC into the homes of SEC fans each weekend.

Is it seeing the most talented student-athletes perform each week during the season? In 2003, 13 SEC players earned first-team All-America mention. The SEC also had the winner of the Maxwell National Player of the Year Award and the Johnny Unitas Award for the nation's top quarterback (Ole Miss' Eli Manning) and the Lou Groza Award for the nation's top placekicker (Ole Miss' Jonathan Nichols). Ten other SEC student-athletes were finalists for eight other awards.

Is the best way to judge a conference the quality of achievement both on the field and in the classroom? Last season, for the second year in a row, the SEC had three of the six student-athletes given designation as National Football Foundation Scholar-Athletes - Auburn's Dontarrious Thomas, LSU's Rodney Reed and Eli Manning of Ole Miss.

Reed also earned first-team CoSIDA Academic All-America mention and four other SEC student-athletes - LSU's Matt Mauck, Arkansas' Jerry Reith, Robert Wallis of Miss. State and Auburn's Thomas were second-team Academic All-Americans.

In 2003, 255 football student-athletes earned SEC Academic Honor Roll status, maintaining a 3.0 grade point average for the previous academic year or during his academic career.

Travis
Daniels

Cornerback
6-1 • 184 • Sr. • IL
Hollywood, Fla.
South Broward HS

Teams with Corey Webster to give LSU arguably the best set of cornerbacks in the nation … Finally overcame a series of nagging injuries to have a breakout season for the Tigers in 2003 … Tremendous cover corner that thrives in one-on-one situations … Plays with a great deal of confidence … It's Daniels' and Webster's covering ability that allows the Tigers to be more aggressive in rushing the quarterback … Has seen action at both cornerback and safety during his career … According to LSU coach Nick Saban, "he takes his knowledge to the field better than most players. He has a good understanding of what we're trying to do on defense."

JUNIOR SEASON (2003)
Made the move to cornerback early in the season and proved to be just what the Tiger defense needed … Played and started in all 14 games … Started at free safety in LSU's first six games, before moving to cornerback for the final eight games of the year … The emergence of freshman LaRon Landry allowed Daniels to move to cornerback, which is his natural position … Recorded 58 tackles, including 6.5 for losses in 2003 … Led the Tigers with 26 pass breakups … Picked off two passes, returning one 48 yards for a touchdown just before halftime in the win over Mississippi State … Other interception came against Arizona … Added a pair of sacks and three quarterback hurries … Had season-high of seven tackles in September win over Georgia … Had outstanding overall game vs. Mississippi State with six tackles, an interception return for a TD, a sack and a forced fumble … Recorded four tackles, including one for a 2-yard loss, against Oklahoma in the national championship game.

Key backup in the Tiger secondary … Saw action in LSU's sub packages on defense … Played in either LSU's nickel or dime scheme on defense … Slowed by a hamstring injury during year … Still managed to play in five games in 2002 … Recorded three tackles, including one for a loss … Broke up one pass and had two quarterback hurries.

TRUE FRESHMAN SEASON (2001)
Saw first action of season against Tennessee in the SEC Championship Game .... Forced into the contest when an injury to Randall Gay left LSU without any more defensive backs ... Broke up two passes vs. the Vols, one of which came in the endzone ... Did not record any tackles in the game ... Was going to redshirt before playing against Tennessee … Played against Illinois in Sugar Bowl … Did not record any statistics in win over the Illini.

HIGH SCHOOL
Named First Team 4A All-State as a defensive back after registering 60 tackles and five interceptions ... On offense, caught 34 passes for 500 yards and four touchdowns ... Returned a kickoff for a touchdown and also returned an interception for a score ... Also a member of the All-District and All-County teams as well as being a participant in the North-South Florida All-Star game ... Coached by Antonio Williams.

- 2004 MVP of BCS National Championship Game (Sugar Bowl)
- 2003 MVP of SEC Championship Game
- 2003 First-Team Freshman All-America (Football Writer's Association)
- 2003 Freshman All-SEC (Knoxville News-Sentinel)

Returns for sophomore season after putting together one of the best years for a freshman in school history … Stepped in at running back midway through the season when injuries depleted the position and never relinquished the starting role … Ran for an LSU freshman record 1,001 yards in 2003 … Named MVP of both the SEC title game as well as the Sugar Bowl … Has been listed as a 2004 Preseason All-America by Athlon Sports as well as being rated the second-best running back in the SEC by the Sporting News … Will carry a streak of four-straight 100-plus yard rushing games into 2004 season … Tremendous talent who has a variety of weapons, the first of which is the way he plays the game … Plays all out on every play … Has good speed and can run inside or outside … Has shown the ability to catch the ball out of the backfield … Briefly tried his hand at safety during the spring of 2003 … Sat out the 2002 regular-season before joining the Tigers in December as they prepared for the Cotton Bowl.

FRESHMAN SEASON (2003)
Put together the finest season for a freshman in LSU history, rushing for a school freshman record of 1,001 yards in leading the Tigers to a 13-1 overall mark and the national title … Answered the call when injuries forced Joseph Addai and Shyrone Carey to the sidelines in consecutive games midway through the season … Started for the first time against South Carolina and responded with 77 yards and two TDs … Never relinquished the starting position as he followed his first start with 127 yards in a 31-7 win over Auburn in a game in which he outrushed Carnell Williams by 67 yards … Capped season with four straight 100-yard games, including an SEC Championship Game record 201 yards and two TDs in 34-13 win over Georgia and 117 yards and one TD vs. Oklahoma in the Sugar Bowl … In all, rushed for 100-plus yards five times … Named MVP of SEC title game as well as the Sugar Bowl … Ran for an 87-yard TD vs. Georgia, the longest rush in SEC Championship Game history … Also had a 62-yard run vs. Georgia … Opened the Sugar Bowl with a 64-yard run on the first play of the game against Oklahoma … Rushed for 105 yards on 22 carries vs. Ole Miss and followed that with 112 yards and 2 TDs vs. Arkansas … Broke Dalton Hilliard's LSU freshman rushing record, bettering the previous mark of 901, which was set in 1982 … Also rushed for 10 TDs, the second-highest total by a rookie in school history … Hilliard holds that mark with 11 in 1982, while Kendall Cleveland and Rondell Mealey each rushed for 10 TDs as freshmen … Caught eight passes for 80 yards with four of those coming against South Carolina … Is a rare breed in that he's also a standout on LSU's kickoff coverage unit … Had nine special teams tackles in 2003.

LSU HEAD COACH

NICK SABAN

2003 NATIONAL COACH OF THE YEAR

For years outsiders viewed the LSU football program as an unpolished gem, a potential giant waiting to be reborn in the world of college football. With the wealth of resources LSU has to offer, its tradition and the available talent within the state of Louisiana, all the program needed was the right person to lead it. In four years as head coach of the Tigers, Nick Saban has proven to be that leader.

Since taking over a program that suffered through seven losing seasons in the 1990s, Saban has guided the Tigers to the pinnacle of college football - winning the 2003 BCS National Championship with a 21-14 victory over Oklahoma in the Nokia Sugar Bowl. The victory culminated a four-year ride under Saban that has been unmatched in the history of Tiger football. Since taking the reigns in 2000, Saban has guided the Tigers to a 39-13 overall mark, while claiming a pair of SEC titles in 2001 and 2003. LSU's 2003 BCS National Championship is just the second for the Tigers in football, and the first since 1958.

Saban's ability to successfully lead the Tigers comes from a management style that focuses on the entire program, one that puts his players in position to have success, both on the field and in the classroom. Armed with a plan that starts with recruiting quality people, outstanding football players and good students, Saban and his staff have transformed LSU into a team that is sure to be a fixture among the nation's elite programs for years to come.

On the field, Saban has developed a reputation as a defensive mastermind who is among the best in the game - professional or college - when it comes to game day coaching decisions. His defenses are physical, aggressive and deceptive, while offensively, the Tigers put up staggering numbers with a wealth of skill players leading the way. His teams play hard, make good decisions on the field and have proven that they are confident enough to overcome any type of adversity that is thrown in their direction.

It's a style and system that has proven to be successful, both for the team as well as the individual as six Tigers have earned first-team All-America honors in four years, while 18 of his LSU players have gone on to be selected in the NFL Draft, including seven in the 2004 draft.

Off the field, Saban demands excellence from his players in both the classroom as well as the community. While the Tigers were marching to the 2003 national title on the field, the LSU football team combined for a 2.52 grade point average. A few months later, the squad bettered that mark with a 2.76 average for the spring semester as the Tigers had 50 players with a 3.0 or better during the spring and just six athletes that failed to reach a 2.0.

In addition to the honors the Tigers garnered on the field, LSU had 25 players earn a spot in the SEC Academic Honor Roll in 2003. Once again, numbers show that not only is Saban committed to academics, but his players are also dedicated to receiving an education as well. Since December of 2000, 51 football players who played under Saban at LSU have earned their degree, which includes 13 members of the 2003 national championship squad.

A major part of enhancing and cultivating the education experience for the student-athletes at LSU has been the addition of the $15 million state-of-the-art Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes. Saban spearheaded the fundraising for the center, which included donating $50,000 of his own money to the cause. The center, the best of its kind in college athletics, features a 1,000-seat auditorium with over 100 computers in a 54,000-square foot facility that gives all of LSU's student-athletes the best chance to have success in the classroom.

Saban's mission statement for the LSU football program is simple. He wants his players to become better people for having been a part of the program. He also wants to develop his players so they can reach their full athletic potential, which will enable them to have the opportunity to win a championship. Finally, it's his plan to help each player graduate and launch their career so that when they leave LSU they can have the best opportunities to be successful in life.

Four years at LSU have produced dozens of graduates, a pair of SEC championships and a national title as well as student-athletes who are both admired and looked up to in the community. So far, it's been mission accomplished under Nick Saban.

Nick and Terry Saban with Nicholas and Kristen.

Nick Saban became the 31st head coach of the LSU Tigers on November 30, 1999, after five years as head coach at Michigan State. Saban's first four years at LSU have produced a 39-13 overall mark, which included a school-record 13-1 mark and a No. 1 national ranking in 2003. In addition, Saban was named the Associated Press National Coach of the Year as well as being the recipient for the Bear Bryant Award and the Eddie Robinson Award in 2003.

Saban's 39 wins are the most-ever by an LSU coach in four years and he joins Paul Dietzel as the only two coaches in school history to have multiple 10-win seasons (both have done it twice). Saban, along with Dietzel and Bernie Moore, are also the only coaches in LSU history to win more than one SEC title, with each doing it two times.

The 2003 Tigers stormed their way to the national title with a remarkable defense, one that ranked first in the nation in points per game (11.0) and total defense (252.0 yards per game), while also holding 13 of the 14 opponents to fewer than 20 points. The defense scored a school-record seven touchdowns, including the game-winning points on a Marcus Spears interception return against Oklahoma in the Nokia Sugar Bowl.

While the defense was holding teams at bay, the Tiger offense was spectacular in its own right, scoring a school-record 475 points and averaging 33.9 points per game. The Tiger offense, behind the play of quarterback Matt Mauck, running back Justin Vincent and wide receivers Michael Clayton, Devery Henderson and Skyler Green, set the school standard for passing touchdowns (30), offensive touchdowns (56), completed passes (255) and first downs (298) and total yards (5,857).

Using the approach of taking it one game at a time and focusing on "what is" rather than "what was", the Tigers ran the table the final six weeks of the regular season, dominating opponents on both sides of the ball. After a 19-7 setback to Florida on Oct. 11, the Tigers won their final six games by an average score of 35 to 10. Only Ole Miss came within a touchdown of the Tigers during that 6-game stretch, a run that included a 31-7 win over Auburn, a 27-3 victory over Alabama and a 55-24 victory over Arkansas. LSU stamped its ticket to the BCS National Championship game with a dominating 34-13 win over Georgia in the SEC title game, marking the second conference championship in three years for the Tigers.

The Tigers put an end to its magical season with another dominating defensive effort against a high-powered Oklahoma team in the Sugar Bowl. The Tigers held the Sooners to only 154 yards of offense and just 54 yards rushing in the 21-14 victory in the Sugar Bowl.

To fully appreciate the accomplishments of the 2003 Tigers, you have to go back to the 2000 season, a year in which Saban's impact was felt immediately as he guided a team coming off back-to-back losing seasons to an 8-4 mark and a win over 15th-ranked Georgia Tech in the Peach Bowl to rekindle the fire of a proud football tradition in Baton Rouge.

Among the wins in 2000 for the Tigers were overtime victories over Tennessee, Mississippi State and Alabama as well as a road win over Ole Miss. It was those wins, along with the victory over Georgia Tech in the Peach Bowl, that gave the Tigers the confidence that they could indeed win big games, while setting the stage for what has been the best four-year stretch in LSU football history.

Saban and the Tigers seemed to ride the momentum set with the 2000 Peach Bowl into 2001 as he led LSU to the school's first outright SEC title since 1986 with a 31-20 win over second-ranked Tennessee in the SEC Championship game. The Tigers closed out their 10-3 campaign in 2001 with a 47-34 thrashing of Big 10 Champion Illinois in the Sugar Bowl.

A year after losing two of the most prolific offensive players in school history in quarterback Rohan Davey and wide receiver Josh Reed, Saban used a tenacious defense coupled with a steady offense to lead the 2002 Tigers to an 8-5 overall mark and the school's second straight appearance in a New Year's Day bowl. LSU scored a school-record 30 or more points in six straight games in 2002, while the Tiger defense held the opposition to less than 275 yards in each of the first six games of the year.

A trademark of Saban-coached teams has been their ability to overcome adversity and still effectively perform on the field. In 2001, the Tigers had to overcome the loss of Davey and running back LaBrandon Toefield in the SEC Championship game, while in 2002 LSU prevailed despite losing starting quarterback Mauck midway through the season.

Beating Tennessee to win the league title in 2001 is one thing, but the fashion in which Saban and the Tigers did so speaks volumes on the impact he has had on his squads. Playing without two of their offensive standouts in Davey and Toefield, not only did the Tigers respond to Saban's challenge to step up, but they were dominant, outscoring the high-powered Vol offense 21-3 in the second half.

A year later, LSU found itself in a similar situation, losing three starters - Mauck, Toefield and free safety Damien James - in consecutive weeks. LSU overcame that adversity and found itself heading into the final week of the 2002 season with a chance at reaching the SEC Championship game. Only a last-minute comeback by Arkansas kept the Tigers from winning its second consecutive SEC Western Division title and participating in the league's championship game.

Losing players such as Mauck, Davey and Toefield and still finding a way to be successful on the field has been a trademark of Saban-coached teams. Teaching the players to trust and believe in each other is a characteristic that Saban has branded

1983-87

In the first of two stints at Michigan State, Saban serves as secondary coach and defensive coordinator under George Perles for five seasons.

1988-89

Saban takes his career into the NFL as coach of the Houston Oilers' defensive secondary for two years.

1990

Saban gets his first head coaching assignment at Toledo and immediately produces a 9-2 season.

1991-94

on his squads. The philosophy of "out of yourself and into the team" is something that Saban instills on a daily basis into his squad. He also preaches to his teams to play for 60 minutes, to become a dominant team on every play of every game, and not worry about what the scoreboard reads. The players respond.

That couldn't have been more true than in 2002 when Marcus Randall connected with Devery Henderson on a 75-yard touchdown pass, dubbed the "Bluegrass Miracle", as time expired gave the Tigers an unlikely 33-30 win over Kentucky in one of the wildest finishes to a football game in LSU history.

In 2003, the Tigers came back to beat Ole Miss even though the Rebels intercepted a pass and returned it for a touchdown on LSU's first offensive play of the game. The Tigers also regrouped and mounted a last-minute touchdown drive to beat Georgia in September, moments after the Bulldogs scored on a 93-yard pass to tie the game at 10-10 late in the fourth quarter. Two moments that again prove that despite the adversity, LSU now has the mentality to overcome the situation and still have success.

Prior to his arrival at LSU for the 2000 season, Saban led his final Spartan team in 1999 to a No. 7 ranking in the nation and became the first Michigan State squad to win 10 games in one season in 34 years.

Saban's 1999 Michigan State team defeated Notre Dame, Michigan, Ohio State and Penn State all in the same year for the first time since 1965 and recorded six wins at home for the first time since the 1912 season.

Saban has long been revered in football coaching circles as one of the keen minds of the game, having coached under some of the best football technicians in the country on both the college and professional levels.

He built his reputation as an assistant coach, but as a head coach he has shown the ability to put together a total program, one that produces big numbers on both sides of the football while stressing discipline and responsibility off the field.

"He's a first-rate person and he's a marvelous football coach," said Bill Polian, the president of the NFL's Indianapolis Colts, who is considered one of the premier minds in professional football. "He brings all the right values to the position and to the job. He believes in an exciting and up-tempo offense and yet his teams are always terrifically sound and very physical."

Saban's background in football is rich and varied. He coached in the NFL under Bill Belichick at Cleveland and under Jerry Glanville at Houston. He is a protégé of George Perles at Michigan State and Earle Bruce at Ohio State. He got his start under venerable Washington coach Don James as a graduate assistant at Kent State.

"No-nonsense" is one description of his style of coaching, but consistent and exacting might be more precise. "Hard work" can be attached to any successful program, but also working smart is a trademark of Saban-coached teams. The keys to Saban's success are founded on aggressive and Saban was head coach at Michigan State for five years.

1995-99

Saban rebuilds a Michigan State program that has been decimated by NCAA sanctions, taking the Spartans to a top 10 finish in his final year as head coach.

1999

Saban is named the 31st head coach in LSU football history.

2000

Saban's impact on LSU is felt immediately as he guides the Tigers to an 8-4 overall mark, which includes a 28-14 win over Georgia Tech in the Peach Bowl, in his first year with the Tigers.

2001

Saban leads LSU to a Sugar Bowl victory over seventh-ranked Illinois for its first New Year's Day Bowl victory since 1968. The Tigers clinched their first outright SEC title since 1986 a month earlier with a 31-20 win over No. 2 ranked Tennessee.

disciplined leadership and a philosophy of personal responsibility both on the football field and in the classroom.

"Basically, if anybody doesn't want to work hard or be committed to the way he's committed, then they're going to have a problem with him," said Belichick, coach of the Super Bowl Champion New England Patriots. "Now, if they like to work, they won't have any problems at all."

Saban is a communicator who gets the best out of his players, a coach who can guarantee that a player willing to dedicate himself to the program will maximize his talents.

"Instead of looking at the overall picture, he gives his players something they can really lash their teeth into, which allows them to play more aggressively," said Dean Pees, the head coach at Kent State who served as a defensive coordinator under Saban. "There are a lot of guys who can draw up defenses in the dirt and draw X's and O's. The question is what little things can you find to help each player play his position? That's one thing Nick is good at."

Saban has a career win-loss record of 82-39-1 for a winning percentage of .676, a total that includes five years as head coach at Michigan State (1995-99), four seasons at LSU and one year at Toledo (1990). He also has extensive experience in the NFL, having coached the secondary of the Houston Oilers for two seasons (1988-89) and having served as defensive coordinator for the Cleveland Browns for four seasons (1991-94).

During his five-year tenure as head coach at Michigan State, Saban tutored four first-team All-Americans and 10 NFL draft picks. While at LSU, Saban has produced six first-team All-Americans and the Tigers have had 18 NFL Draft picks.

The 52-year-old Saban returned to Michigan State following four seasons as the Cleveland Browns' defensive coordinator from 1991-94. The Browns went from allowing the most points in the NFL prior to Saban's arrival to allowing the fewest points in 1994. His defensive unit allowed a league-low 21 touchdowns and 204 points in 1994, the sixth-fewest points surrendered in NFL history at the time.

Saban previously served as head coach at the University of Toledo where he guided the Rockets to a 9-2 overall record in 1990, including a share of the Mid-America Conference title at 7-1. The Rockets ranked among the NCAA leaders in both total defense (12th at 284.8 yards) and scoring defense (16th at 16.2 points). In his rookie season as a head coach, Toledo missed posting an undefeated record by a mere five points.

Saban leads the Tigers to their first back-to-back New Year's Day bowl games since the 1960s as LSU faces Texas in the Cotton Bowl in Dallas. One of the higlights of the season was "The Bluegrass Miracle" as LSU completes a 75-yard last-second Hail Mary pass to beat Kentucky, 33-30, in Lexington. The Bluegrass Miracle was called college football's "Play of the Year" by The Associated Press.

He began his first stint in the NFL with the Houston Oilers as the secondary coach from 1988-89. The Oilers ranked among the AFC leaders in interceptions in both 1988 (tied for second with 22) and 1989 (fourth with 21).

As secondary coach and defensive coordinator, Saban played an integral part in helping Michigan State to three postseason bowl appearances from 1983-87, including a Big Ten championship in 1987 and a 20-17 triumph over Southern California in the 1988 Rose Bowl. The Spartans led the nation in rushing defense in 1987, allowing only 61.2 yards per game, and ranked second in scoring defense, permitting 12.4 points.

His college coaching credits also include stops at the U.S. Naval Academy (1982), Ohio State (1980-81), West Virginia (1978-79), Syracuse (1977) and Kent State (1975-76). While coaching the secondary at Ohio State, he helped produce four NFL draft choices.

He began his coaching career in 1973 as a graduate assistant at his alma mater Kent State. A defensive back for the Golden Flashes from 1970-72, Saban played in the 1972 Tangerine Bowl against Tampa. He also picked up two letters as a shortstop on the Kent State baseball team.

Born October 31, 1951, in Fairmont, W.V., Saban earned his bachelor's degree in business from Kent State in 1973 and his master's in sports administration in 1975. Saban, who is an avid golfer, co-authored "Tiger Turnaround" in 2001, a 128-page book documenting his first two years in Baton Rouge.

He and his wife, the former Terry Constable of Fairmont, W.V., have two children, Nicholas and Kristen.

Mike Collins

Linebackers

Mike Collins, who served as an intern with the LSU football program during the 2003 national championship season, joined the Tiger staff on a full-time basis in March of 2004. Collins serves as LSU's linebackers coach.

Collins, a native of Ruston, La., accepted the position with the Tigers after spending the month of February as the defensive coordinator at Middle Tennessee.

Prior to his internship with LSU, Collins coached at Louisiana-Monroe for five years, first as a linebacker coach in 1998 and then as the defensive coordinator for three years. He took over as interim head coach at Louisiana-Monroe three games into the 2002 season before being named the teams' permanent head coach on Nov. 20 of that year. Collins led the Indians to a 3-6 mark over the final nine games.

He resigned from his position as head coach at Louisiana-Monroe in the spring of 2003 and then joined the Tigers during the summer.

Collins got his start in coaching as a graduate assistant at Louisiana-Monroe in the mid-1980's. From there, he served as an assistant coach at Ouachita Parish High School before joining the staff at McNeese State as linebacker coach in 1991.

Collins coached at McNeese State for seven years, helping the Cowboys to three Southland Conference titles as well as an appearance in the I-AA national championship game. While at McNeese, Collins coached six All-America selections as well as the Southland Conference Defensive Player of the Year three times.

Collins is a 1983 graduate of Louisiana-Monroe, where he lettered for four years as a center in football. He earned his master's degree from Louisiana-Monroe in 1984.

He is married to the former Terri Brinson and the couple has two children, John Michael and Matt.

Derek Dooley

Assistant Head Coach
Special Teams Coordinator/Running Backs

Derek Dooley enters his fifth season with the Tigers in 2004, and during his time in Baton Rouge has proven his versatility on the staff. In four seasons at LSU, Dooley has coached two positions, coordinated LSU's recruiting efforts, and has served as the special teams coordinator. In his first year as LSU's running backs coach and special teams coordinator in 2003, Dooley made his impact felt right away.

Freshman running back JustinVincent became the first rookie in LSU history to rush for 1,000-yards, which included an SEC Championship game record 201 against Georgia in the league title game. Vincent, a Freshman All-America and MVP of both the SEC title game and the Sugar Bowl, finished with 1,001 yards rushing and 10 touchdowns. Vincent capped his record-setting freshman season with a 117-yards rushing and one TD against Oklahoma in the national championship game.

On special teams, the Tigers ranked first in the SEC in net punting, kickoff coverage and punt returns. Punt returner Skyler Green returned two punts for TDs and led the nation in punt return average with 18.5 yards per return on his way to earning First-Team All-America honors in 2003 as a return specialist.

Following the 2003 national championship season, Dooley was promoted to assistant head coach for the Tigers.

In his first three years with the Tigers, Dooley played a key role in the development of LSU's tight end corps, a group considered to be among the finest in the nation. As LSU's tight ends coach, Dooley helped develop Robert Royal into one of the nation's premier tight ends. Royal capped his career ranked third in LSU history among tight ends for receptions (59) and yards (707), and ranked second in receiving touchdowns (7). Royal also set the LSU record for tight ends for touchdowns in a season with five in 2000. Following his senior season, Royal was drafted in the fifth round of the 2002 NFL Draft by the Washington Redskins. Royal earned First-Team All-SEC honors in both 2000 and 2001, while Marcus Spears, now a defensive end for the Tigers, earned a spot on the Freshman All-SEC squad as a tight end.

As recruiting coordinator, Dooley engineered the nation's top ranked recruiting classes in 2001 and 2003. For his efforts, Dooley was named college football's fourth-best recruiter by the Sporting News in a Spring 2004 poll.

Derek and Allison Dooley with sons John Taylor, Peyton and daughter Julianna.

Dooley, the son of legendary Georgia football coach Vince Dooley, is no stranger to successful SEC football programs. During his time on the LSU staff, Dooley has helped lead the Tigers to four straight bowl games, two SEC titles and the 2003 national title.

Prior to his arrival at LSU, Dooley spent three seasons at SMU. While at SMU, he helped develop a young group of receivers, including Albert Johnson, who became the first player in SMU history to have three straight multiple touchdown games. In 1999, Dooley helped develop two true freshmen, Chris Cunningham and Cody Cardwell, who caught 70 passes for 1,039 yards and eight touchdowns.

A native of Athens, Ga., Dooley attended the University of Virginia, where he walked on the football team and earned a scholarship following his second season. While at Virginia, Dooley participated in three bowl games (Sugar, Citrus, All-American) and helped the Cavaliers win the 1989 ACC Championship. In 1990, Dooley was named First-Team Academic All-ACC and was invited to participate in the Senior Bowl.

He graduated from Virginia in 1990 with a bachelor's degree in government and foreign affairs, then went on to earn his law degree from Georgia in 1994. Dooley served as a graduate assistant coach at Georgia in 1996 before going to SMU in 1997.

Derek and his wife, Allison, have two sons, John Taylor (6) and Peyton (3), and a daughter, Julianna (1).

Jimbo Fisher

Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks

One of the nation's top offensive minds, Jimbo Fisher enters his fifth season as LSU's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. In four years with the Tigers, Fisher's offense has set numerous school records while developing the reputation as being one of the SEC's most potent and balanced units.

Fisher's 2003 offense may have been the best from a production standpoint as the Tigers averaged 34 points per game on their way to scoring a school-record 475 points while also setting the school standard for total yards (5,857), first downs (298), completed passes (255) and passing touchdowns (30).

The Tiger offense featured tremendous balance last year, rushing for 186 yards per game, while throwing for another 233 yards per contest.

In all, LSU averaged 418 yards per contest as the Tigers took advantage of their skill position weapons in Michael Clayton, Devery Henderson and Skyler Green. The three receivers combined for 179 receptions, 2,459 yards and 27 touchdowns.

Quarterback Matt Mauck completed his LSU career with an 18-2 overall mark after guiding the Tigers to a 13-1 record and the national title in 2003. Mauck tossed a school-record 28 TD passes on his way to earning Second-Team All-SEC honors for LSU.

In 2002, with a pair of first-time starters at quarterback in Mauck and Marcus Randall, Fisher guided an LSU offense to average 350 yards per contest and nearly 25 points per game. LSU scored 30 or more points seven times in 2002, including a school-record tying mark of six straight contests with at least 30 points during one stretch of the season.

In four years with the Tigers, Fisher has coached four LSU quarterbacks who have gone on to become NFL Draft picks - Josh Booty, Rohan Davey, Craig Nall and Mauck. In addition, under Fisher's guidance, the Tigers have had one First-Team All-SEC quarterback (Booty) and two Second-Team All-SEC selections (Davey and Mauck) Perhaps Fisher's most impressive season with the Tigers came in 2001 as he developed Davey, then a first-time starter as well, into one of the nation's premier signal callers. In 2001, Davey set a total of six school-records during the regular-season and then broke another seven Sugar Bowl or LSU bowl records in the Tigers' 47-34 win over Illinois. For the year, Davey threw for a school-record 3,347 yards, while Josh Reed caught 94 passes for an SEC record 1,740 yards to give the Tigers two of the nation's most explosive players. Reed was named the winner of the Biletnikoff Award, the honor that goes to the nation's top wide receiver.

Jimbo and Candi Fisher with son Trey.

In 2001, LSU's offense set several school-records during the regular-season, including total offense (5,418), passing yards per game (298.5), total offense per game (451.5) and passing yards (3,578).

Prior to joining the Tigers, Fisher engineered one of the nation's most potent offensive attacks at Cincinnati in 1999. Cincinnati finished the 1999 season ranked No. 16 in the nation in total offense with an average of 424.4 yards a contest (172.2 rushing, 252.2 passing).

Before joining the Cincinnati staff in 1999, Fisher served as the quarterbacks coach at Auburn under Terry Bowden from 1993-98 where he tutored record-setting quarterbacks Stan White, Patrick Nix and Dameyune Craig, who is the only 3,000-yard passer in Auburn history. He helped lead Auburn to appearances in the 1996 Outback, 1996 Independence and 1998 Peach Bowls.

Fisher, a native of Clarksburg, W. Va., also served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Samford for two years (1991-92) before joining the Auburn staff. He started his coaching career as a graduate assistant tutoring quarterbacks at Samford from 1988-90.

In college, Fisher played quarterback for Terry Bowden for three seasons, two at Salem College (1985-86) and one at Samford (1987). While at Samford he set the national record for touchdowns in a season with 34 and was named the Division III National Player of the Year that season. He also set 13 school passing and total offense records.

Following college, Fisher played for one season with the Chicago Bruisers of the Arena Football League in 1988.

Fisher, who graduated from Salem College in 1989, is married to the former Candi Coogler. The couple has one child, Trey, who is three.

Travis Jones

Defensive Line/Recruiting Coordinator

Travis Jones enters his second year on the staff and he will take on an additional role for the Tigers in 2004, serving as LSU's recruiting coordinator, while continuing to coach the defensive line.

Jones made an immediate impact in his first year on the staff as LSU's defensive front played a key role in the Tigers' march to the national title. In fact, LSU's front four dominated the trenches, recording 31 of LSU's school-record 44 sacks, while also limiting opponents to only 67 yards rushing a contest, a figure that ranked first in the SEC and third nationally.

Individually, senior defensive tackle Chad Lavalais put together one of the most decorated seasons ever for an LSU player as he was a consensus All-America while also being named a finalist for both the Nagurski and Lombardi Awards. Lavalais was named National Defensive Player of the Year by the Sporting News as well earning SEC Defensive Player of the Year honors from the league's coaches. Lavalais finished the year with 16 tackles for losses, seven sacks and 23 quarterback hurries.

Defensive end Marcus Spears was named First-Team All-SEC in 2003 by the Associated Press after recording 13 tackles for losses and six sacks for the Tigers. Spears also intercepted a pass and returned it 20 yards for what proved to be the game-winning points against Oklahoma in the Sugar Bowl.

Following the 2003 season, Lavalais and defensive end Marquise Hill were both picked in the NFL Draft with Hill going in the second round to the New England Patriots and Lavalais being a fifth round pick of the Atlanta Falcons.

Jones, a former defensive standout at Georgia, came to LSU after serving as a member of the Kansas coaching staff in 2001 and 2002. Jones coached the defensive line for the Jayhawks in 2001 and in 2002, he handled the Kansas defensive ends.

While at Kansas, Jones coached Nate Dwyer, now a member of the Arizona Cardinals, to First-Team All-Big 12 honors in 2001.

Prior to his two-year stint at Kansas, Jones spent three years as linebacker coach and recruiting coordinator at Appalachian State. During his three years at Appalachian State, the Mountaineers advanced to the I-AA playoffs each year. He also coached three All-Southern Conference linebackers, including Joe Best, who was a finalist for the Buck Buchanan Award in 2000, which goes to the I-AA Defensive Player of the Year.

2003 ..... LSU (defensive line; recruiting coordinator, 2004)

Travis and Melody Jones with daughter Kennedi.

Jones began his coaching career at Georgia in 1997, coaching the defensive line for the Bulldogs. Georgia finished the 1997 season with a 10-2 overall mark and beat Wisconsin, 33-6, in the Outback Bowl.

A 1995 graduate of Georgia, Jones also worked as an NCAA Compliance assistant as well as an academic counselor at his alma mater. Jones earned a master's degree from Georgia in 1998.

As a player, Jones was a four-year letterwinner for Georgia leading the Bulldogs to the Independence Bowl in 1991 and the Citrus Bowl in 1993. Jones started at defensive end at Georgia his last two seasons and as a senior, he was selected the defensive team captain.

Jones was selected by the Baltimore Stallions in the 1995 Canadian Football League draft. He played one season in the CFL and then joined the Florida Bobcats of the Arena League for one year in 1996.

A native of Irwinton, Ga., Jones is married to the former Melody Barden and the couple has one child, Kennedi (1).

Will Muschamp

Defensive Coordinator

Will Muschamp followed up his first year as LSU's defensive coordinator with an even more impressive performance in 2003, overseeing a Tiger defense that ranked first in the nation in both scoring (11.0 points per game) and total defense (252.0 yards per game). The Tigers also ranked third in the nation in rushing defense (62.0 yards per game), while holding 13 of the 14 opponents to fewer than 20 points on their way to claiming the 2003 national title.

In all, the Tigers ranked first in the SEC in seven different defensive categories, which included setting a school-record with 44 sacks. Featuring a defense that was big on speed, size and aggressiveness, the Tigers scored a school-record seven defensive touchdowns in 2003, including one in each of the final three games of the season. It was Marcus Spears' 20-yard interception return against Oklahoma in the national championship game that proved to be the winning points for the Tigers. Five of LSU's seven defensive TDs came on interception returns, while two were fumble returns.

When teams decided to throw on the Tigers, they found the challenge equally as difficult as LSU picked off 21 passes, while holding the opposition to an 89.8 pass efficiency, a figure that led the SEC and ranked second in the nation.Corey Webster led all Tigers with seven interceptions as LSU held its opponents to only 12 passing TDs all season.

Muschamp, now in his fourth season at LSU, served as the Tigers' linebacker coach in 2001 before being elevated to his current position in the spring of 2002. At 33 years of age, Muschamp is one of the youngest coordinators at the Division I level.

In his first year as LSU's defensive coordinator, Muschamp managed a Tiger defense that ranked among the best in the nation. LSU led the SEC and ranked second in the nation in pass defense (152.7 yards per game) and the Tigers were third in the league and eighth nationally in total defense (286.8 ypg). For the season, the Tigers allowed only 18.3 points a contest, which ranked 15th in the nation.

As LSU's linebacker coach, Mushcamp put on the field two one of the nation's top defenders in Trev Faulk and Bradie James. Faulk and James both were semfinalist for the Butkus Award and both were named First-Team All-SEC during their careers. James, a fourth round pick by the Dallas Cowboys in 2003, capped his senior season in 2002 with a school-record 154 tackles.

Muschamp's promotion to defensive coordinator marks the second time he has held such a position at the collegiate level. Prior to joining the Tigers, Muschamp served as the defensive coordinator at Valdosta State for one year in 2000. Muschamp helped lead the Blazers to a 10-2 overall mark, a share of the Gulf South Conference title and an appearance in the NCAA Division II playoffs.

2001	LSU (linebackers 2001; defensive coordinator 2002-)

Will and Carol Muschamp with son Jackson.

Prior to his year at Valdosta State, Muschamp spent the 1999 season coaching the secondary at Eastern Kentucky. Muschamp served as the secondary coach for West Georgia in 1998. From 1995-1997, Muschamp was a graduate assistant coach at Auburn.

Muschamp was a four-year letterwinner at Georgia from 1991-1994 and he served as co-captain of the defense as a senior. In four years with the Bulldogs, Muschamp played in two bowl games, helping Georgia to a 24-15 win over Arkansas in the 1991 Independence Bowl and a 21-14 victory over Ohio State in the 1993 Citrus Bowl. Muschamp earned a spot on the SEC Academic Honor Roll in 1993.

Following his graduation from Georgia in 1994, Muschamp moved to Auburn where he spent the next two seasons as a graduate assistant coach. Muschamp earned his master's degree from Auburn in 1997. While at Auburn, Muschamp coached with current LSU offensive coordinator Jimbo Fisher and former Tiger defensive line coach Pete Jenkins.

Muschamp is a native of Rome, Ga., and he is married to the former Carol Davis of Thomaston, Ga. and the couple has one child, Jackson (3).

Leroy Ryals

Tight Ends

Leroy Ryals will hold a dual role for the Tigers in 2004, serving as the tight ends coach while also assisting Derek Dooley with the LSU special teams.

Ryals, who has a reputation as being an outstanding recruiter, joined the Tigers in February of last season. Ryals, who will also serve as assistant special teams coach, has spent the last four years as running backs coach at South Florida.

Ryals is a 1996 business education graduate of South Florida. He earned his master's degree in school counseling from Florida in 2001.

At South Florida, Ryals helped the Bulls to four consecutive winning seasons, including a 9-2 mark in 2002. Prior to his four years at South Florida, Ryals served as head coach at Booker High School in Sarasota, Fla., from 1994-2000. Ryals was named the Sarasota Herald-Tribune Coach of the Year in 1999. He also served as a coach in the Florida-Georgia High School All-Star game in 1997 and 2000.

In addition to his head football coaching duties, Ryals served as the athletic director at Booker High School for four years from 1997-2000 before joining the staff at South Florida.

As a player, Ryals was a cornerback for Cumberland College for two years, helping his team to an undefeated mark in 1988.

Ryals, a native of Sarasota, Fla., and his wife, Keisha, have two children, TaQuesha (14) and Anika (2).

Stacy Searels

Offensive Line

Stacy Searels, a former First-Team All-America lineman at Auburn, begins his second season with the Tigers in 2004. Searels joined the LSU staff in January of 2003.

In his first season at LSU, Searels coached an offensive line that ranked among the finest in school history as the Tigers had two players earn All-America honors with another recognized as an Academic All-America.

Last year, senior guard Stephen Peterman earned First-Team All-America honors, while junior center Ben Wilkerson was a Second-Team All-America pick by the Associated Press. In addition, senior tackle Rodney Reed became LSU's first two-time First-Team Academic All-America. Peterman capped his LSU career by being selected in the third round of the 2003 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

In all, the Tiger offensive line paved the way for a 1,000-yard rusher in Justin Vincent, while also limiting opponents to only 22 sacks in 14 games. The Tigers held their opponent without a sack in four of the last five regular-season contests.

Searels joined the staff at LSU after a two-year stint as offensive line coach at Cincinnati. During his two-year stay with the Bearcats, Cincinnati played in two bowl games as well as winning the school's first conference title since 1964 by capturing the 2002 Conference USA crown.

In 2002, Searels coached an offensive line that helped Cincinnati lead Conference USA in total offense (397.5 yards per game), while averaging 29.2 points a contest.

Prior to joining Cincinnati, Searels served as an assistant coach at Appalachian State from 1994-2000, helping the I-AA squad to five playoff appearances and to a pair of Southern Conference titles. He also coached players to five All-America and 15 all-conference honors in seven years as an offensive line and tight ends coach at Appalachian State.

Searels got his start in coaching as a graduate assistant at Auburn in 1992, working with the Tiger squad that posted a perfect 11-0 mark in 1993.

As a player, Searels earned First-Team All-America honors from both the Associated Press and Football News as a senior at Auburn in 1987. Searels was a three-year starter for Auburn, blocking for Heisman Trophy winner Bo Jackson in 1985 and All-America Brent Fullwood in 1986. He participated in four bowl games as a member of the Auburn football team.

A First-Team All-Southeastern Conference selection as both a junior and senior, he was honored with the team's Ken Rice Award as the school's best blocking lineman in 1987. He played in both the Japan Bowl and the Senior Bowl following the 1987 season.

In 1990, the Birmingham Post-Herald named Searels to the Auburn team of the 1980's.

Searels was a fourth round draft pick by the San Diego Chargers in 1988, playing two seasons there before moving to the Miami Dolphins for the 1990 season. He ended his professional career in 1991 with the New York/New Jersey Knights of the World League of American Football.

Searels, a Trion, Ga., native, graduated from Auburn with a degree in marketing and transportation in 1990. He followed that with a Master's degree in higher education administration from Auburn in 1995.

Searels is married to the former Patricia Hale and the couple has two daughters, Taylor (7) and Savannah (4).

Kirby Smart

Defensive Backs

Kirby Smart, who served as a defensive assistant the last two years at Florida State, will coach defensive backs for LSU in 2004 after joining the Tigers in January of this year.

Smart, a 1998 graduate of Georgia, worked primarily with the defensive backs for the Seminoles serving as a graduate assistant in both 2002 and 2003. Prior to that, Smart spent the 2001 season as the defensive coordinator at Valdosta State and the 2000 season as the defensive backs coach for the Blazers.

Smart's 2001 defense at Valdosta State ranked second in the nation in scoring as the Blazers posted a perfect 11-0 mark during the regular season.

Smart was a four-year football letterwinner for Georgia from 1995-98 earning first-team All-Southeastern Conference honors as a defensive back in 1998 and second-team honors in 1997. Smart, who was Georgia's team captain as a senior, led the Bulldogs in interceptions over his last two years with six in 1997 and five in 1998. He still ranks among Georgia's all-time leaders in interceptions with 13.

Smart played on the same Georgia team as two current Tiger assistants in defensive coordinator Will Muschamp and defensive line coach Travis Jones. Smart and Muschamp also coached together for one year at Valdosta State.

Upon his graduation from Georgia, Smart signed a free agent contract with the Indianapolis Colts, spending the 1999 preseason with the NFL team. Smart began his coaching career as an administrative assistant at Georgia in the fall of 1999, before moving to Valdosta State in 2000.

Smart, a native of Brainbridge, Ga., graduated from Georgia with a 3.5 grade point average in finance. He was a four-time member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll as well as earning second-team Academic All-America honors in 1998. Smart, 28, is single.

Bobby Williams

Associate Head Coach
Wide Receivers

Bobby Williams, the former head coach at Michigan State, will coach the LSU wide receivers as well as serving as associate head coach for the Tigers in 2004. Williams joined the Tigers last January.

Williams, who came to LSU after a year with the Detroit Lions, coached under Saban for five years at Michigan State and then later, replaced Saban as head coach at the school.

Prior to coaching the NFL's Lions, Williams had a three-year head coaching stint at Michigan State. While at Michigan State, Williams guided the Spartans to a 16-17 overall record, which included a 7-5 mark in 2001. Williams coached the Spartans to a 37-34 win over Florida in the 2000 Citrus Bowl in his first game as a head coach. Williams then led Michigan State to a 44-35 victory over Fresno State in the Silicon Valley Football Classic to cap the 2001 season.

As a member of the Lions coaching staff in 2003, Williams was reunited with former Michigan State standout wide receiver Charlie Rogers, who was the second overall pick in 2003 NFL Draft.

Prior to taking over as head coach at Michigan State, Williams served as an assistant coach for the Spartans from 1990-99, where he coached running backs. During his 10-years as Michigan State's running backs coach, the Spartans had seven 1,000-yard rushers, including 2002 first round NFL Draft pick T.J. Duckett and Sedrick Irvin, who was selected in the fourth round in 1999.

Bobby and Sheila Williams with daughter Nataly and son Nicholas.

Williams has also had coaching stints at Purdue (graduate assistant, 1982), Ball State (running backs and defensive backs, 1983-84) and Eastern Michigan (offensive backfield, 1985-89).

Prior to joining the staff at Michigan State, Williams spent four months coaching wide receivers at Kansas in 1990.

Williams is a 1982 graduate of Purdue University with a degree in general management. At Purdue, Williams earned four letters as a running back/defensive back for the Boilermakers helping his team to nine wins in 1978, 10 victories in 1979 and nine in 1980. Purdue won three bowl games during Williams' career, beating Georgia Tech in the Peach Bowl in 1978, Tennessee in the Bluebonnet Bowl in 1979 and Missouri in the Liberty Bowl in 1980.

Williams, who served as one of three team captains as a senior, still ranks among Purdue's all-time leaders with eight interceptions.

Williams, a native of St. Louis, is married to the former Sheila Lee of Detroit. The couple has two children, Nataly (16) and Nicholas (13).

Dr. Sam Nader

Assistant AD/Football Operations

A long-time member of the LSU football staff, Sam Nader begins his fourth season as Assistant Athletic Director for Football Operations after being promoted to the position during the summer of 2000. Nader is in his 30th season overall with the LSU football program.

Nader is responsible for overseeing all of the day-to-day administrative duties for the LSU football team.

Nader joined LSU as a graduate assistant in 1975 and was hired by head coach Charles McClendon as a full-time assistant coach in 1977. He was named recruiting coordinator in 1980 and served in that role through the 1993 season.

When the NCAA eliminated the recruiting coordinator's position, Nader assumed the position of administrative assistant for football operations in 1994 and remained in that role, handling a myriad of responsibilities for the LSU football program, until his promotion to assistant athletic director in 2000.

Nader is a former quarterback for the Auburn Tigers from 1963-67. From 1968-69 he served as assistant coach at Jordan High School in Columbus, Ga., and was promoted to head coach and athletic director in 1970. He served in that capacity until 1974.

In his role as recruiting coordinator, Nader spearheaded the recruiting efforts of 32 players who developed into First-Team All-SEC players, plus seven who became All-Americans.

Nader is married to the former Ann Gardner of Montgomery, Ala., and they have three children, Breaux, Lauren and John Ryan, and granddaughters, Brooks Claire, Mary Holland, Grace Ann and Sarah Jane who are the daughters of Breaux and his wife Holland.

Charles Baglio

Coordinator of High School Relations

Charles Baglio, one of the most successful high school football coaches in Louisiana over the last 20 years, enters his third season with the LSU athletic department as Coordinator of High School Football Relations.

Baglio came to LSU in 2002 after coaching at Independence High School for 34 years, 22 of which were as head coach. While at Independence, Baglio posted a head coaching record of 205-69. He won nine district titles and led his team to the state championship game twice.

Baglio also had numerous players go on to play collegiate football, including former Tiger running back LaBrandon Toefield, who is now a member of the Jacksonville Jaguars in the NFL.

Baglio, who goes by the nickname of "Coach Bags", graduated from Southeastern Louisiana University in 1967 with a degree in health and physical education and then followed that up with a Master's degree from SLU in 1973 in supervision and administration.

Baglio, an avid golfer who regularly shoots in the 70s, is a native of Independence, La.

Strength & Conditioning Staff

Tommy Moffitt

Strength & Conditioning Coordinator

Considered by many in college football to be one of the nation's premier strength and conditioning coaches, Tommy Moffitt enters his fifth season at LSU after coming to the Tiger staff from the University of Miami.

Moffitt most recently earned the distinction of being named the 2003 College Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year by America Football Monthly. It was Moffitt's offseason conditioning program that help lay the foundation for LSU's national championship run in 2003 as the Tigers posted a 13-1 overall mark and beat Oklahoma, 21-14, in the Nokia Sugar Bowl to claim the school's first national title since 1958.

Moffitt was appointed as LSU's Strength and Conditioning Coordinator on Jan. 10, 2000. In February of 2000, Moffitt was named the 1999 Collegiate Football Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year by the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society.

In four years with the Tigers, Moffitt has developed LSU into one of the most durable teams around by combining a program that focuses on both strength and speed. Moffitt has also incorporated a weekly karate routine in the Tigers' off-season program. The karate program increases the player's flexibility, while forcing the team to stay focused for a lengthy period of time.

Moffitt served as the head strength and conditioning coach at Miami for two years, helping head coach Butch Davis rebuild the Hurricane program. While at Miami, Moffitt was named the 1998 Big East Strength Coach of the Year.

Moffitt went to Miami after four seasons, 1994-97, as associate head strength and conditioning coach at Tennessee.

A 1986 graduate of Tennessee Tech, Moffitt started his career as an assistant football coach at John Curtis High School in River Ridge from 1987-94, earning the 1992 award as the National High School Strength Coach of the Year, given by the Professional Football Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society.

Born in Springfield, Tenn., Moffitt is married to the former Jill Beron and they have two children, Clay and Aaron.

Bo Davis

Asst. Strength & Conditioning Coordinator

Bo Davis, a former all-conference defensive lineman for LSU in the early 1990's, enters his third season as a member of the LSU strength and conditioning staff after being named assistant coordinator in June of 2002.

Davis joined LSU after a stint at Northshore High School in Houston, where he served as an assistant football coach from 1997-2002.

Davis played football at LSU from 1990 to 1992, earning second-team All-Southeastern Conference honors as a noseguard in 1992. Davis capped his LSU career with 90 tackles, one sack and one fumble recovery. As a senior in 1992, Davis started all 11 games at noseguard, recording 66 tackles, including four for losses.

Davis graduated from LSU in 1993 and he then served as a graduate assistant with the LSU strength and conditioning program from 1995-1997.

Davis and his wife, Omeika, have one son, James W. Davis III.

Scott Gadeken

Asst. Strength & Conditioning Coordinator

Scott Gadeken is in his fifth year as an assistant strength coach at LSU, coming to Baton Rouge from Kansas State where he was an assistant strength coach for three seasons.

As a member of the LSU strength and conditioning staff, Gadeken spends time with the LSU football program, while also working with LSU's nationally-ranked women's basketball team, a squad that advanced to the Final Four in 2004.

Gadeken earned his bachelor's degree in psychology from Midland College (Neb.) in 1995 and his Master's of Science degree in kinesiology from Kansas State in 1997. A four-year letterwinner at Midland, Gadeken earned Academic All-America, honorable mention All-America, First-Team All-Conference and NAIA All-Nebraska accolades as an offensive lineman.

Gadeken, 31, holds certifications as a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) with the National Strength and Conditioning Association, a certified Olympic lifts coach with the USA Weightlifting and a Specialist in Sports Conditioning (SSC) through the International Sports Sciences Association.

A native of Julian, Neb., Gadeken is married to the former Stacey Weir, and they have one child, Brandon.

Athletic Training Staff

Jack Marucci

Director of Athletic Training

Jack Marucci enters his ninth season as director of athletic training at LSU. Since joining the Tigers, Marucci's leadership and vision has taken LSU to the forefront of athletic training at the collegiate level.

As director of athletic training at LSU, Marucci oversees the athletic training operation for all 20 varsity sports at LSU, which includes supervising a staff of six full-time trainers and 10 graduate assistants.

An experienced trainer with a strong background in collegiate athletics, Marucci helped design the new athletic training facility at Tiger Stadium.

Marucci served as assistant athletic trainer at Florida State from 1988-96, a stint that included eight bowl trips with the Seminoles. While in Tallahassee, he served as the host trainer for two NCAA regional baseball tournaments.

Marucci graduated from West Virginia in 1986 with a bachelor's degree in athletic training, then gained his master's from Alabama in 1988, serving as a graduate assistant trainer for the Crimson Tide from 1986-88.

He also worked stints in 1987 in athletic training with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and in 1985 he worked in athletic training with the Cleveland Browns.

Marucci is married to the former Leah Gaines and they have one son, Gino, 9, and one daughter, Sarah, 6. Off the field, Marucci has mastered the art of crafting baseball bats. With a workshop in his backyard, Marucci has turned his hobby into one that sees him provide bats to several major league baseball players.

Andy Barker

Senior Associate Atheltic Trainer

Andy Barker enters his ninth season as senior associate athletic trainer at LSU as he came to Baton Rouge from Florida State where he was an assistant athletic trainer for six years.

Since joining LSU, Barker has been integral in the designing and implementing a state-of-the-art computer tracking program that assists the staff in following the progress and rehabilitation of injuries. The program produces daily injury reports for a variety of sports, and it also tracks and monitors purchasing and inventory as well as tracking insurance and medical bill payments.

In April of 2000, Barker received the Southeastern Athletic Trainers Association "Backbone" Award, an award that recognizes the top collegiate assistant athletic trainer from the seven states included in the Southeastern district of the National Athletic Trainers Association.

A 1988 graduate of Clemson University, Barker then went on to become a graduate assistant trainer at Florida State in 1988. After two years as a graduate assistant in the Seminole athletic program, Barker was named an assistant athletic trainer there in 1990 and served in that position until joining LSU in August of 1996.

While at Florida State, Barker worked seven postseason bowl games with the Seminole football team, served as host trainer for a 1995 NCAA regional basketball tournament, seven NCAA regional baseball tournaments and the Junior Pan-Am Games in 1990.

Barker, a native of Clemson, S.C., was married to the former Andrea Graham in June.

Shelly Mullenix

Senior Associate Atheltic Trainer

Shelly Mullenix enters her seventh season as a member of the LSU training staff after coming to Baton Rouge from Florida State.

As LSU's senior associate athletic trainer, Mullenix plays a key role in servicing the athletic training needs of the football team on a day-to-day basis.

In addition to Mullenix's role as a trainer with the football program, she plays an integral role in the education and development of nutritional programs for all LSU sports. This nutritional information is given in a team format as well as one-on-one individualized counseling.

With the use of state-of-the-art computer analysis, Mullenix is able to perform body fat analysis, customize dietary intake and exercise prescription to suit the specific needs of the athlete. Administratively, she is responsible for the recruitment of student athletic trainers to LSU and the development of the athletic training curriculum.

Mullenix joined the LSU training staff in January of 1997, coming to Baton Rouge from Florida State University, where she had worked as a graduate assistant athletic trainer from 1992-93. She was promoted to assistant athletic trainer at FSU in 1993 and served until December of 1996.

Equipment Staff

Greg Stringfellow

Equipment Manager

Greg Stringfellow enters his first season as LSU's equipment manager after his promotion to the position last spring. Stringfellow served as the interim equipment manager during the 2003 season for the Tigers, stepping in for longtime equipment manager Jeff Boss, who passed away last fall after a lengthy battle with cancer. Stringfellow, one of the many equipment managers who learned the trade under Boss, enters into his seventh season with the Tigers in 2004. He had previously served as a student assistant in the LSU equipment room for five years.

As a member of the LSU Equipment Staff, Stringfellow is responsible for the ordering and maintaining of equipment and facilities for the LSU football team as well as LSU's 19 other sports.

Stringfellow lettered two years in football at McGill-Toolen High School in Mobile, Ala., before coming to LSU where he earned a degree in construction management in 1997.

Stringfellow is a member of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association. He married the former Ashley Mitnick last May. Mitnick is a former soccer standout for LSU.

Doug Aucoin

Videography Director

Doug Aucoin enters his eighth season as LSU's video coordinator. During that time he has developed LSU's football video department into the one of the finest in the nation.

Aucoin, who was named the 2000 SEC Video Coordinator of the Year by his peers, oversees LSU's multi-million dollar video department that rivals that of most NFL teams.

Aucoin, who joined the Tigers in 1997 after a stint with Tulane, is responsible for analytical support of computer and video technologies including the taping of games and practices, opponent video exchange, self-scout and opponent breakdowns and tape cut-ups used as a teaching tool.

Aucoin also manages the computer network that the football coaches use for statistical analysis as well as self-scouting and the scouting of opponents.

Aucoin oversees a staff of eight people in the video department, which includes one full-time assistant, one graduate assistant and six student assistants. Prior to working for Tulane, Aucoin was employed by the New Orleans Saints as an assistant to his brother, Albert, who was video director for the Saints. Their father, Erby, is a member of the Saints Hall of Fame for his pioneering analytical film work in the early years of the National Football League.

A native of New Orleans, Aucoin graduated from Riverdale High School and graduated from the University of New Orleans in 1995 with a degree in business administration. In the summer of 1998, Aucoin married the former Angela Bordelon and the couple has three children Ryan, Shane and Chandler.

Brandon Fairburn

Assistant Videographer

Brandon Fairburn enters his third season as a fulltime member of the LSU video staff. Fairburn joined the video staff in July of 2002 after serving as a student assistant in the football video department for four years.

Fairburn, a native of Kentwood, La., assists videography director Doug Aucoin with all video needs for the LSU football staff as well as maintaining the computer network for the coaching staff.

Fairburn graduated from LSU in 2001 with a degree in dairy science and a minor in business administration. Fairburn spent one year in private business before returning to his alma mater in July of 2002.

Review

ON TOP OF THE College Football World

LSU coach Nick Saban likens his team's weekly journey through the college football season to a person climbing a mountain, taking it one step at a time until reaching the summit. There are treacherous steps along the way (see Florida game), but it's how a team handles the adversity (see South Carolina game the following week) that determines the fate of the squad.

Well, in 2003, the Tigers maneuvered their way up the proverbial college football mountain and staked the LSU flag atop the summit with a 21-14 win over Oklahoma in the BCS National Championship game to claim the school's first national title in football in 45 years. The win over the Sooners in the Nokia Sugar Bowl, coupled with the 34-13 win over Georgia in the SEC title game, capped a season that saw Saban earn national coach of the year honors from three organizations, including the Associated Press, while four Tigers were named first team All-Americas and another two were selected Academic All-Americas.

LSU's journey to a 13-1 season, which ranks as the most victories by a team in school history, saw the Tigers use an offense that featured balance. For the first time in LSU annals, the Tiger offense featured both a 1,000-yard rusher (Justin Vincent with 1,001 yards) as well as a 1,000-yard receiver (Michael Clayton with 1,079 yards). With steady quarterback Matt Mauck calling the signals, the Tiger offense set the school standard for points in a season (475), total yards (5,857) and first downs (298).

Defensively, the Tigers employed an aggressive style that featured numerous blitzes and disguises that seemed to rattle opposing quarterbacks on a weekly basis. Only once during the season did an opponent manage to score 20 points in a game and that came in week 12 when Arkansas punched across a late TD in a 55-24 setback to the Tigers. With Chad Lavalais leading the way up front and two of the best cornerbacks in the nation in Corey Webster and Travis Daniels providing support down the field, the Tigers led the nation in both scoring (11.0 points per game) and total defense (252.0 yards per game). Furthermore, LSU's defense held opponents to just five rushing touchdowns, while sacking opposing quarterbacks a school record 44 times.

LSU WINS SECOND NATIONAL FOOTBALL TITLE, CLAIMS NINTH SEC TITLE

LSU's victory over Oklahoma in the BCS National title game marked the second national championship in football for the Tigers, and the first since 1958. LSU's other national title came under Paul Dietzel when the Tigers, behind the play of Billy Cannon, posted an 11-0 mark on their way to the 1958 national title. In addition, the Tigers claimed their ninth SEC title in 2003. LSU's 34-13 victory over Georgia gave the Tigers their second SEC title in three years. LSU also improved to 2-0 in SEC Championship games, both of which have come under Saban. LSU's SEC titles have come in 1935, 1936, 1958, 1961, 1970, 1986, 1988, 2001 and 2003.

SABAN NAMED NATIONAL COACH OF THE YEAR

Nick Saban became LSU's fourth national coach of the year recipient, but the first as selected by the Associated Press when the organization selected the fourth-year Tiger leader as national coach of the year. Saban also earned the distinction of being named the Bear Bryant Coach of the Year as well as the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year in 2003. Saban joined Paul Dietzel (1958), Charles McClendon (1970) and Jerry Stovall (1982) as LSU's national coach of the year winners. Dietzel and McClendon were recognized by the American Football Coaches Association, while Stovall was honored by the Walter Camp Foundation. The national coach of the year honor is the first of Saban's career. Saban was also named SEC Co-Coach of the Year by the AP in 2003, sharing the award with Ole Miss coach David Cutcliffe.

FOUR TIGERS EARN FIRST-TEAM ALL-AMERICA HONORS

LSU placed four players on at least one First-Team All-America list in 2003 with DT Chad Lavalais leading the way by being named a consensus All-America. Lavalais earned All-America honors from Walter Camp, AP, Sports Illustrated, ESPN.com, Football Writers, Sporting News, and Collegefootballnews.com. CB Corey Webster earned a spot on the American Football Coaches Association Team, while return specialist Skyler Green was selected to the Sports Illustrated and ESPN.com's All-America squads. OG Stephen Peterman picked up First-Team All-America honors from Sports Illustrated, ESPN.com, and Sporting News. In all, LSU has had six players earn First-Team All-America status in four years under Nick Saban.

TIGERS NO. 1 IN ESPN/USA TODAY COACHES POLL; NO. 2 IN AP POLL

The Tigers capped the 2003 season ranked No. 1 in the nation in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll and No. 2 in the Associated Press poll.

LSU was ranked behind Southern Cal in the AP Poll. The No. 1 ranking marked the highest for the Tigers since 1959 when LSU was ranked No. 1 in the AP poll for the first eight weeks of the season. LSU finished the year ranked in the AP Top 10 for 13 straight ranking periods, while they were in the USA Today/ESPN Coaches poll top 10 for the 14th consecutive rankings.

LSU SETS SCHOOL RECORD WITH 13 VICTORIES

LSU set the school record for single-season victories with 13 wins in 2003. The 13 wins surpassed the previous mark of 11, which was set during LSU's national championship season in 1958. The Tigers were 11-0 in 1958. LSU has now won 10 or more games twice under Nick Saban and they've won at least 10 games in a single-season seven times in its history.

LSU VS. THE TOP 25

LSU posted a 5-0 mark against ranked teams in 2003. LSU posted wins over No. 1 Oklahoma, 21-14, over then No. 5 Georgia, 34-13, then No. 7 Georgia, 17-10, then-No. 15 Ole Miss, 17-14, and then-No. 17 Auburn, 31-7. The Tigers are 13-7 in games against Top 25 teams under Saban, which includes a 3-2 mark in 2000, a 4-2 record in 2001 and a 1-3 record in 2002.

TIGERS RUN BOWL RECORD TO 17-17-1

LSU's win over Oklahoma not only claimed the national title for the school, but also moved the Tigers' bowl record to 17-17-1. LSU, which is now 5-7 in Sugar Bowls, is 3-1 in bowl games under Saban.

SABAN'S 39 WINS MOST-EVER FOR COACH AT LSU IN FIRST FOUR YEARS

LSU coach Nick Saban's 39 wins in his first four years are the most-ever by a Tiger coach over a four-year span. Saban's record at LSU stands at 39-13, which is five more victories than Bernie Moore won during his first four years with the Tigers. In addition, the 39 victories are the most by an LSU coach over a four-year span since Charles McClendon won 36 games from 1970-73.

TAKING NOTES ON THE TIGERS UNDER SABAN

Here is a look at some notable LSU trends during its first 52 games under Nick Saban … LSU is 34-2 when leading at halftime and 32-2 when leading after three quarters … The Tigers are 36-3 when scoring 20 or more points and 34-0 when scoring 25 or more points … On the other hand, LSU is 3-10 when failing to reach the 20-point mark … LSU is 10-2 in games decided by 7 points or less and 4-1 in games decided by 3 points or less … LSU is 25-1 when holding opponents to fewer than 100 yards rushing and the Tigers are 19-0 when having a 100-yard rusher.

THAT TIGER STADIUM MYSTIQUE IS BACK UNDER SABAN

LSU coach Nick Saban has restored the mystique that has made Tiger Stadium one of the toughest places for opposing teams to play. In four seasons at LSU, Saban has put together a 23-5 mark at home, which includes a 12-4 record in SEC games. LSU finished its 2003 season with a 6-1 record at home after going 6-1 in Tiger Stadium in 2002. Under Saban, the Tigers are 6-2 vs. Top 25 teams in Tiger Stadium. LSU's 18 wins over Saban's first three years in Baton Rouge is the most over a three-year period for LSU in Tiger Stadium since the Tigers won 18 homes games from 1972-74.

LAVALAIS WAS A FINALIST FOR BOTH OUTLAND AND NAGURSKI AWARDS

DT Chad Lavalais was a finalist for two national awards in 2003. The senior from Marksville, La., was one of three finalists for the Outland Trophy, which is presented annually to the nation's top interior lineman, and he was one of five finalists for the Nagurski Award, which goes to college football's top defensive player. In 14 games in 2003, Lavalais has recorded 61 tackles with 16 of those going for losses. He also had seven sacks to go with 23 quarterback hurries. He also blocked one field goal and intercepted a pass.

LSU "D" RATED NO. 1 IN NATION IN SCORING DEFENSE AND TOTAL DEFENSE

LSU capped its national championship season by having the nation's No. 1 rated defense in both scoring and total defense. In 14 games, the Tigers allowed an average of 11 points a contest, while limiting their opponent to just 252 yards of offense per game. The Tigers allowed only two teams to reach the 100-yard mark in rushing yards - 201 by Arkansas and 121 by Louisiana Tech. LSU's defense yielded only 17 touchdowns all season - five rushing, 12 passing. The Tigers allowed only 53 first-half points in 2003, and only one team scored more than 20 points in a game against LSU, as Arkansas scored 24 points in the regular season finale. LSU's streak of 11 straight games of holding its opponent to less than 20 points tied the mark set by LSU teams in 1958, '60, '61 and '62.

MAUCK CAPS LSU CAREER WITH 18-2 RECORD AS A STARTING QB

With the win over Oklahoma, Matt Mauck ran his record to 18-2 as LSU's starting quarterback. The 18-2 record by Mauck as the Tiger signal-caller is the best winning percentage for a starting quarterback in school history. Mauck's 18-2 mark as a starter is the best for an LSU player since Herb Tyler posted a 16-2 mark over his first 18 games as a starter before finishing with a 27-11 career record.

CLAYTON SETS SCHOOL-RECORD FOR TD RECEPTIONS; RANKS SECOND IN RECEPTIONS

Michael Clayton capped his LSU career with a school-record 21 TD receptions, breaking the previous mark of 19 held by Wendell Davis (1984-87). Clayton, who caught at least one pass in all 40 games of his career, completed his career ranked second in LSU history in receptions with 182. He's also fourth in receiving yards with 2,582. Clayton's junior season saw the Baton Rouge native catch 78 passes for 1,079 yards and 10 touchdowns. Clayton joins Josh Reed (1,740 yards in 2001 and 1,127 yards in 2000), Wendell Davis (1,244 yards in 1986) and Eric Martin (1,064 yards in 1983) as the only players in school history to have 1,000-yards receiving in a season.

VINCENT SETS LSU FRESHMAN RUSHING RECORD WITH 1,001 YARDS

Justin Vincent moved past Dalton Hilliard into first place on LSU's all-time freshman rushing list with 1,001 yards as a rookie in 2003. Vincent broke the record with 117 yards against Oklahoma in the Nokia Sugar Bowl. Vincent's total bettered the previous mark of 902 set by Hilliard in 1982.

LSU PICKED UP FOUR SEC PLAYER OF THE WEEK HONORS IN 2003

QB Matt Mauck earned SEC Offensive Player of the Week honors after LSU's 55-24 win over Arkansas, running the Tigers' total of league player of the week honors to four in 2003. Other SEC Player of the Week honors for LSU in 2003 include CB Corey Webster - SEC Defensive Player of the Week vs. Georgia; DT Chad Lavalais - SEC Defensive Player of the Week vs. Auburn and Ole Miss.

VINCENT HAS FIVE 100-YARD RUSHING GAMES; NAMED MVP OF SEC TITLE GAME AND SUGAR BOWL

Justin Vincent capped his rookie season in grand style as he was named MVP of both the SEC title game as well as the Nokia Sugar Bowl. Vincent, who had five 100-yard rushing games in 2003, rushed for 201 yards against Georgia in LSU's 34-13 win over the Bulldogs in the league title game. He followed that with 117 yards and one TD in LSU's 21-14 victory over Oklahoma to claim the BCS National Championship.

LSU SHATTERS NINE SCHOOL RECORDS IN 2003

While LSU's defense has garnered most of the publicity in 2003, the Tiger offense put up some pretty impressive numbers as well. In all, the Tigers set the school standard on nine different offensive categories in 2003. The following is a look at the team records that fell in 2003:

CATEGORY	NEW RECORD	PREVIOUS RECORD
Plays	994	883 in 2002
Rushing/Passing TDs	54	48 in 1982
Passes Completed	255	238 in 2001
TD Passes	30	26 in 1989
Most Yards	5,857	5,418 in 2001
Points	475	377 in 1977
Total TDs	63	51 in 1977
Extra Points	57	47 in 1982
First Downs	298	262 in 2001

Season Notebook

TIGER DEFENSE SCORES SCHOOL-RECORD SEVEN TIMES IN 2003

LSU's defense scored a school-record seven touchdowns in 2003 as the Tigers returned five interceptions for scores, while the other two came on fumble returns. The Tigers scored defensive touchdowns in the final three games of the season, including a 20-yard interception return by Marcus Spears against Oklahoma in the BCS National Championship game. The following is a look at LSU's defensive touchdowns in 2003:

GAME	PLAY
UL-Monroe	Jack Hunt 31-yard interception return
Miss. State	Travis Daniels 48-yard interception return
South Carolina	Jason LeDoux 15-yard fumble return
Louisiana Tech	Jack Hunt 29-yard interception return
Arkansas	Eric Alexander 25-yard fumble return
Georgia	Lionel Turner 18-yard interception return

TIGERS KEEP OPPONENTS TO LESS THAN 20 POINTS FOR 32ND TIME UNDER SABAN

By holding Oklahoma to 14 in the BCS National Championship Game, the Tigers have now limited their opponents to less than 20 points in 32 of the 52 games they have played under Nick Saban. Under Saban, the Tigers are 29-3 when holding its opponents to fewer than 20 points. Prior to the Florida game, LSU had won 18 straight contests when holding its opponent to less than 20 points. That streak dated back to a 14-3 loss to Arkansas in Little Rock in 2000. Of the 32 times that LSU has held its opponent to under 20 points, 16 of those have been when the opponent scored 10 points or less. LSU has also posted four shutouts under Saban.

MAUCK THROWS LSU RECORD 28 TDS IN 2003

Matt Mauck threw an LSU record 28 touchdown passes in 2003. The 28 TD passes bettered the previous mark of 22, which was originally held by Tommy Hodson in 1989. For his career, Mauck tossed 37 touchdown passes, which ranks as the third-best total in school history. In 20 games as LSU's starting quarterback, Mauck has tossed at least three TD passes in a game seven times, which includes a school-record tying four TD passes three times. Hodson holds the LSU career mark with 69 TD passes.

WEBSTER RUNS INTERCEPTION TOTAL TO 14

With an interception against Oklahoma, Corey Webster ran his career total to 14, which ranks second in school history. Webster, who played his first year with the Tigers as a wide receiver, has now intercepted seven passes in each of the past two seasons. Webster's 14 career interceptions trails only Chris Williams (1977-80), who had 20 picks during his LSU career.

LSU'S RODNEY REED NAMED NATIONAL SCHOLAR-ATHLETE

Rodney Reed, who is one of the most decorated student-athletes in LSU football history, added another honor to an already impressive resume as he was selected a National Scholar-Athlete by the National Football Foundation. The award is one of the top academic honors available to a college football player and it carries with it an $18,000 post-graduate scholarship. Reed is one of only 15 football players covering all NCAA divisions as well as NAIA to receive the award. He also becomes the second National Scholar-Athlete in as many years for LSU, joining Bradie James, who was honored last year. Past LSU recipients of the award include: offensive lineman Robert Dugas (1977), linebacker Nacho Albergamo (1987), quarterback Sol Graves (1990) and punter Chad Kessler (1997).

SKYLER LED NATION IN PUNT RETURNS

Skyler Green completed his first season as LSU's punt returner by leading the nation in the category with an average of 18.5 yards per return. For the year, Green returned 25 punts for 462 yards and a pair of touchdowns. The 462 yards ranks as the fourth-highest single-season total in LSU history. Green returned two punts for TDs in 2003, including an 80-yarder against Florida. On the first punt return of his career against Arizona, Green raced 62 yards for a touchdown. Green is the first player since Todd Kinchen in 1991 to have two punt returns for TDs in the same season, which is one shy of tying the school mark of three set by Pinky Rohm in 1937.

Skyler Green is the first LSU player to lead the nation in yards per punt return.

Melvin Oliver's fumble recovery helped hold ULM to one touchdown.

LSU Rolls Past UL-Monroe in Season Opener

Matt Mauck threw three touchdown passes, Joseph Addai rushed for 81 yards and Michael Clayton caught six passes for 152 yards and a pair of TD passes as LSU rolled to a 49-7 win over UL-Monroe in the season-opener for both teams. The game was only four-minutes-old when a thunderstorm rolled into Baton Rouge and caused a 39-minute delay because of lightning. After a scoreless first quarter, Mauck threw three TD passes over the final seven minutes of the second quarter to put the Tigers up 21-0 at halftime. Shyrone Carey added a 1-yard TD run midway through the third quarter to give LSU a 28-0 advantage. The Tigers stretched the margin to 35-0 with a 31-yard interception return for the TD by Jack Hunt just 16 seconds later. UL-Monroe scored its only points of the contest on a 12-yard run by Kevin Payne early in the fourth quarter. Freshman Alley Broussard capped the scoring for the Tigers with a 1-yard run with 10:39 left in the contest. For the game, the Tigers racked up 474 yards of offense (306 passing, 168 rushing) compared to just 240 yards for the Indians (59 rushing, 181 passing).

What they said...

"Well we are obviously disappointed with the way we started the game. I think our readiness was affected by the delay or whatever it might have been. When I say readiness, I'm not talking about lack of being prepared because you saw as the game went on we actually got better and executed better and played a little bit better."
- LSU HEAD COACH NICK SABAN

"It was raining pretty hard at first and the field was pretty slippery, but I think as the game went on everybody on the whole team got more comfortable."
- LSU QB MATT MAUCK

"I've been dreaming of that play (interception return for a touchdown) all week. I always thought - think of what you want to do, always dream what you'll do, and, I've been dreaming all week. It finally happened. I was happy to make the play."
- LSU SS JACK HUNT

What they did...

- Louisiana Offensive Player of the Week
- MICHAEL CLAYTON

- Louisiana Defensive Player of the Week
- JACK HUNT

Notes on the Game

- LSU had six first-time starters in the game: Offense - Nate Livings; Defense - Eric Alexander, Adrian Mayes, Ronnie Prude, Jessie Daniels and Travis Daniels.
- Play was suspended at 7:08 p.m. due to lightning. There was 11:09 left in the first quarter and LSU had the ball, fourth down and four yards to play from the ULM 12-yard line. Play resumed at 7:47 p.m., a delay of 39 minutes.
- LSU's eight straight quarters of holding an opponent from Louisiana without a point was snapped when ULM scored a touchdown with 14:10 left in the fourth quarter. Tulane scored in the third quarter of the game in 2001 and UL-Lafayette was held scoreless in 2002.
- Matt Mauck threw three touchdown passes in the second quarter, marking the second time in his career he has thrown three touchdowns in one quarter (in the first quarter vs. UL-Lafayette in 2002). He is the only QB in LSU history to throw three touchdown passes in the same quarter.
- Michael Clayton recorded a career high with 152 yards receiving, topping the 126 yards receiving he had against Alabama in 2001. It was the fourth 100-yard receiving game of his career and his first since a 120-yard game against Illinois in the 2002 Sugar Bowl.
- Joseph Addai's touchdown reception was the first receiving touchdown of his career.
- Alley Broussard's touchdown run was the first of his career.
- Jack Hunt grabbed his first career interception in the third quarter and returned it 31 yards for his first career touchdown.

What they said...

"I think we answered some questions tonight about being ranked so high and if we could play on the road. We came into someone's house and played dominant football."
- LSU HEAD COACH NICK SABAN

"(LSU) capitalized on every field opportunity,. They had a terrific return game. They just thoroughly whipped us."
- ARIZONA HEAD COACH JOHN MACKOVIC

"If this offense executes and does the things we're coached to do, we should be able to do that every game."
- LSU QB MATT MAUCK

Freshman Barrington Edwards had nine carries for 40 yards to help the LSU offensive outburst.

LSU Storms Past Arizona in the Desert

LSU scored on its first seven possessions, including a 15-play, 80-yard drive to open the contest, as the Tigers had little trouble with Arizona, posting a 59-13 win over the Wildcats in Tucson, Ariz. Quarterbacks Matt Mauck and Marcus Randall combined to connect on 19-of-25 passes for 299 yards and two TDs, and Joseph Addai rushed for 86 yards and a pair of scores to lead the Tigers. Michael Clayton led all receivers with six catches for 109 yards and a 48-yard TD reception. Addai opened the scoring for LSU with a 1-yard run midway through the first quarter. Ryan Gaudet nailed a 47-yard field goal three minutes later and then Addai added an 8-yard TD run less than a minute after Gaudet's field goal to give the Tigers a 17-0 lead. LSU stretched the advantage to 38-0 at halftime, as the Tigers were never threatened in the contest. In all, the Tigers had five rushing TDs, two passing TDs, and Skyler Green returned a punt 65 yards for a TD. Arizona scored its first points with 10 minutes left in the contest on a 1-yard fumble return. Defensively, LSU limited the Wildcats to only 182 yards of offense.

Notes on the Game

- LSU's 59-13 victory was the largest win on the road since a 47-0 victory at Mississippi State (in Jackson) in 1986, and the largest in an opponent's home stadium since a 62-0 victory over Tulane at Tulane Stadium in 1958.
- LSU's 38 points in the first half were the most scored in a half since the Tigers posted 41 in the opening half against UL-Lafayette last season and the most on the road in a half since LSU scored 43 in the second half at Kentucky in 1997. LSU went on to defeat ULL, 48-0, and Kentucky, 63-28.
- Joseph Addai's two rushing touchdowns in the first quater made him the first running back to score two rushing touchdowns in one quarter since Domanick Davis scored twice in the third quarter against UL-Lafayette in 2002.
- Skyler Green returned a punt 62 yards for the first return touchdown of his career and LSU's first since Domanick Davis ran a punt back 78 yards for a score against Mississippi State on Sept. 28, 2002.
- Michael Clayton finished the game with 109 receiving yards, his second 100-yard receiving game in 2003, which moved him into a tie for seventh-place in career 100-yard receiving games with five.
- Clayton played on defense for the first time this season on the third-down play of Arizona's opening drive of the game.
- Shyrone Carey's 5-yard punt return in the third quarter gave him over 100 all-purpose yards for a game for the second time in his career, finishing the game with 107. In 2002, he had 148 all-purpose yards against UL-Lafayette.
- Freshman Justin Vincent's touchdown run in the fourth quarter was the first of his career.
- Ryan Gaudet's 47-yard field goal in the first quarter was the first of his career.
- Ronnie Prude's interception in the fourth quarter was the first of his career.

What they said...

"I told our team that we won't play anyone that will want to beat us any worse than these guys wanted to. Not only are they 1-AA, with dreams of playing Division I and wanting to go to a place like LSU. They want to prove that they belong and they are representing everyone in Division 1-AA when they do it."
- LSU HEAD COACH NICK SABAN

"That's as hard as anyone has ever played against us. That's as physical as anyone has ever played against us."
- LSU HEAD COACH NICK SABAN

"We threw everything we could at them to try to find a way to turn the game in our favor. Their skilled players are simply too good for us to be able to contain over 60 minutes. I hope they win the rest of them."
- WESTERN ILLINOIS HEAD COACH DON PATTERSON

On his blocked field goal
"Usually when you line up for field goal protection, you want to get real tight. They were a pretty good width, they had a big gap right there and I was like, 'Are they going to step out and is this a fake?' I just thought, we are going to get this one."
- LSU DT CHAD LAVALAIS

Michael Clayton pulls down one of his career-high 11 receptions for a career-best 162 yards against the Leathernecks.

Mauck Passes Tigers Past Western Illinois

LSU QB Matt Mauck connected on 23-of- 32 passes for a career-best 305 yards and four TDs as the Tigers overcame a slow start to post a 35-7 win over Western Illinois in Tiger Stadium. Shyrone Carey rushed for a career-best 124 yards and a TD to lead the Tiger ground attack, while Michael Clayton hauled in 11 receptions for 162 yards and a score. Defensively, Corey Webster intercepted two passes for the Tigers. On its first possession, LSU marched 58 yards on 10 plays and took a 6-0 lead on a 10-yard pass from Mauck to Clayton. The Tigers, who fumbled twice inside the Western Illinois 15-yard line in the first quarter, led 13-0 at halftime after a 1-yard TD run by Carey. After an on side kick to start the second half, the Leathernecks cut the deficit to 13-7 on a 3-yard TD pass from Russ Michna to Terrence Hall at the 10:08 mark in the third quarter. It was all LSU from there as Mauck threw TD passes of 8 and 40 yards to Skyler Green to stretch the advantage to 28-7. The Tigers added a final score on a 16-yard TD pass from Mauck to Devery Henderson midway through the fourth quarter.

Notes on the Game

- LSU had a 100-yard rusher (Shyrone Carey) and a 100-yard receiver (Michael Clayton) in a game for the first time since the 2002 Sugar Bowl against Illinois when Domanick Davis ran for 122 yards and Josh Reed (239) and Clayton (120) both went over 100-yards receiving.
- Matt Mauck tied the school record by completing 17 straight pass attempts (the final 10 of the Arizona game and the first seven against Western Illinois). The record is also held by Rohan Davey (11 vs. Western Carolina and 6 vs. Arkansas in 1999).
- Mauck's 16-yard touchdown pass to Devery Henderson in the fourth quarter was his fourth of the game and gave him over 300 yards passing, tying the school record for touchdowns in a game. He became the first LSU QB to throw four touchdowns since Josh Booty threw four against Alabama on Nov. 4, 2000, and the first to toss for over 300 yards since Rohan Davey passed for 444 yards in the 2002 Sugar Bowl against Illinois.
- Michael Clayton had a career-high 11 receptions for a career-best 162 yards, giving him three-straight 100-yard receiving games and six for his career. He surpassed his previous career-high of nine catches set against Kentucky on Oct. 13, 2001, and his previous high of 152 yards set against UL-Monroe earlier in the year.
- Shyrone Carey recorded his first 100-yard game and was the first 100-yard rusher for LSU since Domanick Davis rushed for 113 against South Carolina on Oct. 19, 2002. Carey finished the game with 21 carries for a career-best 124 yards, topping his previous high of 68 yards against South Carolina on Oct. 19, 2002.
- With two interceptions, Corey Webster recorded the third multiple-interception game of his career. He also picked off two passes against Mississippi State in 2002 and had three picks at Florida in 2002.
- Matt Mauck's 40-yard touchdown pass to Skyler Green in the third quarter was LSU's fifth touchdown pass of the season of 40 yards or more.
- Mauck's scramble to convert the two-point conversion after Green's touchdown catch was the first successful two-point conversion for LSU since Marcus Randall hit Michael Clayton in the third quarter against South Carolina on Oct. 19, 2002.
- Travis Daniels' blocked punt in the first quarter was the first by an LSU player since Clarence LeBlanc blocked a Mississippi State punt on Oct. 23, 1999, in Starkville.
- Chad Lavalais blocked WIU's 30-yard FG attempt in the second quarter, to become the first LSU player to block a FG attempt since Arnold Miller blocked a 42-yard attempt by Notre Dame on Nov. 21, 1998, in South Bend.
- Western Illinois recovered their own on-side kick to open the second half. They were the first opponent to do so since Alabama on Nov. 7, 1998.

What they said...

"Well you can't really say enough about both football teams, the way they competed out there, a heavyweight fight, a real street fight. Both teams competed their hearts out. It was about a physical a football game as I've seen in a long time and I'm proud of the way our players competed in the game."
- LSU HEAD COACH NICK SABAN

"The team needed a big play, so we had to come through, we had to get over a lot of things. The dropped passes I had at the beginning, I had to get over that and come through just this one time and make a play."
- LSU WR SKYLER GREEN

"I want to say thank you to the fans because it was such a lift for us. We could feel the vibrations running through our bodies when they started hollering."
- LSU DE MARCUS SPEARS

Skyler Green pulls in a 34-yard touchdown with I:22 on the clock to win the game.

Mauck-to-Green Leads LSU Past Georgia

Matt Mauck connected with Skyler Green for a 34-yard touchdown pass with 1:22 left in the contest as 10th-ranked LSU knocked off seventh-ranked Georgia, 17-10, before a record crowd of 92,251 in Tiger Stadium. The win marked the first Tiger victory over a top 10 team in Tiger Stadium since a 28-21 win over No. 1 Florida in 1997. The Tigers led 7-3 at halftime thanks in part to an outstanding defensive effort by LSU over the first 30 minutes. In the first half alone, Georgia got inside the LSU 30-yard line five times and came up with only three points. Trailing 3-0, the Tigers took a 7-3 lead on a 21-yard run by Shyrone Carey with 3:10 left in the first half. The Tigers extended their margin to 10-3 on a 47-yard field goal by Ryan Gaudet at the 6:23 mark in the third quarter. LSU appeared to have the game in hand, but a fumble by Mauck at the Georgia 15-yard line with less than five minutes left gave the Bulldogs another chance. Two plays later Georgia's David Greene hit Tyson Browning on a screen pass, which he took 93 yards for a touchdown to tie the score at 10-10. Devery Henderson returned the ensuing kickoff 48 yards to the LSU 49-yard line to setup the game-winning touchdown for the Tigers. Georgia got into LSU territory in the final minute, but an interception by Corey Webster at the 22-yard line sealed the Tiger victory.

Notes on the Game

- With an announced attendance of 92,251, it marked the largest crowd in Tiger Stadium history. The previous record of 92,141 was set on Dec. 1, 2001, against Auburn. This was the fourth time in LSU history the attendance at Tiger Stadium exceeded 92,000 and the 11th time over 91,000.
- Shyrone Carey's 21-yard touchdown run in the second half was his fourth of the season, giving him one rushing touchdown in each of LSU's first four games.
- Eric Edwards' three receptions was a career-high, topping his career best, which was set twice. The last time came against Alabama on Nov. 16, 2002.
- Marcus Spears' forced fumble and fumble recovery late in the first quarter were the first of his career.
- Ryan Gaudet's 47-yard FG in the third quarter tied his career long, hit earlier this season against Arizona.

What they said...

"LSU is balanced. From top to bottom, this is the best balanced LSU team ever."
- MISSISSIPPI STATE HEAD COACH JACKIE SHERILL

"I'm not surprised that we're undefeated at this point because we know that good things will happen if we go out and play hard."
- LSU QB MATT MAUCK

"We wanted to come in here and dominate this game, and we knew we were going to have to play for 60 minutes to do that. This was the most important game of the season so far because it was a division game, and we came in with the mentality to dominate from start to finish."
- LSU WR MICHAEL CLAYTON

Travis Daniels drops MSU's Keven Fant for one of the Tigers' five sacks for the game

Opportunistic Tigers Feast on Mississippi State

LSU turned three Mississippi State turnovers into 21 points and the Tiger defense limited the Bulldogs to only 31 yards rushing as LSU rolled to a 41-6 win in Starkville. After a slow start, LSU took a 7-0 lead late in the first quarter on a 1-yard TD run by Shyrone Carey. Leading 10-0 after a Ryan Gaudet field goal, the Tigers stretched the margin to 17-0 midway through the second quarter on another 1-yard TD run by Carey. Carey's second TD was setup by an interception by Jack Hunt, who returned the pick to the MSU 1-yard line. The Tigers led 24-0 at halftime after Travis Daniels returned an interception 48-yards for a TD with less than a minute remaining in the first half. MSU then fumbled on its third play of the second half and the Tigers struck again one play later, this time Matt Mauck connected with Devery Henderson for a 36-yard TD pass to stretch the lead to 31-0. LSU led 34-0 before MSU finally scored with just over 10 minutes left in the contest. For the game, Mauck completed 12-of-19 passes for 171 yards and 1 TD, while Justin Vincent led the Tigers with 58 yards rushing and 1 TD on six carries. Carey added 50 yards rushing and 2 TDs on 13 carries. Henderson led all receivers with a career-best seven receptions for 114 yards and a score. Defensively, the Tigers sacked MSU quarterback Kevin Fant five times and limited the Bulldogs to only 239 yards of offense.

Notes on the Game

- LSU moved to 5-0 for the first time since the 1973 season when LSU began the season 9-0. The Tigers also moved to 2-0 in the SEC for the second-straight year, marking the first time LSU has been 2-0 in back-to-back seasons since 1995-1996.
- With two rushing touchdowns, Shyrone Carey recorded the first multi-touchdown game of his career and marked the fifth-straight game he scored, giving him a rushing touchdown in each of LSU's first five games.
- Devery Henderson's 36-yard touchdown reception in the third quarter put the receiver over 100 yards receiving for the game, the second 100-yard receiving game of his career.
- With Matt Mauck's 36-yard touchdown pass to Henderson in the third quarter, the junior QB extended his streak to nine-straight games with a touchdown pass. The last time Mauck did not throw a touchdown pass was against The Citadel on Sept. 7, 2002.
- Travis Daniels' 48-yard interception return for a touchdown in the second quarter was the first returned for a touchdown of his career. It was the second time LSU returned an interception for a touchdown as Jack Hunt returned one 31-yards for a score against UL-Monroe.
- Donnie Jones' 58-yard punt late in the fourth quarter broke Chad Kessler's career record for punts at LSU with 187.

What they said...

"We knew we were playing a very dangerous team, like playing a caged animal in terms of what was on the line for their season, so you have to give them a lot of credit for the intensity they played with and the way they played."
- LSU HEAD COACH NICK SABAN

"Coach Fisher and Coach Saban always say we should be motivated when we win. You don't want a loss to motivate you, but unfortunately, in that situation, that's what we had happen. Now we're going to have to go back and refocus and really concentrate on executing and getting better in practice."
- LSU QB MATT MAUCK

"Anytime you lose, you feel like everything you did wasn't good enough. So we'll just have to come back and refocus and try to get better."
- LSU DE MARCUS SPEARS

"We just happened to beat a good football team today."
- FLORIDA HEAD COACH RON ZOOK

"This is a great win. We came in here to win. LSU is a great team, an awesome team, but we just came in here and played our hearts out and had fun."
- FLORIDA QB CHRIS LEAK

Flat Tigers Fall to Florida

A flat LSU football team couldn't overcome a series of penalties and a key injury to starting running back Joseph Addai as the Tigers dropped their only game of the season to Florida, 19-7, in Tiger Stadium. The Tigers actually scored the first points of the game as Skyler Green, subbing for an injured Shyrone Carey, returned a first quarter punt 80-yards for a touchdown and a 7-0 LSU lead. Florida responded with a 13-play drive to tie the game at 7-7 on a 22-yard pass from Chris Leak to Ran Carthon. The Gators took the lead for good at 10-7 on a 29-yard field goal by Matt Leach at the 3:17 mark in the first quarter. The Gators led 13-7 at halftime after another field goal by Leach. Florida extended its lead to 19-7 on a 35-yard pass from Leak to Ciatric Fason with 5:21 left in the third quarter. The Tigers had a couple of chances to get back in the game negated, one by a penalty and another on a fumble. A penalty wiped out a 42-yard pass from Matt Mauck to Michael Clayton in the third quarter that would have given the Tigers the ball at the Florida 28-yard line. Late in the fourth quarter, with the game still in doubt, Mauck hit Devery Henderson in stride with a pass to the Florida 31-yard line, which he then fumbled away at the UF 14-yard line. For the game, the Tigers sacked Leak six times and forced another Florida turnover on the LSU 1-yard line. Mauck completed 19-of-33 passes for 231 yards and a pair of interceptions, while Leak led Florida with 18-of-30 passing for 229 yards and 2 TDs.

Notes on the Game

- With Florida's touchdown with 6:51 remaining in the first quarter, the Gators snapped LSU's regular-season first half scoreless streak. The Tigers had held opponents scoreless in 13 straight first half quarters of regular season games, including 10 straight first half quarters in 2003. The last time the Tigers had allowed an opponent to score in the first half during a regular season (non bowl) game was with 1:02 left in the first quarter against Ole Miss on Nov. 23, 2002.
- Holding Florida to 81 rushing yards in the game, LSU held an opponent to under 100 yards rushing for the sixth time in 2003, but snapped Nick Saban's 19-game win streak when holding opponents to fewer than 100 yards on the ground.
- In just the third punt return of his career, Skyler Green returned a punt 80-yards for a touchdown in the first quarter. It was his second punt return for a touchdown in 2003, making him the first LSU player to return two punts for touchdowns in the same season since Todd Kinchen did so in 1991. Green also returned a punt 62 yards for a touchdown against Arizona.
- Michael Clayton's 25-yard reception in the first quater moved the junior receiver over 2,000 receiving yards for his career, making him the fifth player in LSU history to reach the milestone.
- Donnie Jones' third punt of the game, a 43-yarder in the second quarter, moved the senior past Chad Kessler into first place on LSU's career punting yardage list, giving him 7,989 career punt yards.
- Brandon Washington forced his first career fumble in the second quarter that led to Adrian Mayes' first fumble recovery of the the season and third of the senior's career.

What they said...

"There is no reason this shouldn't have been a competitive game, and it wasn't. We got beat soundly. We got outcoached, out-hit, out-enthusiasmed."
- SOUTH CAROLINA HEAD COACH LOU HOLTZ

"I'm really proud of the team. They bounced back after last week at a tough place to play. We controlled both sides of the ball and ran well. The offensive line did the best job of the year today. They were the most physical and played the best start to finish. All three running backs did a good job."
- LSU HEAD COACH NICK SABAN

"We wanted to re-establish our ability to run. We didn't come out to show anyone except ourselves that we could dominate the line. We are very proud of ourselves."
- LSU C BEN WILKERSON

Chad Lavalais and the LSU defense held South Carolina to zero rushing yards.

Freshman Running Backs Lead LSU over South Carolina

True freshmen running backs Justin Vincent, Alley Broussard and Barrington Edwards combined to rush for 222 yards and 2 TDs and quarterback Matt Mauck connected on 24-of-30 passes for 199 yards and 2 scores as 10th-ranked LSU rolled past South Carolina, 33-7, in Columbia. Playing without its two starting running backs, Joseph Addai and Shyrone Carey, who were both out with knee injuries, the Tigers rushed for a season-high 263 yards on 52 carries. LSU finished with 482 yards of offense, while holding South Carolina to only 254 yards of offense, including zero rushing yards. LSU jumped out to a 19-0 first half lead and never looked back in cruising to the victory. LSU had first half drives of 21-plays and 97 yards and 14-plays and 91 yards that both culminated in touchdowns, the second of which gave LSU a 19-0 lead on a 1-yard run by Vincent just before halftime. South Carolina pulled to within 19-7 after a 77-yard TD early in the third quarter before LSU linebacker Jason LeDoux put the game out of reach with a 15-yard fumble return for a touchdown later in the quarter. Vincent added another 1-yard TD run midway through the fourth quarter for LSU's final points. Broussard led LSU with 108 yards rushing on 19 attempts, while Vincent had 77 yards and 2 TDs rushing and added another 46 yards receiving on four receptions.

Notes on the Game

- LSU had two first-time starters in the game: Justin Vincent and Kyle Williams. Vincent became the first true freshman to start at running back for LSU since Kevin Faulk started against Mississippi State on Sept. 9, 1996.
- Freshman Alley Broussard recorded his first career 100-yard rushing game with 108 yards on 19 carries.
- Devery Henderson's touchdown reception in the first quarter was the 13th of his career, moving him into 10th place on LSU's career list for receiving touchdowns.
- Eric Edwards' 4-yard touchdown reception in the second quarter was his first of the season and fifth of the senior's career.
- Jason LeDoux scored the first touchdown of his career on a 15-yard fumble return in the third quarter. It was the first time the Tigers returned a fumble for a touchdown since Gabe Northern returned one 37 yards against Michigan State in the Independence Bowl on Dec. 29, 1995. The fumble was forced by Kirston Pittman, the first of the freshman's career.

What they said...

"It was a great win for all Tigers. I'm proud of the way our players played in the game. It was a total team win. It was a great atmosphere to play a football game in. Our fans were tremendous."
- LSU HEAD COACH NICK SABAN

"We were already confident but it's an even bigger confidence booster, especially beating a team as good as Auburn. Mainly all the hype was about Auburn, but we came in and showed them that we can play, too, and that we're a dominant team in the SEC."
- LSU LB ERIC ALEXANDER

"We have got no excuses. They lined up and whipped us on both sides and we couldn't tackle in the first quarter. Offensively we didn't make anything work. We tried it all, both sides, weak, strong, tried to run it, they were the better team today."
- AUBURN HEAD COACH TOMMY TUBERVILLE

LSU Shuts Down Cadillac, Auburn in 31-7 Win

In a game that featured the nation's top rushing defense in LSU against one of the best at running the football in Auburn, LSU came out on top, limiting Auburn to 50 yards rushing in a 31-7 win in Tiger Stadium. LSU struck early and often in the game as the Tigers rolled up 21 first-half points and never looked back in posting its biggest win over Auburn since a 35-7 victory in 1972. Matt Mauck connected with Devery Henderson on a 64-yard scoring pass on the sixth play of the game for a 7-0 LSU lead. After the LSU defense stopped Auburn on a fourth-and-one at the 48-yard line, the Tigers needed only six more plays for a 14-0 advantage as Mauck found Michael Clayton for an 18-yard TD. Alley Broussard capped the first quarter scoring with a 5-yard TD run for a 21-0 LSU lead, which is where the game stood at halftime. Ryan Gaudet kicked a 33-yard field goal before Mauck hit Henderson for another TD pass to give the Tigers a 31-0 lead in the third quarter. Auburn, which was held to only 193 yards of offense, scored its only points late in the fourth quarter. For the game, Justin Vincent led the Tigers with 127 yards rushing, while Mauck completed 17-of-28 passes for 224 yards and 3 TDs. Henderson caught 6 passes for 101 yards and 2 TDs, while Clayton had 6 catches for 59 yards and 1 score. The LSU defense limited Cadillac Williams, who was considered a Heisman Trophy candidate, to 61 yards on 20 carries.

Notes on the Game

- The field was cleared due to a weather delay at 6:10 p.m. during pre game warm-ups. The delay lasted 30 minutes and warm-ups resumed at 6:40 p.m.
- LSU's 21-first quarter points against Auburn marks the first time the Tigers have scored at least 21 points in the first quarter against an SEC opponent since Oct. 12, 1985, when LSU scored 21 in the first at Vanderbilt and went on to defeat the Commodores, 49-7.
- Rudy Niswanger made his first career start in the game in place of the injured Nate Livings.
- Matt Mauck threw three touchdown passes, the fifth time in his career he threw three touchdowns in one game.
- Devery Henderson recorded 101 yards receiving for the fourth 100-yard game in his career, moving him into a tie for ninth on LSU's career 100-yard receiving games with four former Tigers. In addition, he had the third multi-touchdown game of his career with two TDs.
- Justin Vincent's 5-yard carry which ended the third quarter put the freshman over 100 yards rushing for the first time in his career. He finished the game with 14 carries for 127 yards.
- Henderson and Vincent gained over 100 yards receiving and rushing, respectively, marking the first time LSU has accomplished the feat since Michael Clayton had 162 yards receiving and Shyrone Carey gained 124 yards on the ground against Western Illinois earlier in the year.
- Matt Mauck to Devery Henderson's 64-yard touchdown pass in the first quarter was LSU's sixth touchdown pass of the season of 40 yards or more.
- The muffed punt by Auburn in the second quarter was recovered by Chad White, the first fumble recovery of his career.
- Eric Alexander's fumble recovery with less than a minute to play in the second half was the first of his career. Adrian Mayes caused the fumble, the third forced fumble of his career and first of the season.

What they said...

"These last three weeks we've had really good practices. Going into tonight the seniors only had two more home games so we want to go out with a good taste in our mouths. We've got three more games and we've just got to take them one game at a time now, so it's just a one game season and we control our own destiny."
- LSU OT RODNEY REED

"I was actually telling my mom the other day that it would have been nice if the first one (interception) I caught against ULM, it would be nice to get that one against Tech and score a touchdown against my hometown team. It worked out well."
- LSU SS JACK HUNT

"That was just a fantastic football team we played, and if they are not the best team in the country, I'd be shocked. I just feel like the speed out there was unbelievable, big players. We played Miami and I promise you I feel like they are better than Miami."
- LOUISIANA TECH HEAD COACH JACK BICKNELL

What they did...

- Louisiana Offensive Player of the Week
- MATT MAUCK

LSU Dominates Louisiana Tech on Homecoming

LSU quarterback Matt Mauck completed his first 14 passes, four of which went for touchdowns, as the seventh-ranked Tigers dominated Louisiana Tech in every phase of the game in a 49-10 win over the Bulldogs. For the game, the Tigers racked up a season-high 653 yards of offense - 372 passing, 281 rushing, while holding Tech's high-powered passing attack to only 220 yards. The contest was never in doubt as LSU scored on five of its first six offensive possessions to take a 49-3 lead at halftime. The Tigers led 28-0 after 15 minutes and then tacked on another score just seconds into the second quarter for a 35-0 advantage. Josh Scobee finally got Tech on the board with a 29-yard field goal early in the second quarter. LSU followed that with scoring plays of 50 yards on a Mauck to Devery Henderson pass and then a 22-yard TD run by Alley Broussard. For the game, Mauck tied an LSU single-game record by completing 14 straight passes and he set the school-record for completion percentage as he connected on 18-of-20 passes for 311 yards. Broussard led the Tiger ground game with 106 yards and 1 TD on 16 carries, while Barrington Edwards added 66 yards on 11 attempts. Skyler Green led all LSU receivers with nine catches for 103 yards and 1 TD. Defensively, Tiger safety Jack Hunt scored on a 29-yard interception return.

Notes on the Game

- LSU's 28 first-quarter points were the most scored by the Tigers in a quarter since scoring 35 in the third quarter against Rice on Sept. 24, 1977, in a 77-0 win in Tiger Stadium. LSU's 49 first-half points were the most the Tigers have scored in a half since scoring 56 in the second half at Tulane on Nov. 22, 1958, in a 66-0 victory.
- LSU's total offense of 653 yards was the highest since Sept. 2, 2000, when the Tigers had 680 against Western Carolina. The 653 yards were also the highest against a Division I-A opponent since LSU had 664 versus Rice on Sept. 19, 1987, in Tiger Stadium.
- LSU's 365 total passing yards were the most since the Tigers had 444 against Illinois in the 2002 Sugar Bowl.
- The Tigers did not return a kickoff or a punt and recorded no kickoff or punt return yardage for the first time since Nov. 18, 1995, against Arkansas in Tiger Stadium.
- Matt Mauck tied the LSU record for consecutive pass completions in a single game by hitting 14 straight to begin the game, tying Chad Loup against Arkansas on Nov. 27, 1993.
- Mauck threw for a career-high 311 yards and four touchdowns, tying the school record and marking the second time this season he has tossed four TDs. He also threw four against Western Illinois.
- For the game, Mauck completed 18-of-20 passes for a .900 completion percentage, which ranks first among LSU quarterbacks having thrown at least 20 attempts in a single game, breaking the previous record held by Alan Risher (.818, 21-26, at Ole Miss on Oct. 31, 1981).
- Matt Mauck connected with Devery Henderson for a 46-yard touchdown and a 50-yard touchdown in the second quarter for LSU's seventh and eighth touchdown passes of 40 or more yards in 2003.
- Skyler Green recorded a career-high nine receptions for a career-best 103 yards, giving him the first 100-yard receiving game of his career.
- Kyle Williams, a Ruston, La., native, recorded his first career interception in the first quarter on a tipped pass.
- Jack Hunt, also a Ruston native, scored his second career touchdown on a 29-yard interception return. It was Hunt's third interception (vs. ULM, vs. Mississippi State and vs. Louisiana Tech) and second returned for a touchdown (vs. ULM and vs. Louisiana Tech) this season, making him the first player to return two interceptions for touchdowns in a season since Cedrick Donaldson in 1997.
- LSU improved to 51-25-3 all-time in homecoming games.

What they said...

"They are real good and very deserving of their high ranking. We played Oklahoma early in the year so we can compare them to the top teams in the country. If Oklahoma is No. 1, they are definitely right behind them."
- ALABAMA HEAD COACH MIKE SHULA

"I'm obviously very pleased with the effort my team put out today. I'm proud of the way we competed. I'm proud of the way the players responded in critical situations on both sides of the ball. Alabama is a great football team and they compete well."
- LSU HEAD COACH NICK SABAN

"Alabama is a really good SEC team and everytime you play a team like them on the road it is tough. We did just enough tonight to win. We left some opportunities on the field, but we played with the type of intensity it took to win."
- LSU OL RODNEY REED

Tiger Defense Shuts Down Alabama, 27-3

Matt Mauck threw for 251 yards and 2 TDs and LSU's defense limited Alabama to only 65 yards rushing as the third-ranked Tigers dominated the Crimson Tide, 27-3. The Tigers jumped on Alabama early, taking a 10-0 lead on a 23-yard TD pass from Mauck to Michael Clayton. The Tigers, who held the Crimson Tide without a first down in the first quarter, took a 17-0 lead late in the second quarter on a 3-yard TD pass from Mauck to Eric Edwards. The Tigers tacked on another score to run the margin to 24-0 on a 4-yard run by Alley Broussard midway through the third quarter. Chris Jackson added a 33-yard field goal for a 27-0 LSU lead before Alabama's Brian Bostick put the Crimson Tide's only points on the scoreboard with a 27-yard field goal with 6:39 left in the contest. For the game, LSU held Shaud Williams, the SEC's top rusher, to only 29 yards (85 yards below his season average of 114.0 per game). Clayton led all LSU receivers with a career-best 12 catches for 130 yards and 1 score, while the Tigers got a balanced rushing attack with freshmen Justin Vincent rushing for 83 yards on 16 carries and Broussard rushing for 79 yards and 1 TD on 11 attempts.

Notes on the Game

- LSU improved to 9-1 on the season. The last time the Tigers began the season with a 9-1 record was 30 years ago during the 1973 season.
- With LSU's win, it marked the 21st time in school history that the Tigers have recorded at least nine wins in a season. The Tigers now have 15 nine-win seasons, five 10-win seasons and one 11-win season.
- LSU won by 24 points or more for the fourth game in a row. It marks the first time LSU has won by 24 points or more in four consecutive games since the Tigers won the first four games of the 1911 season by scores of 42-0 over Southwestern Louisiana, 46-0 over Louisiana Normal, 40-0 over Louisiana College and 40-0 over Meteor AC.
- Michael Clayton finished the game with 130 receiving yards, his sixth career 100-yard game, moving him into a six-way tie for seventh place in career 100-yard receiving games.
- Chris Jackson's 20-yard field goal in the first quarter was the first of his career.
- Chad Lavalais' interception late in the second quarter was the first of his career.

What they said...

"Our defense played like gangbusters. We fought through the turnovers and the bad field position. We could have melted down, but they showed a lot of character. It wasn't always pretty, but they showed a lot of maturity."
- LSU HEAD COACH NICK SABAN

"I wouldn't like to say it was personal, but everybody said it was all about Eli (coming into the game). Everybody said he could win the Heisman off of us. We weren't going to let that happen."
- LSU CB COREY WEBSTER

"They are definitely the best defense we've seen this year. They are as good as anyone in the country in my mind. The Southeastern Conference always has two or three people that just play at that level of defense. I don't know if I could specifically compare them to anybody but they are as good as I've played against."
- OLE MISS HEAD COACH DAVID CUTCLIFFE

What they did...

- SEC Defensive Player of the Week
- Louisiana Defensive Player of the Week

Marcus Spears and the LSU defense held Eli Manning in check to win in Oxford.

Defense Shuts Down Ole Miss and Eli in Win

LSU's defense lived up to its billing as one of the nation's best as the Tigers shut down Eli Manning and Ole Miss in a 17-14 win over the 15th-ranked Rebels in Oxford. For the game, the Tigers held the Rebels to only 227 yards of offense and 22 points below their season average. Ole Miss' defense struck first in the contest, picking off a Matt Mauck pass on LSU's first play from scrimmage and returning it 6-yards for a TD and a 7-0 lead just one minute into the contest. LSU pulled to within 7-3 on a 45-yard field goal by Chris Jackson midway through the first quarter and then took the lead for good on a 9-yard TD pass from Mauck to Michael Clayton just before halftime. The Tigers stretched the lead to 17-7 early in the fourth quarter on a 53-yard TD pass from Mauck to Devery Henderson. Manning then directed the Rebels on a 9-play, 76-yard scoring drive culminating on a 10-yard TD pass from Brandon Jacobs to pull to within 17-14 with 10:51 left. After Ole Miss missed a 36-yard field goal that would have tied the game with 4:15 left, the Tigers went three-and-out on their next possession, turning the ball back over to the Rebels. The Tiger defense came up big again, forcing three incomplete passes by Manning before a blitz tripped up the Rebel quarterback on fourth-and-10, turning the ball back over to the Tigers with 1:50 to go. The Tigers ran the clock down to nine seconds before giving Ole Miss one more shot. Manning's desperation pass was knocked down at midfield as time expired.

Notes on the Game

- LSU won all of its regular season road games for the first time since 1997 and LSU's defense did not allow a point on the road in the first half during the regular season. Ole Miss scored on an interception return.
- Nick Saban became the second coach in LSU history to record two 10-win seasons, going 10-1 through 11 games in 2003 and 10-3 in 2001. Paul Dietzel won at least 10 games in the 1958 (11-0) and 1961 (10-1) seasons.
- LSU improved to 10-1 for the first time since 1961.
- Holding Ole Miss to 27 rushing yards in the game, LSU held an opponent to under 100 yards rushing for the 10th time in 2003.
- Matt Mauck's 9-yard touchdown pass to Michael Clayton in the second half tied both for LSU records. Clayton caught the 19th touchdown pass of his career, tying the junior with Wendell Davis. Mauck's pass was his 22nd of the season, tying the junior with Tommy Hodson (1989) for the single-season record. Mauck later broke the record with his 53-yard pass to Devery Henderson in the fourth quarter.
- Henderson's 53-yard touchdown reception was the 18th of his career and 10th of the season, moving him into a tie for third in LSU's career record book and a tie for second on the season record list.
- Mauck to Henderson's 53-yard touchdown pass in the fourth quarter also was LSU's ninth touchdown pass of the season of 40 yards or more and Henderson's fifth of the year.
- Justin Vincent's 44-yard run late in the second quarter was the freshman's longest of his career, topping his previous best of 38-yards against Mississippi State on Sept. 27.
- Corey Webster intercepted his fourth pass of the season in the third quarter. It was the junior's 11th of his career, moving him into a tie for fourth on LSU's career interceptions list.
- Chris Jackson's 45-yard field goal in the first quarter was the freshman's career long.
- The LSU Defense was named "Player of the Game" by CBS Sports.

What they said...

"This victory is for everyone in Louisiana who cares about LSU football. This is for everyone who has supported this team."
- LSU HEAD COACH NICK SABAN

"First of all, as a senior, it's really important for us to go out as winners. That was the main thing, with this game coming with such high stakes, being for the SEC West Championship. It was just a great win, a total team effort, probably the best total team effort that we've had all year as far as defense, offense and special teams. Everybody played great."
- LSU OT RODNEY REED

"We set out to get in it (SEC Champinoship Game) at the beginning of the season and we finally accomplished that. We've got one more game to make it a dream come true. I feel like we've got what it takes to win an SEC Championship, because I've won one before and it was one of the best moments of my life. That's why we go out and play hard. That's why you've got the old guys trying to get back."
- LSU WR MICHAEL CLAYTON

What they did...

- SEC Offensive Player of the Week
- The Sporting News National Player of the Week

- MATT MAUCK

Eric Alexander's fumble recovery for a TD helped seal the SEC West for the Tigers.

Tigers Clinch Berth in SEC Title Game

Justin Vincent rushed for 112 yards and a pair of touchdowns and Matt Mauck tied a school record with 4 TD passes as third-ranked LSU clinched a berth in the SEC Championship game with a 55-24 win over Arkansas. The win was LSU's 11th of the season, tying the school record set in 1958. After spotting Arkansas an early 7-0 lead, the Tigers battled back, getting a 38-yard field goal from Chris Jackson and then taking a 10-7 lead on a 25-yard fumble return for a TD by Eric Alexander. The Razorbacks tied the game at 10-10 before LSU regained the lead at 17-10 on a 10-yard pass from Mauck to Clayton, which gave him a school-record 20 TD receptions. The Hogs tied the game two plays later at 17-17 on a 20-yard TD run by Cedric Cobbs. From there, it was all LSU as the Tigers closed the half with a 17-0 run to take a 34-17 lead on a 22-yard TD pass from Mauck to Devery Henderson. The Tigers stretched the margin to 41-17 early in the third quarter on a 37-yard pass from Mauck to David Jones and then increased it once again to 48-17 on a 23-yard run by Vincent. The Tigers got their final points on a 2-yard run by Vincent to stretch the lead to 55-17 late in the third quarter.

Notes on the Game

- With an announced attendance of 92,213, it marked the second-largest crowd in Tiger Stadium history. The record of 92,251 was set earlier in the season against Georgia. It was the sixth time in LSU history (and fourth time in 2003) the attendance at Tiger Stadium exceeded 92,000.
- LSU set the single-season scoring mark with a touchdown with 14:09 left in the second quarter, scoring its 382nd point of the year and breaking the mark of 375 points set by the 1977 team. LSU finished the game with 420 season points.
- LSU set the single-season touchdown scoring mark with its second touchdown of the second quarter on a pass from Matt Mauck to Skyler Green. It was the 52nd touchdown of the year, breaking the previous record of 51 set by the 1977 team. LSU finished the game with 58 touchdowns for the season.
- Michael Clayton's 10-yard touchdown reception in the second quarter gave the junior WR the career record for touchdown catches with 20.
- For the third time this season and the third time in his career, Matt Mauck's four touchdown passes tied the school single-game record. He also tossed four TDs against Western Illinois and Louisiana Tech.
- Devery Henderson's touchdown reception in the second quarter gave him the 11th receiving touchdown of the season, moving him into a tie for LSU's single-season record. It also gave the senior the 19th touchdown of his career, moving him into a tie for second place on LSU's career list, one behind teammate Michael Clayton.
- David Jones touchdown reception in the third quarter was the first of his career.
- Corey Webster intercepted two passes, one in the second quarter and one in the third quarter, the 12th and 13th of his career, moving him into second place on LSU's career list. The two were also Webster's fifth and sixth of the season, moving him into a tie for sixth on LSU's single-season interceptions list.
- Eric Alexander recovered a fumble and ran 25 yards for a touchdown in the first quarter, the first touchdown of his career and LSU's fifth defensive touchdown of the season.
- Chris Jackson's 47-yard FG in the second quarter was the freshman's career long, besting the 45-yarder he kicked against Ole Miss.

What they said...

"There's not much to say. We just got whipped. They can beat anybody they play. I vote for them to get in (the National Championship Game)"
- GEORGIA HEAD COACH MARK RICHT

"This is the best football team I've coached in terms of special teams, team chemistry, and such. We have great people, and great people eliminate problems. This has been the most fun year I've had coaching with the fewest problems and the best individual effort and responsibility of the players."
- LSU HEAD COACH NICK SABAN

"This was a dream come true. We set out to win at the beginning of the year and we faced a lot of adversity. We stayed together, we fought all year, we put it all together tonight and brought our A-game."
- LSU WR MICHAEL CLAYTON

"There's no question -- that's probably the best defense I have faced and best defense I will face. They do some things that no other team in the country does."
- GEORGIA QB DAVID GREENE

LSU's Overwhelms Georgia to Claim SEC Title

Freshman Justin Vincent rushed for an SEC Championship game record 201 yards and two TDs and the LSU defense dominated fifth-ranked Georgia in every phase of the game in a 34-13 win over the Bulldogs. Vincent opened the scoring for the Tigers with an 87-yard run, the longest in SEC title game history, late in the first quarter for a 6-0 LSU lead. The Tigers tackled Georgia's punter in the endzone less than two minutes later for a safety and an 8-0 LSU lead. LSU stretched the margin to 14-0 on a 43-yard TD pass from Matt Mauck to Michael Clayton and then extended the lead to 17-0 on a 35-yard field goal by Ryan Gaudet. The Tigers led 17-3 at halftime. Georgia pulled to within 17-6 midway through the third quarter before LSU's Lionel Turner picked off a David Greene pass and returned it 18-yards for a TD and a 24-6 Tiger lead. Vincent added a 3-yard TD run and Gaudet a field goal for the final margin of victory. For the game, LSU's offense racked up 444 yards, including a whopping 293 on the ground. The Tigers held the Dogs to 249 yards of offense, and only 50 rushing yards.

Notes on the Game

- With the victory, LSU won its second SEC title in three years.
- The Tigers became the first team in school history to win 12 games
- LSU improved to 5-0 in the Georgia Dome and won its ninth-straight game in a domed stadium.
- Justin Vincent's 87-yard touchdown run in the first quarter was the freshman's longest run of his career, the longest run from scrimmage by an LSU player in 2003, and the third longest rushing touchdown in school history (longest since a 86-yard run by Jeff Burkett against Georgia Navy on Nov. 24, 1942).
- Vincent finished the game with a career-high 201 yards on 18 carries, his fourth 100-yard rushing game and third straight, giving him 884 yards this season and moving him into second place on the freshman rushing record list. He is also the first LSU player to rush for over 200 yards in a game since Kevin Faulk ran for 201 yards against Alabama on Nov. 3, 1998.
- With a three-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter, Vincent recorded his third two-touchdown game of the season and his career.
- Michael Clayton's 11-yard reception at the end of the first quarter extended his consecutive games with a reception streak to 39 games, every game of his career.
- Clayton's 43-yard touchdown reception in the second quarter was the junior's 10th touchdown of the season, moving him into a tie for third place on LSU's single-season receiving touchdown list. Clayton's touchdown reception also put the receiver over 1,000 yards for the season, making it the fifth 1,000 yard receiving season in school history.
- With 151 yards passing, Matt Mauck moved into second-place in single-season passing yards in LSU history.
- Alley Broussard's tackle of Georgia punter Gordon Ely-Kelso in the endzone in the first quarter was LSU's first safety since a holding call in the endzone at Kentucky on Oct. 13, 2001.
- With LaRon Landry's interception in the first quarter, LSU has intercepted at least one pass in its last five games. The Tigers' victory over Auburn on Oct. 25 was the last game without a pick.
- Lionel Turner's interception return for a touchdown in the third quarter was the junior's second interception of the season and his career. As a defense unit, LSU scored six defensive touchdowns (four interceptions returned for scores and two fumbles returned for TDs).
- Chad Lavalais recorded a tackle early in the second quarter to extend his streak of recording at least one tackle to 42 games.

"This is the best team character-wise that I've ever been associated with. I can't tell you how pleased I am that our football team can do something the entire state of Louisiana can be truly proud of."
- LSU COACH NICK SABAN

"This was the most incredible game I've ever played in. It was the most high intensity game we've ever played in. We played hard on every play and came out on top."
- LSU WIDE RECEIVER SKYLER GREEN

"We played a great team tonight in LSU. They made the plays and we didn't. We came in prepared and we didn't execute tonight. We got beat.

LSU Wins First National Title in 45 Years

Behind a suffocating defense that limited the nation's top scoring offense to only 154 yards, the Tigers claimed their second national title in football with a 21-14 win over Oklahoma in the Sugar Bowl. The victory in the BCS National Championship contest marked LSU's first national title since 1958 and also sent the Tigers, champions of the Southeastern Conference, to a final overall record of 13-1. Running back Justin Vincent earned MVP honors for the game, rushing for 117 yards and one touchdown in leading the Tigers to the victory. Vincent opened the contest with a 64-yard run on the game's first play, opening the door for what appeared to be an early LSU TD. However, quarterback Matt Mauck fumbled the snap on first-and-goal at the 1-yard line to halt the Tiger drive. The Tigers did score on their next possession, which was setup by a Corey Webster interception that gave LSU the ball at the OU 32-yard line. Three plays later, Skyler Green went 24-yards on an end-around, giving the Tigers a 7-0 advantage. The Sooners tied the game at 7-7 midway through the second quarter on a 1-yard plunge by Kejuan Jones, which was setup by a blocked punt. The Tigers led 14-7 at halftime following an 18-yard run by Vincent. LSU struck again early in the second half as Marcus Spears returned an interception 20 yards for a TD just 47 seconds into the third quarter, giving the Tigers a 21-7 advantage. A defensive struggle continued for most of the second half before the Sooners pulled to within 21-14 on another 1-yard run by Jones with just over 11 minutes left in the contest. The teams traded possessions for the next five minutes before the Sooners mounted a drive deep inside LSU territory. OU had first-and-10 at the LSU 12-yard line before the Tigers turned the Sooners away on four straight plays, including a fourth-and-10 situation with 2:52 to play. After another three-and-out for the Tigers on offense, the Sooners had one final chance. However, the Tigers held the Sooners at bay, sacking quarterback Jason White on fourth-and-10 to secure the victory and the school's first national title in football in 45 years. Defensively, linebacker Lionel Turner led LSU with nine tackles, including a pair of sacks, one of which came on the last offensive play of the game for the Sooners. In all, LSU recorded five sacks in the contest and held the Sooners to only 54 yards rushing.

Notes on the Game

- LSU won its second national title and first since the 1958 season.
- The Tigers finished the season with 13 victories, surpassing the school mark by two victories.
- LSU's Justin Vincent rushed for 117 yards to become the first freshman to win the Miller-Digby Award since Georgia's Herschel Walker in 1981. Since freshmen were once again ruled eligible to play by the NCAA in 1972, Walker and Vincent are the only freshmen to win the award.
- OT Rodney Reed (48 straight), DT Chad Lavalais (35 straight), OG Stephen Peterman (33 straight), OT Andrew Whitworth (27 straight), WR Michael Clayton (27 straight) and DE Marcus Spears (19 straight) all extended their consecutive games started streak.
- Matt Mauck capped his LSU career with an 18-2 overall mark. With 28 TD passes in 2003, Mauck set the school's single-season record.
- With 117 yards rushing, Vincent broke the LSU freshman record for single-season rushing yards with 1,001 surpassing the previous mark of 884 held by Dalton Hilliard.
- Corey Webster's first quarter interception was his seventh in 2003. It ran his career total to 14, which ranks second in LSU history.
- Marcus Spears' 20-yard return of an interception for a touchdown marked the seventh time in 2003 that the Tiger defensive scored a touchdown, which marked a school record.
- LSU's sack by Marquise Hill with 2:46 left in the second quarter was the team's 41st of the season, breaking the single-season school record of 40 set by the 1994 team. The Tigers finished the season with 44 sacks.
- LSU becomes the fourth team in the SEC championship game era (since 1992) to win national title joining Alabama (1992), Florida (1996) and Tennessee (1998).

THE 1908 PERFECT SEASON

G. Ellwood "Doc" Fenton

G. Ellwood "Doc" Fenton, nicknamed "Kandy Kid" was one of the early great players in LSU football history and a leader on the Tigers' first truly great football team that went 10-0 in 1908.

Coached by Edgar R. Wingard (below), the Tigers were dubbed the "point a minute" team as they ran up 442 points in 450 minutes of play.

Fenton's exploits, including 125 points scored, led LSU to the 1908 championship of the Southern Intercollegiate Association.

Edgar R. Wingard coached LSU to an undefeated season in 1908.

Yearly Records

The Southeastern Conference, of which LSU is a charter member, was founded in 1933. Since that time, LSU has fashioned a 241-185-22 (.563) record against the league schools. LSU was affiliated with the 22-member Southern Intercollegiate Conference (SIC) from 1923-32 and posted an 18-21-3 (.464) record during that time. Prior to 1923, the Tigers were members of the much larger Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association (SIAA) and logged a 37-38-5 (.494) record.

LSU and the No.1 Ranking

LSU spent 13 weeks as the nation's No. 1 ranked college football team according to the Associated Press during the 1958 and 1959 seasons. LSU garnered its first No. 1 AP ranking on Oct. 28, 1958 after a 10-7 victory over Florida. LSU spent the remainder of the 1958 season as the nation's No. 1 ranked team en route to claiming the national title that year.

LSU opened 1959 ranked No. 1 in the nation and held that spot for eight weeks before a 14-13 loss to No. 13 Tennessee. LSU's last No. 1 ranking came on Nov. 7, 1959.

After a 44-year absence from the top spot in the national polls, the Tigers moved to No. 1 in the ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll on Jan. 5, 2004 following their 21-14 win over Oklahoma in the BCS National title game.

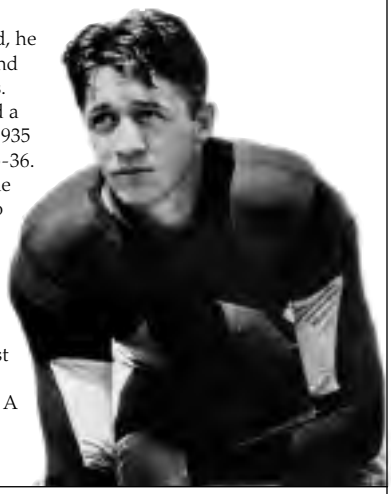
Gaynell (Gus) Tinsley

END - 1935, 1936
Associated Press (1935-36)



Playing both ways as an end, he led LSU to two SEC titles and played in three Sugar Bowls. Tigers' first All-America and a unanimous choice in both 1935 and 1936. Lettered 1934-35-36. Was All-Pro the two years he played in NFL with Chicago Cardinals. Head coach at LSU from 1948-54. Led Tigers to 8-2-0 season in 1949, including wins over champions of Southern, Southeastern and Southwest Conferences and a Sugar Bowl tilt versus Oklahoma. A charter member of the LSU Athletic Hall of Fame.

Marvin (Moose) Stewart

CENTER - 1935, 1936
Helms Foundation

Lettered for the Tigers 1934-35-36. He was selected to the Helms Foundation All-American team in 1935 and was All-Southeastern Conference by AP in 1936. He helped lead the Tigers to back-to-back SEC titles in 1935 and 1936. A charter member of the LSU Athletic Hall of Fame.

Ken Kavanaugh, Sr.

END - 1939
Associated Press

Superb athlete, also lettered in baseball and played pro baseball briefly. Scored all four TDs in 28-7 victory over Holy Cross in 1939. Lettered 1937-38-39. Two-time First Team AP All-SEC in 1938-39. Outstanding pro career with New York Giants and after active playing, continued as a scout for team. Finished seventh in the 1939 Heisman balloting. Son, Ken, Jr., lettered three years at LSU (1969-71), also as a receiver.

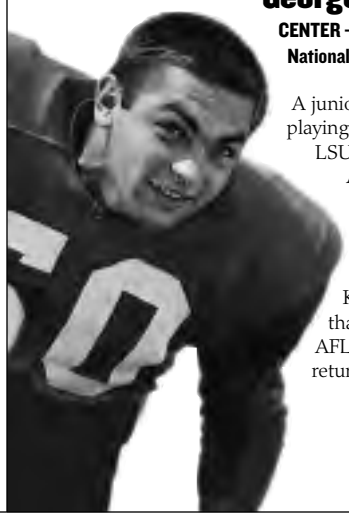
George Tarasovic

CENTER - 1951
National Editorial Alliance



A junior college transfer who, although playing and lettering only one year at LSU, was selected to both All-America and All-SEC status. An all-around athlete in high school, Tarasovic's college career was abbreviated because of military service during the Korean War. His ability was such that he played in the NFL and the AFL for over a dozen years after returning from the service.

Sid Fournet

TACKLE - 1954
Associated Press, UPI, Look, Football Writers Association of America, National Editorial Alliance, Williamson, INS

Extremely durable performer, played both guard and tackle and both ways. In 1954 was in action over 83 percent of playing time for season. He was a two-time first team All-SEC selection by both AP and UPI in 1953 and 1954.

Jimmy Taylor

FULLBACK - 1957
Football Writers Association of America-Look

As complete a football player ever to play the game. He was named most valuable player in the 1958 Senior Bowl. His pro career is legendary with the Green Bay Packers and he was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1976. Played with the Packers from 1958-66, then with the New Orleans Saints in 1967. A member of the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame and the LSU Athletic Hall of Fame.

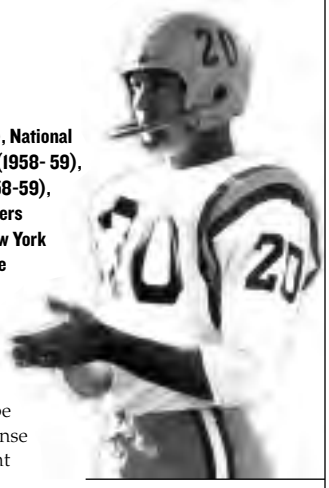
Billy Cannon

HALFBACK - 1958, 1959
1959 Heisman Trophy
Associated Press (1958-59), UPI (1958-59), National Editorial Alliance (1958-59), Central Press (1958- 59), American Football Coaches Association (1958-59), The Sporting News (1958-59), Football Writers Association of America-Look (1958-59), New York Daily News (1958-59), NBC (1958-59), Time (1958), Leahy (1958), Hearst (1959).



The greatest football player ever to don the Purple and Gold and was the 1959 Heisman Trophy winner. Won virtually every honor which can be given. Was almost as valuable on defense as he was on offense. His 89-yard punt return in 1959 against Ole Miss has become a gridiron legend, but few remember that he and Warren Rabb stuffed Ole Miss at the goal line of a fourth and inches to preserve the dramatic 7-3 victory. Lettered 1957-58-59. First Team All-SEC 1958 and 1959.

Max Fugler

CENTER - 1958
Football Writers Association of America-Look, NBC

Bulwark of White Team which in 1958 won the National Championship. Outstanding blocker on offense and incomparable down lineman on defense. His defensive work was exemplified by the number of goal line and fourth down stands the Tigers had during those glory years of 1958 and 1959. First Team All-SEC by UPI in 1958.

Roy (Moonie) Winston

GUARD - 1961
Associated Press, UPI, National Editorial Alliance, Central Press, Football Writers Association of America Look, Kodak/American Football Coaches Association, New York Daily News, The Sporting News, Time

Elected by teammates as 1961 captain. Played both ways, but excelled on defense with a strong initial charge, plus speed and agility. Soft-spoken, Wintston showed by example and was a born leader. First Team All-SEC in 1961 by AP and UPI. Also, played on LSU SEC champion baseball team in early 1960's. Had brilliant NFL career with Minnesota.

Fred Miller

TACKLE - 1962

A stellar lineman for the great LSU teams of the early 1960s, Miller originally signed with Tulane after finishing at Homer High School, but he found out he was one English credit short, so he was bound for Texas A&M until Paul Dietzel sold his family on LSU. He played alongside Moonie Winston in 1961 and was a blocker for Heisman runner-up Jerry Stovall in 1962. In his three seasons, LSU played in two bowls, including the Orange (25-7 over Colorado) and Cotton (13-0 over Texas). He was drafted by the Colts and later earned All-Pro honors. Member of LSU's Modern Day Team of the Century.

Jerry Stovall

HALFBACK - 1962
Associated Press, UPI, National Editorial Alliance, Central Press, Football Writers Association of America Look, Kodak/American Football Coaches Association, New York Daily News, The Sporting News, Time, CBS

Ironically, Stovall was the last recruit signed by LSU after he graduated from high school. Was runner-up in the running for the 1962 Heisman Trophy. First Team All-SEC in 1961 by UPI and in 1962 by both AP and UPI. Played nine seasons with the St. Louis Cardinals before becoming assistant coach at South Carolina. Returned to LSU as assistant coach and was named head coach after tragic death of Bo Rein in 1980. Took LSU to 1983 Orange Bowl and was named National Coach of the Year by the Walter Camp Football Foundation after the 1982 season.

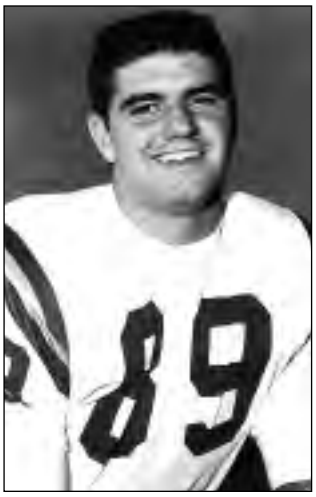
Football News



He was an excellent blocker, but LSU's offense in that era was geared to the run and, consequently, his talents as a pass receiver were never exploited. He went on to an illustrious NFL career. First Team All SEC by UPI in 1963. Son, Chris, was an offensive lineman at LSU from 1988-91.

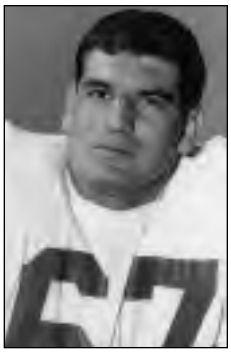
Remi Prudhomme

TACKLE - 1964
National Editorial Alliance, New York Daily News, Football News



A stalwart of the Chinese Bandits, Remi was an unusually strong player. His size and weight made him unique and his aggressive temperament fitted him ideally for the role in which he was cast. First Team All SEC by UPI in 1964. Went on to a brilliant pro career with the Buffalo Bills, Kansas City Chiefs and New Orleans Saints.

Doug Moreau

SPLIT END - 1965
Football News

Moreau's pass-catching ability was heralded, but his place kicking had to be recognized. In his junior season, his talented toe was responsible for the first two victories of the year, 9-6 over the Texas Aggies and 3-0 over Rice. First Team All-SEC by AP in 1964. Moreau went on to play professional ball with the Miami Dolphins, but earned a law degree and served as a district judge in Baton Rouge. He currently serves as District Attorney.

George Rice

TACKLE - 1965
Time, The Sporting News

Local lad whose prowess in high school overlapped three sports: football, basketball, and track. Extremely powerful, his specialty at track was the shot put. A devastating blocker and tackler, Rice was another of those who played in three bowl games during his varsity career. First Team All-SEC by UPI in 1964. He was a participant in the Hula Bowl and had a long and successful career in the NFL and then returned to LSU as a graduate assistant.

John Garlington

END - 1967
Kodak/American Football Coaches Association

Incredible athlete whose talents typified his play and teamwork. Had excellent speed and lateral pursuit. Opponents were timid when it came to attacking his side of the defensive line. Even with his size, he was a speed merchant. In the 1966 Rice encounter, John picked off an errant pass and returned it 42 yards for a touchdown. First Team All-SEC in 1966 by AP and in 1967 by both AP and UPI.

George Bevan

Football Writers Association of America-Look, Kodak/American Football Coaches Association

Possibly the finest all-around linebacker ever to play at LSU. His size had absolutely nothing to do with his desire, competitiveness, leadership and commitment. In the first game of his junior year, he injured his Achilles tendon to such an extent that he underwent several surgeries and spent 32 months on crutches. There was little hope he would ever play football again, but by the summer of 1969, his determination had earned him a starting role. Although he had many notable moments, his blocked extra point against Auburn in the classic 21-20 victory by LSU had to be his crowning achievement. First Team All-SEC by AP and UPI in 1969. He earned his law degree and is an attorney in Baton Rouge.

Tommy Casanova

Associated Press (1969-70), Kodak/American Football Coaches Association (1969-70), UPI (1971), Central Press (1971), Football Writers Association of America (1971), Walter Camp (1971), Football News (1971), Time (1971)

Versatility personified might be the best description of the myriad talents of Tommy Casanova. During his three year LSU career, he played offense and defense, returned punts and kickoffs and did everything except handle the water cart. A fearless competitor, he led the team by example through three brilliant seasons and entered immortality as a result of his actions, both on and off the field. One of just two three time All-SEC performers from LSU, 1969-70-71. Played several seasons with the Cincinnati Bengals while pursuing his medical degree. Now is an ophthalmologist in his home town.

Mike Anderson

LINEBACKER - 1970
Associated Press, UPI, Central Press, Football Writers Association of America-Look, Kodak/American Football Coaches Association, Football News, Time

Started every game during his three years as an LSU linebacker. In fact, he was the second of three straight All-America backers produced by LSU: George Bevan in 1969; Anderson in 1970; and Warren Capone in 1973. Mike was noted for one great play: Auburn there in 1970, LSU leading 17-9, the Plainsmen had the ball, fourth and one inch and 6'2", 225-pound fullback Wallace Clark drove for the TD. Anderson met him head-on short of pay dirt and his feat became that of which legends are made. First Team All-SEC by AP and UPI in 1970.

Ronnie Estay

TACKLE - 1971
Kodak/American Football Coaches Association

One of the quickest defensive linemen ever to play at LSU, Ronnie, a true Cajun, anchored the defense which allowed fewest yards in the nation. During his junior year, he tackled both quarterbacks Pat Sullivan of Auburn and Archie Manning of Ole Miss for safeties. First Team All-SEC by AP and UPI in 1971.

Bert Jones

UPI, National Editorial Alliance, Kodak/American Football Coaches Association, Time, The Sporting News

Fourth place in the balloting for the 1972 Heisman Trophy. As strong an arm as any quarterback in college history. LSU played in three bowl games during his career and won a SEC title his sophomore year. Tigers compiled a 26-6-1 mark during his career. Started only two games prior to the next-to-last game of junior season, but started every one after that. Most notable feats were against Notre Dame, 1971 (28-8), and versus Ole Miss in 1972 when, with time expired, he threw a touchdown pass to Brad Davis for the 17-16 LSU victory. First Team All-SEC by UPI in 1972. First pick in 1973 NFL draft by Baltimore Colts.

Warren Capone

LINEBACKER - 1972, 1973
Football Writers Association of America (1972-73), Kodak/American Football Coaches Association (1973)

Another of the long line of Baton Rouge natives who starred at LSU. Capone played in the Sun, Bluebonnet and Orange Bowls during his years as a starting linebacker. First Team All-SEC by AP in 1972 and by both AP and UPI in 1973. Played for Birmingham in the World Football League and the Dallas Cowboys in the Super Bowl. Past president of the National "L" Club.

Tyler Lafauci

GUARD - 1973
Associated Press, National Editorial Alliance, Walter Camp

During LaFauci's three year career, LSU compiled a 27-8-1 mark, participated in three bowl games, winning one and losing two: Sun, Bluebonnet and Orange. His lack of height didn't inhibit his determination and competitiveness as he excelled both as a pass blocker and a pulling blocker. First Team All-SEC by AP and UPI in 1973. A brilliant student, Tyler went on to postgraduate work and earned a physical therapist degree, a profession he practices in Baton Rouge.

Mike Williams

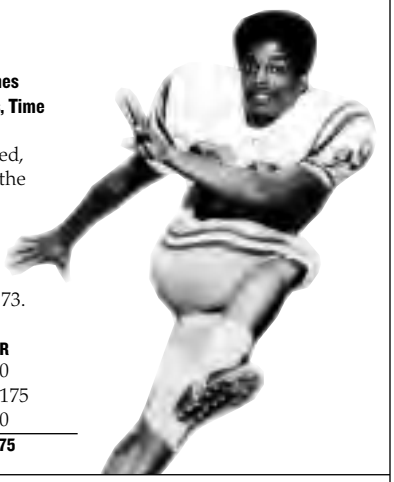
Kodak/American Football Coaches Association, The Sporting News, Time



Feisty, aggressive, determined, unyielding; these might be the adjectives to describe best the play of Mike Williams. Named Sports Illustrated Back-of-the-Week for his play against Kentucky in 1973.

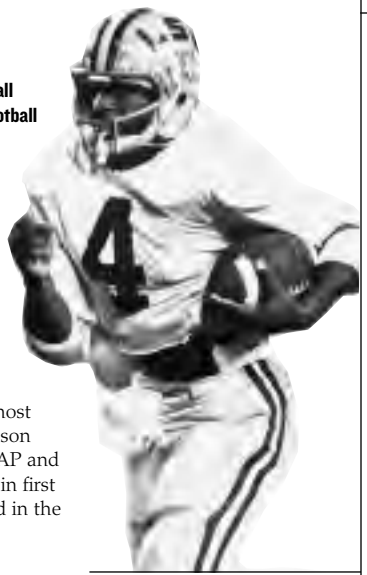
UPI (1977), Kodak/American Football Coaches Association (1977-78), Football Writers Association of America (1977-78), Walter Camp (1977-78), The Sporting News (1978), National Editorial Alliance (1978)



During career set nine SEC records, tied one and set 27 LSU marks. In two bowl games, rushed for 330 yards. Still holds records for most rushes in a game (43), most yards in a season (1686), and most yards gained per game in a season (153.3). First Team All-SEC by AP and UPI in 1977 and 1978. Drafted in first round by Cincinnati and played in the Super Bowl.

Robert Dugas

Football News

Suffice it to say, Robert's academic prowess surpassed his athletic ability which was considerable. He was a member of the self-named "Root Hogs" which cleared the way for many of Charles Alexander's record setting performances. Named to the CoSIDA Academic All-America Team in 1977. First Team All-SEC in 1977 and 1978 by both AP and UPI.

James Britt

National Editorial Alliance

After three seasons, he appeared ready to blossom. But in the second game of the 1981 season against Notre Dame, he intercepted a pass to set up a field goal, and a few minutes later, a broken arm ended his year. He went on to have an outstanding senior season in 1982. He was a second round pick by the Atlanta Falcons and played several years with them before entering a successful business career in the Georgia capital. Named Academic All-America by CoSIDA in 1982. First Team All-SEC by AP in 1982.

Eric Martin

SPLIT END - 1983
The Sporting News

A converted running back, Eric compiled a brilliant record during his four years in varsity competition. At one time he was the school leader in season (52) and career (105) receptions, yards in a single game (209) and most yards in a season. He is second only to former teammate Wendell Davis in the most career yards receiving in the SEC. As a freshman he was second in the nation in kickoff returns, including a 100-yarder for a touchdown against Kentucky. First Team All-SEC in 1983 by AP and 1984 by UPI.

Lance Smith

OFFENSIVE TACKLE - 1984
UPI, Kodak/American Football Coaches Association, Football News

His size and quickness ideally suited him and he was named to the SEC All-Freshman team. Lance matured both physically and emotionally during his first two years at Tigertown and was strong as a bull by the time he became a junior. First Team All-SEC by AP and UPI in 1984. A third round choice of the Phoenix, he quickly earned a starting role with the Cardinals.

Michael Brooks

Associated Press, Scripps-Howard News Service

Michael Brooks had stepped in from the very first game and showed his potential. It was such that he was selected as an All-America as a junior and would have been a cinch to become one of the few two-time All America's in LSU history. But fate intervened and a knee injury in the Florida game sidelined him for the remainder of the season. First Team All-SEC in 1985 by AP, UPI and SEC Coaches. The Denver Broncos drafted him in the third round.

Wendell Davis

Football Writers Association of America (1986-87), The Sporting News (1986-87), Washington Post (1986), College and Pro Football Newsweekly (1986), UPI (1987), Kodak/American Football Coaches Association (1987), Football News (1987), Scripps-Howard News Service (1987)

One of the most prolific receivers in LSU history. Had 100 or more receiving yards in 12 games during career. Finished his career with a then SEC record 2,708 yards receiving. Currently ranks second in LSU history and sixth in SEC history in career receiving yards. Also ranks among the top 10 in the SEC history in single season receiving yards (1,244), single season receptions (80), and career receptions (183). First Team All-SEC by AP, UPI and SEC Coaches in 1987 and 1988. Drafted by the Chicago Bears.

Associated Press, UPI, Walter Camp, Kodak/American Football Coaches Association, Football Writers Association of America, The Sporting News, Football News, Scripps-Howard News Service

Squad's most decorated player in 1987. Along with guard Eric Andolsek, comprised LSU's "A" team which anchored the fearsome Tiger offensive line and helped pave the way to the school record total offense mark of 4,843 yards. A quality student, he was the 1987 Toyota Leader of the Year. Also, was one of 11 recipients of a 1987 National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Scholar Athlete awards. Named Academic All-America by CoSIDA twice, 1986 and 1987. A member of Omicron Delta Kappa leadership fraternity, maintained a near 3.5 GPA in pre-med/zoology and attended LSU Medical School. First Team All-SEC by AP, UPI and SEC Coaches in 1987.

Greg Jackson

Gannett News Service

Tied NCAA record with 100-yard interception return vs. Mississippi State, also had 71-yard interception return for a TD vs. Tulane. Led the nation in that category in 1988. That 219 yards exceeded in SEC history only once by Mississippi's Joe Brodsky's 244 yards in 1956. Also returned punts for LSU with 11 for 99 yards in '88. First Team All-SEC by AP and SEC Coaches in 1988. Drafted by the New York Giants.

David LaFleur

TIGHT END - 1996

Walter Camp Foundation

An imposing figure who was both a punishing blocker and a fine pass catcher. Helped lead resurgence of LSU football in the 1990s, leading the Tigers in receptions his senior year. A native of Westlake, La., LaFleur was named All-SEC his sophomore and senior seasons. He finished his career with 71 catches for 881 yards and five touchdowns, but he was also instrumental in LSU's place as the top rushing team in the SEC in 1996 because of his blocking abilities. Following his graduation from LSU, he was chosen in the first round of the NFL draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

Kevin Faulk

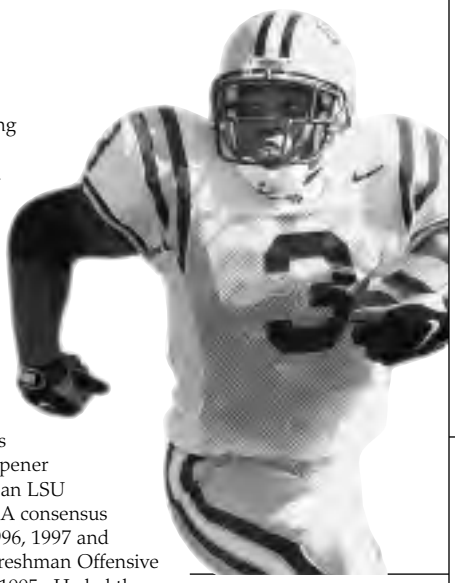
Associated Press



LSU's all-time leading rusher and a three-time All-SEC choice. Led the SEC in all-purpose yards and ranked No. 2 in the league in rushing his sophomore season as he was named All-America by the Associated Press as an all-purpose player. His 246 yards in the 1996 season opener against Houston set an LSU single game record. A consensus All-SEC choice in 1996, 1997 and 1998, and the SEC Freshman Offensive Player of the Year in 1995. He led the SEC in rushing in each of his junior and senior seasons and topped the league in scoring as a senior. He was selected by the New England Patriots in the 1999 NFL draft. A member of the 2002 and 2004 Super Bowl Champion New England Patriots.

Alan Faneca

Associated Press, Football Writers Association of America, Walter Camp Foundation, The Football News, The Sporting News

A dominating run blocker, Faneca was the first Outland Trophy finalist in LSU history and LSU's first winner of the Jacobs Trophy (given to the best blocker in the SEC) since 1978. Faneca anchored a heralded offensive line that helped pace LSU in leading the SEC in rushing for two straight years, 1996 and 1997. Following his junior season, Faneca chose to enter the NFL draft and he was selected in the first round by the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Chad Kessler

Associated Press, American Football Coaches Association, The Football News, Walter Camp Foundation, The Sporting News

Chad Kessler became the first player in college football history to average over 50.0 yards per punt for an entire season. Was an All-SEC choice his sophomore season and, after an average junior year, he exploded onto the national scene as the country's top punter. An excellent student, he finished his career with a GPA of 3.91 as he was also named First Team Academic All-America. He signed a free agent contract with Tampa Bay out of LSU, then decided to pursue a career in medicine.

Todd McClure

CENTER - 1998
American Football Coaches Association

All-American center and two-time All-SEC selection, Todd McClure also served as offensive team captain his senior year. The Tigers' starting center beginning midway through his freshman year, LSU was 25-12 with McClure as a starter. Played an integral role in LSU's leadership in team rushing in 1996 and 1997. Selected by the Atlanta Falcons in the 1999 NFL Draft.

Anthony McFarland

Associated Press, The Football News

One of LSU's most outstanding and colorful linemen in 1998. Was a four-year starter for LSU and a defensive co-captain his senior year. Finished No. 6 in LSU history in quarterback sacks with 17. Was First Team All-SEC his senior season, Second Team All-SEC as a sophomore and the Defensive MVP in the 1996 Peach Bowl. The SEC Freshman Co-Defensive Player of the Year in 1995. McFarland became a fan favorite for his two-way play in his true freshman season.

Josh Reed

WIDE RECEIVER – 2001
Walter Camp, Associated Press, Football Writer's Association, American Football Coaches Association, The Sporting News, ABC Sports online, CNNSI.com

Josh Reed re-wrote both the LSU and Southeastern Conference record books in 2001 as he caught a school record 94 passes for an SEC record 1,740 yards on his way to becoming a consensus First-Team All-America selection. Reed led the nation in both receiving yards and yards per game (145.0.). Reed, who also won the Biletnikoff Award as a junior in 2001, wrapped up his collegiate career as the SEC's all-time leader in receiving yards with 3,001 yards on 167 receptions. In his final game in an LSU uniform, Reed set Sugar Bowl records with 14 receptions for 239 yards and a pair of touchdowns in the Tigers' 47-34 victory over Illinois. Reed capped his career by setting 17 school, SEC or Sugar Bowl records as a junior.

Stephen Peterman

Sports Illustrated.com, ESPN.com, The Sporting News

One of the nation's top offensive linemen, Stephen Peterman put the finishing touches on his LSU career by being selected First Team All-America by three publications - Sports Illustrated.com, ESPN.com and The Sporting News. A three-year starter on the Tiger offensive line, Peterman capped his career by playing in 48 games, which included 29 starts. In a season that culminated with LSU winning the national title, Peterman allowed only one sack while being whistled for just nine penalties in all of 2003. Peterman led the Tigers with 133 knockdowns and 24 pancakes in 950 snaps from scrimmage as the Tigers captured their first national title in football since 1958. Peterman was selected in the third round of the 2004 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

Chad Lavalais

Walter Camp, Associated Press, Football Writer's of Association of America, Sports Illustrated.com, ESPN.com, The Sporting News

The anchor on the LSU defense, Chad Lavalais put together one of the most dominating seasons for an interior defensive lineman in school history, helping lead the Tigers to the 2003 BCS National Championship with a 21-14 win over Oklahoma. Lavalais, a finalist for both the Nagurski and Outland Awards, earned First Team All-America honors from six publications, while also being named the SEC's Defensive Player of the Year by the league's coaches. Lavalais also earned National Defensive Player of the Year honors from the Sporting News after leading a LSU defense that ranked first in the country in scoring (11.6 points per game) and total defense (252.0 yards per game). In 14 games, Lavalais recorded 61 tackles, with 16 of those going for 85-yards in losses. He also finished with seven sacks and 23 quarterback hurries. Lavalais was selected in the fifth round of the 2004 NFL Draft by the Atlanta Falcons.

CORNERBACK - 2003

American Football Coaches Assocation

One of the nation's top cover corners, Corey Webster became the first Tiger defensive back to earn First Team All-America honors since 1988 by being selected to the squad by the American Football Coaches Association. As LSU's starting cornerback in 14 games in 2003, Webster ranked second in the SEC with seven interceptions, including one against Oklahoma in the national championship contest and two against Arkansas as the Tigers clinched the SEC Western Division title. Webster, who ranks second in LSU history with 14 career interceptions, added 46 tackles and 25 pass breakups for the Tigers in 2003.

RETURN SPECIALIST - 2003

Sports Illustrated.com, ESPN.com

The first punt Skyler Green returned in college resulted in a 62-yard touchdown against Arizona in week two of the 2003 season. By the end of the 2003 season, team's had learned to punt away from Green, however, he still managed to lead the nation in punt returns with an 18.5 average on his way to earning First Team All-America honors from both Sports Illustrated.com and ESPN.com. Green, who ranked third on the LSU squad in receptions and receiving yards, finished with 462 yards on 25 punt returns. The 462 yards ranks as the fourth-highest single-season total in school history.

PERCY E. ROBERTS AWARD

Presented to the athletes selected as the most valuable players (offensive and defensive). Named for the late Percy E. Roberts, a longtime member of the LSU Board of Supervisors, who was a loyal supporter of the University and its athletic program. Roberts, who operated an insurance agency in Baton Rouge, began the award in 1927 and presented each year's MVP with a wristwatch, in recognition of the athlete's accomplishments. In 1965, the award was split to include an offensive and a defensive player. Wristwatches are still presented each year to the offensive and defensive most valuable players.

Teams of the Century

Abe Mickal

As part of the commemoration of the first 100 years of LSU football in 1993, two teams were selected to represent the greatest players in the history of the Tiger gridiron.

The Early Years Team of the Century represents the best players from 1893, the first year of LSU football, until 1936, generally considered the advent of modern day college football. The Early Years Team of the Century was selected by an 11-man panel of former and current sports journalists and others close to the LSU football program.

The Modern Day Team of the Century was selected through a state wide balloting of fans. The ballots were distributed by direct mail and through newspapers across the state. Any LSU player from 1937 to 1992 who earned All-America, First or Second Team All-SEC, LSU Sports Hall of Fame or Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame honors was named to the ballot. A total of 163 players were listed on the ballot.

The Modern Day Team is comprised of 12 offensive players, 12 defensive players, a kicker and a punter for a total of 26 team members. The squad was originally slated to include 24 players, but ties were declared in the running back and linebacker categories.

History

2003 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

THE rich history of LSU football is impossible to portray in only a few pages. However, below are tidbits from Tiger football annals that have contributed to the story that is LSU Football. These items are presented as background material with the hope that they will encourage a better understanding of the many traditions that are associated with Tiger athletics.

Special thanks to Peter Finney of the New Orleans Times-Picayune who has documented the history of LSU football in his book Fighting Tigers, Marty Mule' of the New Orleans Times-Picayune who penned Eye of the Tiger in celebration of LSU's football centennial in 1993, and to the late historian H. Warren Taylor whose relentless pursuit of accurate information and record-keeping in the early years of LSU athletics has kept alive the accomplishments of Tiger athletes in football, basketball, track, and boxing dating back to the late 1800s.

NICKNAME: FIGHTING TIGERS

In the fall of 1896, coach A.W. Jeardeau's LSU football team posted a perfect 6-0-0 record, and it was in that pigskin campaign that LSU first adopted its nickname, Tigers. "Tigers" seemed a logical choice since most collegiate teams in that year bore the names of ferocious animals, but the underlying reason why LSU chose "Tigers" dates back to the Civil War. During the "War Between the States," a battalion of Confederate soldiers comprised of New Orleans Zouaves and Donaldsonville Cannoneers distinguished themselves at the Battle of Shenandoah. These Louisiana rebels had been known by their contemporaries as the fighting band of Louisiana Tigers. Thus, when LSU football teams entered the gridiron battlefields in their fourth year of intercollegiate competition, they tagged themselves as the "Tigers." The 1955 LSU "fourth-quarter ball club" helped the moniker "Tigers" grow into the nickname, "Fighting Tigers."

COLORS: PURPLE AND GOLD

There is some discrepancy in the origin of Royal Purple and Old Gold as LSU's official colors. It is believed that those colors were worn for the first time by an LSU team in the spring of 1893 when the LSU baseball squad beat Tulane in the first intercollegiate contest played in any sport by Louisiana State University. Team captain E.B. Young reportedly hand-picked those colors for the LSU squad. Later that year, the first football game was played. On Nov. 25, 1893, football coach/chemistry professor Dr. Charles Coates and some of his players went into town to purchase ribbon to adorn their gray jerseys as they prepared to play the first LSU gridiron game. Stores were stocking ribbons in the colors of Mardi Gras -purple, gold, and green - for the coming Carnival season. However, none of the green had yet arrived at Reymond's Store at the corner of Third and Main streets. Coates and quarterback Ruffin Pleasant bought up all of the purple and gold stock and made it into rosettes and badges.

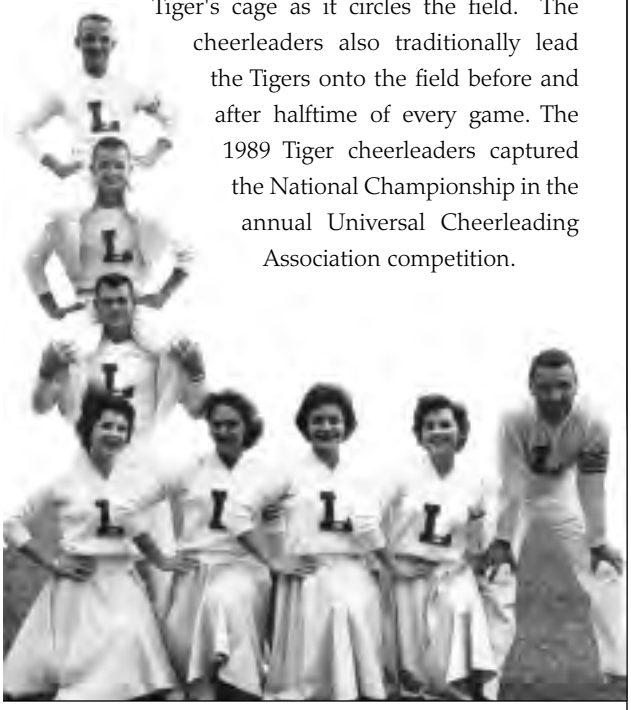
CHEERLEADERS

Cheerleaders have long been a part of college football tradition, and the LSU Varsity Cheerleaders are no exception in their role in Tiger gridiron lore. Pregame ceremonies feature the LSU cheerleaders atop Mike the Tiger's cage as it circles the field. The cheerleaders also traditionally lead the Tigers onto the field before and after halftime of every game. The 1989 Tiger cheerleaders captured the National Championship in the annual Universal Cheerleading Association competition.



TIGERS INVADE CUBA

LSU was the first college team to play on foreign soil when, in 1907, coach Edgar R. Wingard took his Tigers to Havana for an international gridiron bout. The University of Havana team had dominated every American service team it had played, but had never encountered football collegiate style. The finesse of the Tigers took the big Cuban team by surprise on Christmas Day at Almendares Park and LSU walked away with a convincing 56-0 victory before 10,000 fans.

1908 TIGERS

PERFECT SEASONS (1895, 1896, 1898, 1905, 1908, 1958)

LSU has had six unblemished seasons in its history. The Tigers first went undefeated and untied in 1895 under head coach A. P. Simmons with a 3-0 record, but the first truly great LSU team is considered to be the 1908 squad led by one of the most legendary players to wear the Purple and Gold--Doc Fenton. That 1908 team, coached by Edgar R. Wingard, soared through a 10-game schedule without a loss or tie as Fenton scored an incredible 125 points on the year. It was 50 years before LSU would post another perfect season, winning the national championship in 1958 with an 11-0 mark.

The Kingfish, Huey P. long

KINGFISH

No single person can be credited for building LSU football into the entity it is today, but one of the men who most influenced the popularity of Tiger football was neither a player nor a coach. The "Kingfish," Louisiana Governor Huey P. Long, never shied from using his political influence to aid the cause of LSU football. Two examples: In 1934, athletic director T.P. Heard reported low advance sales for the LSU-SMU game because of a circus coming to town the night of the game. Long contacted the proper Barnum and Bailey representatives and informed them of a near-forgotten animal-dipping law. The show was canceled and LSU-SMU ticket sales took off. Later that same year Long used his influence to "entice" passenger agents of the Illinois Central Railroad to lower fares for LSU students traveling to a road football game. When Long threatened to reassess the value of railroad bridges in the state from $100,000 to $4 million, the railroad generously agreed to give LSU students a $6 roundtrip fare for the Vanderbilt game that season.

Stadium Dormitories

DORMITORIES

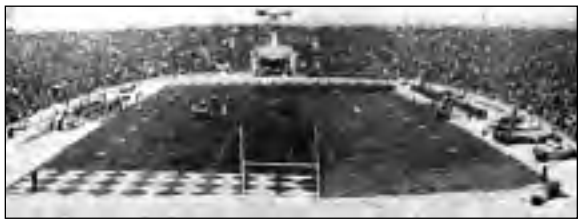
Tiger Stadium is unique in that it once housed some 1,500 dorm rooms, home to many LSU students over the years. This concept was introduced in 1928 by T.P. "Skipper" Heard, who can also be credited for bringing night football to Tiger Stadium. Heard learned that LSU president James Smith proposed to use $250,000 to build new dormitories on the LSU campus. Heard sold Smith on the idea of raising the stands on both the East and West sides of the stadium and extending them to the end zones, then constructing the dorms inside the stadium. Thus the University got its dorms and Tiger Stadium's capacity increased by 10,000 seats in 1931.

OLE WAR SKULE

LSU began in 1860 as the Louisiana State Seminary of Learning and Military Academy, shortly before the beginning of the Civil War. In fact, LSU's first superintendent was Civil War commander William Tecumseh Sherman. "Ole War Skule" was formerly a popular reference to LSU, as was the term "Old Lou."

1931 NIGHT FALLS ON TIGER STADIUM

The tradition of playing night games in Tiger Stadium began on Oct. 3, 1931, when LSU downed Spring Hill, 35-0, under the lights. The idea of night football was introduced by T.P. "Skipper" Heard, then graduate manager of athletics and later athletic director. Several reasons were cited for playing LSU games at night, including avoiding the heat and humidity of afternoon games, avoiding scheduling conflicts with Tulane and Loyola, giving more fans the opportunity to see the Tigers play. An immediate increase in attendance was noted, and night football soon became ingrained in LSU football lore. LSU has also traditionally played better at night than in the light of day. Since 1960, LSU is 187-62-4 (.747) under the lights of Tiger Stadium and only 16-21-3 (.438) during the day at home.



1946 TIGERS BATTLE HOGS IN "ICE BOWL"

The Tigers of 1946, though not one of Bernie Moore's two SEC championship teams, was surely one of Moore's finest squads. Only a 26-7 loss at the hands of SEC foe Georgia Tech spoiled the season and the Y.A. Tittle-led Bayou Bengals landed in the Cotton Bowl against Arkansas and star Razorback Smackover Scott. But ice, sleet and snow pelted Dallas on that Jan. 1 as LSU filled oil drums with charcoal and started fires for makeshift heaters on the field. Fans built fires in the stands and watched the Tigers roll to 271-54 advantage in total yardage and a 15-1 lead in first downs. Those numbers, however, didn't equate on the scoreboard that showed 0-0 at game's end. The Tigers finished the season with a 9-1-1 record in Moore's penultimate season as head coach.

NUMBERING SYSTEM

LSU, in 1952, introduced a unique - and short-lived - jersey numbering system. The idea of coach Gaynell "Gus" Tinsley and publicity director Jim Corbett, the system utilized an abbreviation of the player's position on his jersey. Thus, ends, guards and tackles wore the letters "E", "G" and "T" followed by a single-digit number. The right side of the line wore even numbers, the left side odd numbers. In similar fashion the centers, quarterbacks, left halfbacks, right halfbacks and fullbacks wore"C", "Q", "L", "R" and "F", respectively, followed by single-digit numerals. The 1953 LSU yearbook, the Gumbo, boldly predicted that the new system "may revolutionize the football jersey manufacturing industry." It didn't.

1958 CHINESE BANDITS

The nickname of one of the three units utilized in Paul Dietzel's three-platoon system that vaulted the Tigers to the 1958 national championship. That year, the first team was named the White Team, an offensive unit was named the Go Team and a defensive unit was tabbed the Chinese Bandits. The White Team, naturally, wore white jerseys and was so named. The Go Team wore gold jerseys as the word "gold" was eventually shortened to "go." The name "Chinese Bandits" actually originated when Dietzel recalled a line from the old "Terry and The Pirates" comic strip that referred to Chinese Bandits as the "most vicious people in the world." In their heyday, the Chinese Bandits were featured in Chinese masks in Life magazine. In 1980 the LSU band revived the "Bandit" tune played when the LSU defense stalls any opponent's drive.

SOUTH END ZONE

Whether it be the 1959 goal line stand that sealed victory for the Tigers against Ole Miss on the "Billy Cannon Run" night or Bert Jones' pass to Brad Davis as time expired to beat the Rebels in 1972, the south end zone of Tiger Stadium has become somewhat of an enigma for the sometimes strange and often memorable plays in LSU football. In the past 18 years alone, the Tiger defenders have put together eight goal line stands at the south end zone, including the following games: 1985 Colorado State, 1985 Florida, 1986 North Carolina, 1986 Notre Dame, 1988 Texas A&M, 1991 Florida State, 1992 Miss. State and 1996 Vanderbilt. In 1988, the Tigers stymied the Texas Aggies at the LSU 2-yard line despite the distraction of a bank of lights going dark midway through A&M's series of plays. For that series, LSU's defense was nicknamed the "Lights Out Defense." The first great goal line stand at that end of the field may have been in that 1959 game when Warren Rabb and Billy Cannon halted Ole Miss' Doug Elmore at the one-yard line for the 7-3 victory. Then, in 1971, the first and most memorable of LSU's three goal line stands against Notre Dame was at the one-yard line at the South end of the field as Louis Cascio and Ronnie Estay hit the Irish's Andy Huff at the goal en route to a 28-8 Tiger victory.

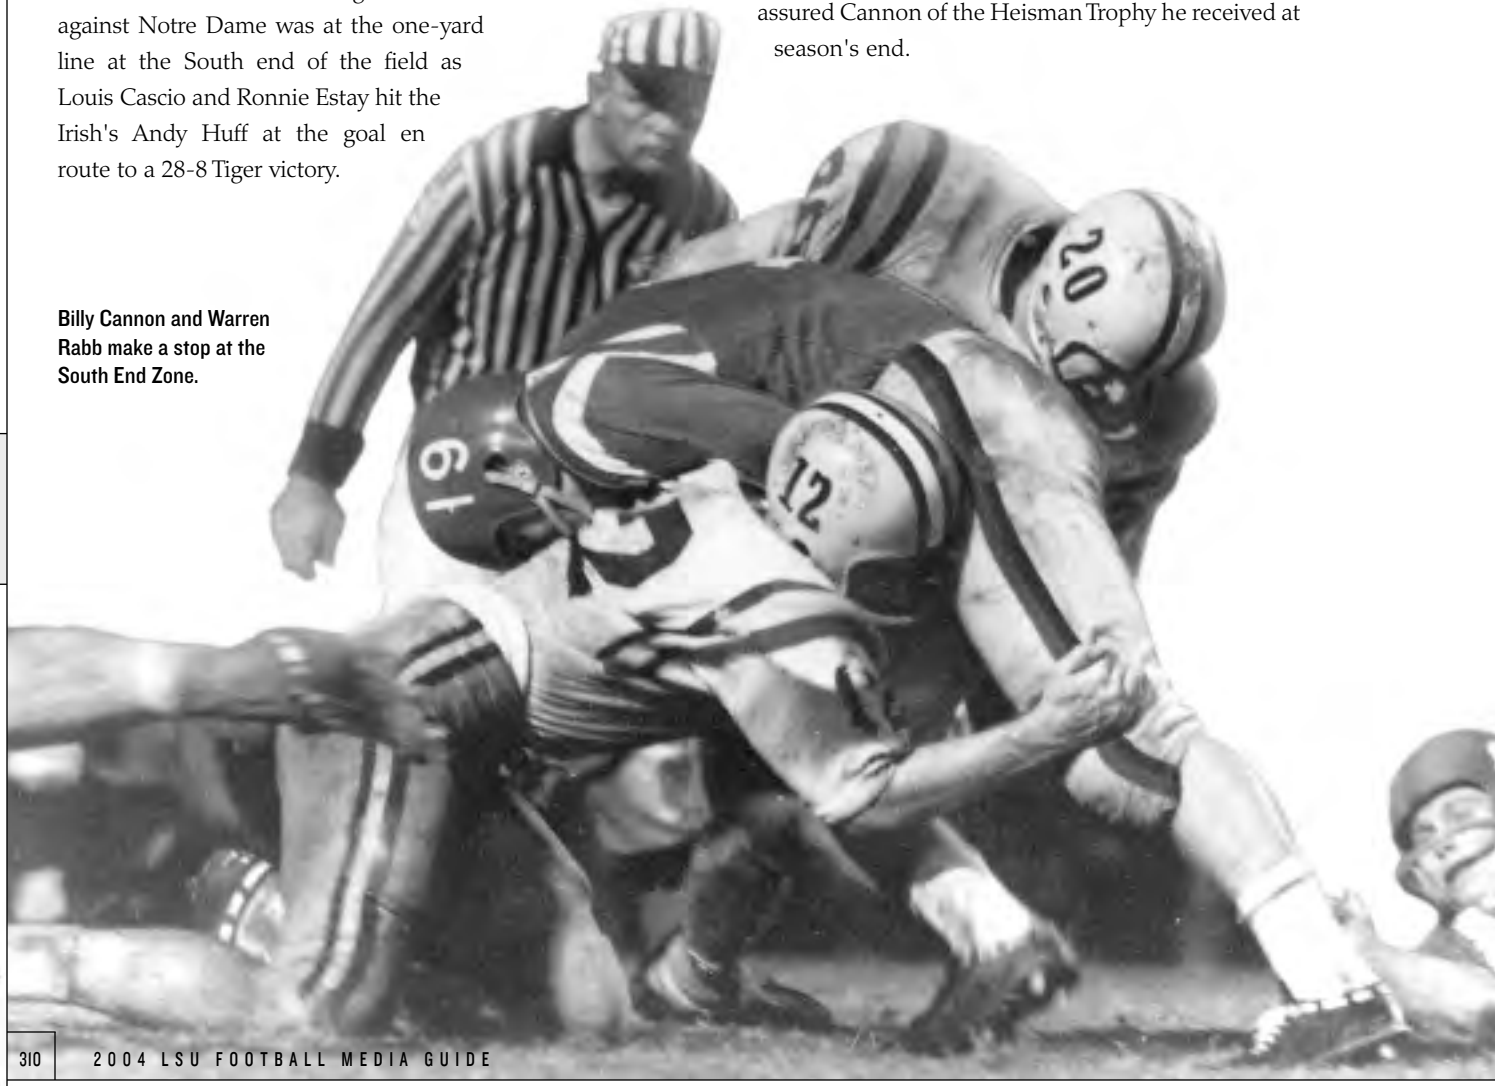
89 YARDS

There have been longer scoring plays in LSU football history, but Billy Cannon's 89-yard punt return against Ole Miss in 1959 is simply, and undeniably, the most famous play in Tiger gridiron records. In fact, some consider it one of the most memorable in college football history. It was an eerie, misty and humid Halloween night, and the Rebels of Mississippi took a 3-0 lead into the final quarter, threatening to end an 18-game LSU win streak. On third and 17 from the Ole Miss 42, the Rebels' Jake Gibbs punted 47 yards to the Tiger 11 where Cannon hauled it in on the bounce. Cannon careened off seven tacklers down the east sideline and darted 89 years to immortality. Some say it may have been that run that assured Cannon of the Heisman Trophy he received at season's end.



Billy Cannon and Warren Rabb make a stop at the South End Zone.

HALLOWEEN

Drama on Halloween is as traditional as pumpkins and goblins for LSU and Ole Miss. These schools have met seven times on October 31 with the series tied at 3-3-1. The most notable game on All Hallow's Eve was the 1959 thriller that saw Billy Cannon return a punt 89 yards to spur a 7-3 Tiger victory. The Tigers and Rebels next met on Halloween in 1964. Ole Miss led 10-3 late in the fourth quarter in Death Valley when LSU scored a touchdown to make it 10-9. Quarterback Billy Ezell then threw to Doug Moreau in the front corner of the endzone on the two-point conversion, at nearly the exact point where Cannon had crossed the goalline five years earlier for an 11-10 win. There was a 17-year drought before the teams played on Oct. 31 again, this time at Jackson in 1981. A seesaw battle ended with a 46-yard field goal off the foot of LSU's David Johnston as time expired for a 27-27 tie. In the most recent meeting, the teams engaged in the first overtime game in LSU history at Oxford in 1998, but Ole Miss emerged with a 37-31 win.

NO. 20

The only man who can wear No. 20: Billy Cannon returned to Tiger Stadium in 1988.

Despite the number of colorful figures and outstanding athletes who have come down the pike in the history of LSU football, just one jersey number, No. 20, has been retired. The great Billy Cannon, two-time All-American and Heisman Trophy winner, played at LSU from 1957-59. He led the Tigers to the 1958 national championship and is best known for his 89-yard punt return to beat Ole Miss in 1959. In his career, Cannon rushed for 1,867 yards on 359 carries, an average of 5.2 yards per carry and scored 19 rushing touchdowns. He also scored two touchdowns by receiving and one each by punt return, kickoff return and interception return. LSU went 24-7 during Cannon's stay on the Baton Rouge campus, including 19 straight victories from the end of the 1957 season to the eighth game of the 1959 campaign. Following that 1959 season, Cannon's jersey was retired into the LSU Athletic Hall of Fame.

LSU vs. TULANE

THE RIVALRY

LSU's rivalry with the Green Wave of Tulane was a natural from the game's infancy. The Greenies won LSU's first football game in 1893 by a 34-0 count, but over the ensuing seasons, the Tigers have dominated the series and own a 65-22-7 margin over their neighbors from New Orleans. The proximity of the schools made for the development of the rivalry in its early years and, by 1913, fans began to travel the distance by automobile instead of by train. Today's Tiger fan can traverse the distance from Tiger Stadium to the Louisiana Superdome in less than 90 minutes, but in the early years, according to the New Orleans Times Picayune "with a good car, it can be negotiated in perfect comfort in six hours."

THE RAG

The Rag was the traditional spoils of victory in the LSU-Tulane rivalry for many years. This flag, decorated half in LSU's colors of purple and gold and the other half adorned in the green and white of Tulane, was held for one year by the victorious school until the game the following season. The whereabouts of the original flag are unknown; however, a new version of The Rag was awarded to the LSU squad after the Tigers defeated the Greenies, 48-17, in the 2001 season opener in Death Valley.

1966 LSU STUNS NO. 2 ARKANSAS IN COTTON BOWL

One of the most notable games in LSU football history was the 1966 Cotton Bowl against powerful Arkansas. The Razorbacks went into the New Year's Day tilt ranked No. 2 in the country and riding a 22-game winning streak. LSU owned a meager 7-3 mark compared to the Hogs' perfect 10-0 record, but little Joe Labruzzo silenced many a disbeliever to spark the Bayou Bengals to their greatest bowl win. The Tigers left Dallas with a 14-7 win over the Southwest Conference host Razorbacks. The Tigers have appeared in three other Cotton Bowl classics, tying Arkansas 0-0 in the 1947 game beating Texas 13-0 in 1963 and losing to Texas 35-20 in 2003.

TIGERS "MOVE THE EARTH" IN WIN OVER AUBURN

QB Tommy Hodson connected with WR Eddie Fuller in the back of the endzone for the touchdown that vaulted LSU to a 7-6 victory over Auburn on Oct. 8, 1988, to help lead the LSU Tigers their seventh SEC crown. The moment will forever be know as the "Night the Tigers Moved the Earth," as the play caused such a thunderous explosion from the 79,341 fans in Tiger Stadium the LSU Department of Geology registered vibrations on a seismograph machine at the exact moment the touchdown was scored.

TAILGATING

It has often been pondered whether the attraction of night football is because of the excitement of the atmosphere created by a game under the lights, the more pleasant weather of an evening after the sun has set, or because it allows more time for tailgating. If it is not football that people of South Louisiana crave, then it is food. Tiger fans arrive as early as Thursday evening for Saturday games, set up their motor homes and kick back for a weekend of cooking and enjoyment for two days until kickoff. A stroll across the LSU campus and through the parking lots is a veritable connoisseur's treat. Common entrees include crawfish, boiled shrimp and jambalaya and, on occasion, one will run across a cochon-de-lait (pig roast).

VOICE OF THE TIGERS

For many years, John Ferguson was known as the "Voice of the Tigers" as his call of the action was broadcast nationwide. The most famous call of all plays, though, belongs to J.C. Politz who was the "Voice of the Tigers" in 1959 when Billy Cannon made his famous 89-yard run. By the time Cannon reached midfield on that play, a technician attempted to turn up the sound on Politz' mike to raise it above the crowd noise. In the excitement of the moment, though, he turned the knob the wrong way, lowering the volume and raising the crowd noise, and much of Politz' call of that play is lost forever. Ferguson later returned to the mike as "The Voice," then moved into television where he worked on TigerVision broadcasts beginning in 1984. At that time, Jim Hawthorne took over the radio duties and remains today the football, men's basketball, and baseball "Voice of the Tigers." The legendary Ferguson is now director emeritus of LSU's Tiger Athletic Foundation.

CROSSBAR

Unknown to many Tiger fans, the LSU football team still runs onto the field under the same crossbar that stood as part of the north end zone goalpost in Tiger Stadium as early as 1955. It had long been a tradition that the LSU football team enter the field by running under the goalpost when the new "T-style" goalposts came into vogue. By virtue of tradition, the old "H-style" posts stood on the field of Death Valley until they were finally removed in 1984. Part of the crossbar, however, was kept and mounted above the door of the Tiger Den through which the Tigers run onto the field each game. In 1993, in celebration of the centennial of LSU football, the "H-style" goalposts were returned to the end zones of Tiger Stadium, thanks to a donation from Shaw Industries of Baton Rouge.

VICTORY HILL

A pre-game ritual for many Tiger fans is to line North Stadium Drive in the hours before kickoff to see the Tiger Marching Band in its walk from the band hall. The band pauses each game on the hill next to the Journalism Building to play "Tiger Rag," to the delight of the LSU throngs. Former head coach Curley Hallman began the tradition in the early 1990s of leading the team by foot down Victory Hill from Broussard Hall two hours before the game. That practice became so popular that Gerry DiNardo and Nick Saban continued the tradition, even though the team began to stay in a hotel the night before home games. The team buses drive from the hotel to Broussard Hall - not Tiger Stadium - in order for the players to make their traditional walk down Victory Hill.

THE GOLDEN BAND FROM TIGERLAND

The grandest band in all the land, the Golden Band from Tigerland is as much a part of Saturday nights in Tiger Stadium as the team itself. Among the many favorites of LSU fans is the band's traditional pregame march down North Stadium Drive from the Band Hall to the tune of "Hold That Tiger." That tradition is a carry-over from the old pregame parades through downtown Baton Rouge. Castro Carazo was the man handpicked by Louisiana Governor Huey Long in 1935 to revamp the Tiger band. Carazo and Long together wrote fan favorite "Touchdown for LSU," and two years later Carazo also penned the official LSU fight song, "Fight For LSU." The tradition of the LSU Tiger Marching Band continues today. The LSU Tiger Marching Band is made up of some 325 musicians, Golden Girls and Colorguard members. In 1997, the band was selected as the top band in the Southeastern Conference by SEC band directors. In December 2001, the band was awarded the Sudler Trophy, the highest honor a collegiate marching band can receive. The award has been called "the Heisman Trophy of marching bands," according to Frank Wickes, director of LSU bands.

WHITE JERSEYS

LSU is one of the few college football teams that traditionally wear white jerseys for its home games. The tradition of wearing white jerseys at home originated when LSU won its first national championship in 1958. Paul Dietzel, who coached the Tigers from 1955 to 1961, had a habit of tinkering with the LSU uniform every year. In 1958, he chose to wear white jerseys for LSU's home games, and the Tigers subsequently won the national championship. A superstitious man by nature, Dietzel didn't change the LSU uniform after that season. LSU continued to wear white jerseys for home games throughout the Charlie McClendon Era of LSU football from 1962 to 1979. When Jerry Stovall took over as head coach in 1980, he said the Tigers would wear purple jerseys on occasion so that home fans could see a different color. Little did he know that the NCAA would change its jersey rule in 1982, requiring all teams to wear dark colored jerseys for all home games. Tiger fans were outraged that the NCAA would dictate a change in this long-standing tradition, but little could be done. The Tigers wore purple jerseys for all home games from 1983 to 1994. When Gerry DiNardo became head coach before the 1995 season, he vowed to change the NCAA jersey rule. After petitioning the rules committee of the American Football Coaches Association, he flew to Amelia Island, Fla., and met personally with each member of the NCAA Football Rules Committee. DiNardo's efforts were successful and the Tigers were allowed to wear white jerseys again beginning in 1995. A stipulation of the new rule was that the visiting team would have to give the home team permission to wear the white jerseys. The first team to deny LSU's request was DiNardo's former team, Vanderbilt University. Instead of going back to the old purple jerseys, the Tigers took to the field in brand new gold jerseys and fans flocked to the stadium wearing gold shirts in game promoted as "White Out Vandy" Night. The SEC later adopted a league rule stipulating that the home team has sole discretion in determining its jersey color. Having forgotten that rule was put into place, Florida head coach Steve Spurrier attempted to make LSU wear purple for a game between the Tigers and Gators in 1999, two years after LSU had upset No. 1-ranked Florida in Tiger Stadium. Spurrier was reminded that he had no say in the matter, and the Tigers donned their white jerseys for the game. Nick Saban became LSU's head coach in 2000 and continued with the white jersey tradition, but with a twist. For the purpose of variation, Saban decided that LSU would wear purple jerseys for all non-SEC games, except the home opener.

Mike the Tiger

Mike V, the famed live Bengal Tiger that serves as the graphic image of all LSU athletic teams, begins the 13th year of his reign on the LSU campus.

He proudly rules over a modern, refurbished domicile, just north of Tiger Stadium, that is divided into two areas: a concrete space containing a pool and a grassy expanse equipped with a tiger-sized wooden scratching post and a climbing platform. In addition, there is an indoor area into which he can retreat to avoid inclement weather. This area has a large window that allows his fans to view him while he is inside.

Mike's ride through Tiger Stadium before home games in a cage topped by the LSU cheerleaders is a school tradition. Before entering the stadium, his cage on wheels is parked next to the opponent's locker room in the southeast end of the stadium. Opposing players must make their way past Mike's cage to reach their locker room.

Tradition dictates that the Tigers will score a touchdown for every growl issued by Mike before a football game. For many years, Mike was prompted to roar by pounding on the cage. Objections of cruel punishment brought about the use of recorded growls to play to the crowd before the games. That practice was discontinued shortly afterward and, today, Mike participates in the pregame tradition without provocation.

The Tiger mascot stopped traveling with the LSU team in 1970 when his cage overturned on Airline Highway in an accident en route to a game. Mike IV traveled four more times, though, as he appeared at a Mardi Gras parade in 1984, the 1985 Sugar Bowl, and LSU's basketball games in the Superdome.

Mike V made his first road trip in December 1991 to the Louisiana Superdome to witness LSU and Shaquille O'Neal defeat Texas, 84-83.

In the mid-1980's, pranksters cut the locks on Mike IV's cage and freed him in the early-morning hours just days before the annual LSU-Tulane clash. Mike roamed free, playfully knocking down several small pine trees in the area, before being trapped in the Bernie Moore Track Stadium where police used tranquilizer guns to capture and return the Bengal Tiger to his home.

The incident was reminisent of a kidnapping of Mike I many years ago by Tulane students before a Tiger-Green Wave battle.

MIKE I (1936-1956)

The original Mike was purchased from the Little Rock Zoo in 1936 for $750, with money contributed by the student body. Originally known as "Sheik" at the time of his purchase, his name was changed to Mike to honor Mike Chambers who served as LSU's athletic trainer when the first mascot was purchased. Chambers had played football at Illinois where he blocked for the legendary Red Grange. The first Mike was housed in the Baton Rouge Zoo for one year before a permanent home was constructed near Tiger Stadium. Mike I reigned for 20 years before dying of pneumonia in the midst of a six-game LSU losing streak in 1957. Fearing the LSU faithful would give up hope upon the death of the mascot, Mike's death was not made public until the Tigers finally ended the losing streak.

MIKE II (1956-1958)

The second Mike served a brief reign, lasting only through the 1957 season before dying of pneumonia in the spring of 1958. He was born at the Audubon Zoo near the Tulane campus in New Orleans.

MIKE III (1958-1976)

Just in time for the 1958 national championship season, Mike III was purchased from the Woodland Park Zoo in Seattle, Wash., following a "national search" by then-athletic director Jim Corbett. The student body contributed $1,500 for the purchase of the tiger. Mike III served as mascot for 18 seasons, dying after the only losing season of his reign, as LSU posted a 5-6 record in 1975.

MIKE IV (1976-1990)

Mike IV reigned over Tiger athletics for 14 years after being donated to the school by August A. Busch III from the Dark Continent Amusement Park in Tampa, Fla, on Aug. 29, 1976. Born on May 15, 1974, Mike's age and health were determining factors in his retirement to the Baton Rouge Zoo in 1990. The centerpiece of the Zoo's cat exhibit, Mike weighed in at 500 pounds. His only hiatus from the LSU campus before 1990 was the summer of 1981 which he spent at the Little Rock Zoo while his cage was being expanded. Ironically, the Little Rock Zoo was the birthplace of the first Mike the Tiger. Mike IV died of old age in March of 1995 at the age of 21.

MIKE V (1990-present)

The newest tiger mascot was donated by Dr. Thomas and Caroline Atchison of the Animal House Zoological Park in Moulton, Ala. Avid LSU supporter Charles Becker, a member of the LSU booster group the Tammany Tigers, put Dr. Sheldon Bivin of the LSU School of Veterinary Medicine in touch with the Atchisons. Bivin traveled to Alabama and brought the baby tiger back to Baton Rouge. Born Oct. 18, 1989, the new tiger was introduced to LSU fans at a basketball game against Alabama in February 1990. He officially began his reign on April 30, 1990, when he was moved into the tiger cage across from Tiger Stadium.

FIGHT FOR LSU

(LSU fight song)

Like Knights of old, Let's fight to hold
The glory of the Purple Gold.

Let's carry through, Let's die or do
To win the game for dear old LSU.

Keep trying for that high score;
Come on and fight,
We want some more, some more.

Come on you Tigers, Fight! Fight! Fight! for dear old L-S-U.
RAH!

HEY, FIGHTIN' TIGERS

"Hey, Fighting Tigers," LSU's fight song, was adapted from the broadway show tine "Hey, Look Me Over" by Cy Coleman. The song appeared in the musical Wildcat starring Lucille Ball. LSU obtained special permission to use the melody that can be heard in and around Tiger Stadium on Saturday nights in the fall.

Hey, Fightin'Tigers, fight all the way
Play Fightin'Tigers, win the game today.

You've got the know how,
you're doing fine,
Hang on to the ball as you hit the wall
And smash right through the line

You've got to go for a touchdown
Run up the score.
Make Mike the Tiger stand right up and roar.
ROAR!

Give it all of your might as you fight tonight
and keep the goal in view.
Victory for L-S-U!

TOUCHDOWN FOR LSU!

Tigers! Tigers! They've come to town,
They fight! They fight! Call a first down,
Just look them over, and how they can go,
Smashing the line with runs and passes high and low.

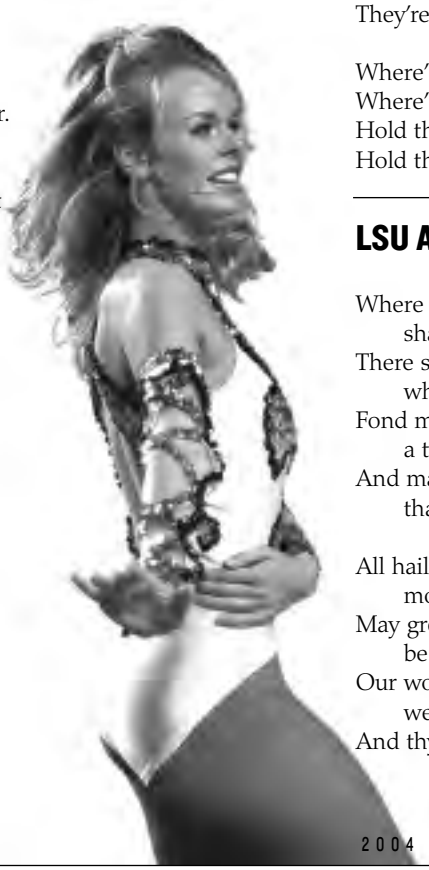
Touchdown! Touchdown! It's Tigers' score.
Give them hell and a little bit more.
Come on you Tigers, Fight them, you
Tigers,
Touchdown for LSU.
Rah! U. Rah!



TIGER RAG

(Hold That Tiger)

Long ago, way down in the jungle
Someone got an inspiration for a tune,
And that jingle brought from the jungle
Became famous mighty soon.

Thrills and chills it sends thru you!
Hot! so hot, it burns you too!

Tho' it's just the growl of the tiger
It was written in a syncopated way,
More and more they howl for the "Tiger"
Ev'ry where you go today
They're shoutin'

Where's that Tiger! Where's that Tiger!
Where's that Tiger! Where's that Tiger!
Hold that Tiger! Hold that Tiger!
Hold that Tiger!

LSU ALMA MATER

Where stately oaks and broad magnolias shade inspiring halls,
There stands our dear Alma Mater who to us recalls Fond memories that waken in our hearts
a tender glow,
And make us happy for the love that we have learned to know.

All hail to thee our Alma Mater,
molder of mankind,
May greater glory, love unending be forever thine.
Our worth in life will be thy worth
we pray to keep it true,
And thy spirit dwell in us forever...L-S-U.

"It's Saturday Night in

and here come your Fighting Tigers of LSU."

Hearing those words from public address announcer Dan Borne' as the Tigers enter the stadium brings chills to even the casual LSU football fan and sends shivers to those from the opposing team. Seven nights a year Tiger Stadium becomes the sixth largest city in the state of Louisiana as over 91,000 fans pack the cathedral of college football to watch the Tigers play.

For LSU fans, there's nothing better than spending a night in Tiger Stadium. LSU home football games are events talked about year round. For opponents, it's another story as Tiger Stadium is an intimidating venue that has been called one of the most dreaded road playing sites in all of college football. Seating 91,600 fans and nicknamed "Death Valley", poll after poll have proclaimed Tiger Stadium as one of the greatest sites anywhere for a college football game.

Already considered one of the most raucous stadiums in all of college football, the 2003 season saw Tiger Stadium take it to another level as the team along with the fans captivated the national media almost on weekly basis during LSU's national title run. CBS brought Matt Mauck's last-minute game-winning pass to Skyler Green against Georgia before a Tiger Stadium record crowd of 92,251 to a national audience, while ESPN was on hand for a dominating 31-7 victory over Auburn. The Tigers closed out the 2003 home slate with a 55-24 win over Arkansas before the second-largest crowd in school history (92,213), a contest that was televised to a national audience by CBS and a win that propelled LSU to the SEC Championship Game.

In 1998, Sport Magazine named Tiger Stadium "the most feared road playing site in America." And in 1996, ESPN named LSU's pre-game party the best in all of America. Those surveys supported the previous polls by Gannett News Service in 1995, The Sporting News in 1989 and the College Football Association in 1987 that show Tiger Stadium to be the most difficult place for a visiting team to play.

Most recently, the Sporting News ranked Tiger Stadium as the sixth best college football stadium in America in a poll of college football coaches and fans, while Sports Illustrated's Rick Reilly, in a column debating college football vs. pro football, penned that "College football is LSU's Tiger Stadium at night." ESPN's Chris Fowler called LSU his favorite game day experience in Sports Illustrated's on Campus Issue in 2003.

Now the sixth largest on-campus stadium in college football, Tiger Stadium is considered one of the loudest athletic arenas in the world. Four years ago, an additional 11,600 seats were added with the addition of the east upper deck to bring the capacity to 91,600. In addition to the new east upper deck, 70 skyboxes, called "Tiger Dens" were built giving Tiger fans luxury accommodations. The addition of the 11,600 seats marked the first expansion to Tiger Stadium since 1978 when the west upper deck was completed.

Construction is currently underway for a $60 million renovation to the west side of the stadium that will add 3,255 special amenity seats as a well as a state-of-the-are press box to Tiger Stadium. The west side renovation, which includes the removal and rebuilding of the upper deck to mirror the east side upper deck, is scheduled to be completed for the 2005 season.

Last year, in its fourth season in the expanded stadium, LSU averaged a school record 90,974 fans a contest, the sixth-highest total in college football in 2003. It also marked the third consecutive year in which LSU averaged better than 90,000 fans a contest in Tiger Stadium.

Indeed, Tiger Stadium is legendary in college football circles for its overflowing, raucous crowds and for uncountable memories that have been spawned inside the mammoth structure.

Part of the lore of Tiger Stadium is the tradition of playing games at night, an idea that was first introduced in 1931 against Spring Hill (a 35-0 LSU victory). Since then, LSU has played the majority of its games at night and the Tigers have fared much better under the lights than during the day. Since 1960, LSU is 187-62-4 (.747) at night in Tiger Stadium compared to a 16-21-3 (.437) record during the day over that span.

Whether the game has been at day or night it hasn't mattered under current coach Nick Saban as the Tigers have put together an impressive 23-5 overall mark, which includes an 11-4 Southeastern Conference record, in Tiger Stadium since 2000. LSU enters the 2004 season riding a three-game winning streak at home. In addition, dating back to the 2002 season, LSU has won seven of its last eight games in Tiger Stadium.

In 2002 after a 33-10 non-conference win over Miami (Ohio), Miami coach Terry Hoeppener said of Tiger Stadium, "that's an exciting as an environment as you can have. I thought the crowd was a factor for us because we had communication problems we haven't had at Michigan and Ohio State."

In 2001, the Tigers clinched a berth in its first SEC Championship Game with a 27-14 victory over Auburn in the season-finale in Tiger Stadium. After the contest, thousands of Tiger fans spilled onto the stadium floor to celebrate the victory.

After a victory before a national television audience on ESPN in 2001, ESPN sideline reporter Adrian Karsten said, "Death Valley in Baton Rouge is the loudest stadium I've ever been in. There are very few stadiums in America worth a touchdown, but the Bayou Bengals certainly have that advantage in Tiger Stadium"

In 2000, the first year of the Saban era, the goal posts came down twice. Immediately after the Tigers upset then No. 11 ranked Tennessee 38-31 in overtime, the capacity crowd of 91,682 spilled onto the field of Tiger Stadium to celebrate the victory. Hundreds of students lined the sidelines and the back of the north end zone as the Tigers' held the Vols scoreless in overtime for the victory.

The goal posts came down again in the final home game of the season as the Tigers' posted a 30-28 win over Alabama, their first victory over the Crimson Tide in Tiger Stadium since 1969.

The goal posts came down for the first time in 1997 as all of America witnessed one of the most explosive nights in the history of the grand ol' stadium when the Tigers upended No. 1-ranked Florida before a national television audience. A sea of Tiger fans swamped the floor of Tiger Stadium as both goal posts came crashing down -- a scene that was replayed countless times in college football highlight shows.

Perhaps the most famous moment in Death Valley history took place on "The Night The Tigers Moved the Earth," October 8, 1988. When Tiger quarterback Tommy Hodson threw to Eddie Fuller for a winning touchdown against Auburn, the explosion of the crowd was so thunderous that it caused an earth tremor that registered on a seismograph meter in LSU's Geology Department across campus.

Then there was the night the Tigers nearly upset No. 1-ranked Southern Cal before a sellout crowd on September 28, 1979. The Tigers came up short, but the crowd roared from kickoff to final gun in a game many ardent LSU followers rank as the loudest in stadium history.

And of course there was Halloween night, 1959, when Billy Cannon made his famous 89-yard punt return to lead No. 1 LSU past No. 3 Ole Miss. Legend has it that families living near the campus lakes came running out of their homes in fear of the noise erupting around them.

Those are the highlights, some of which have shaped the character of this great stadium. But week in and week out each fall, a new chapter unfolds in the history of Death Valley.

Tiger Stadium first opened its gates to Tiger fans in the fall of 1924 as LSU hosted Tulane in the season-finale in what was the first contest in the stadium. Since that first game in Tiger Stadium, LSU has gone on to post a 335-137-18 (.702) overall mark. LSU's overall home record since start of football in 1893 is 415-158-19 (.715).

Death Valley

LSU has averaged 74,901 spectators for each of its 291 battles in Tiger Stadium since the NCAA began compiling official attendance figures in 1957. Last year, a school record 636,817 fans packed Tiger Stadium to watch the Tigers go 6-1 at home for the second straight year.

Since the start of the NCAA's attendance compilations, LSU has finished in the nation's top 10 in average attendance 39 of 46 seasons. The Tigers have drawn 21,560,563 fans since 1957.

The home of one of football's proudest traditions, this unique structure also once served as a dormitory for approximately 1,500 students, and while Broussard Hall, then LSU's athletic dormitory, was being renovated during the fall of 1986, the LSU football players lived in Tiger Stadium.

The original phase of construction was completed in 1924. This first phase included the east and west stands, which seated about 12,000. Seven years later (1931), the sides were extended upward to accommodate an additional 10,000 fans, raising the capacity to 22,000. In 1936, the stadium seating capacity was increased to 46,000 with the addition of 24,000 seats in the north end, making Tiger Stadium into a horseshoe configuration.

The next phase of construction took place in 1953, when the stadium's south end was closed to turn the horseshoe into a bowl, increasing the seating capacity to 67,720.

The upper deck atop the west stands was completed in 1978, and it added 8,000 seats to the stadium's capacity. Additional seating in two club level sections, which flanked the existing press box, brought the total addition to approximately 10,000 seats and raised the stadium's capacity to approximately 78,000.

Refurbishing began on the stadium in the summer of 1985, when the east and west stands were waterproofed, and 25,000 chair back seats were added to replace the older "bench" type seats. Another phase of improvements was completed in 1987, when the north and south stands were waterproofed and newer bleachers were once again installed to replace the older ones.

The playing field was moved 11 feet to the south in 1986, to provide more room between the back line of the North End Zone and the curvature of the stadium fence, which surrounds the field. It also put the playing area in the exact center of the arena's grassy surface.

The Tiger Stadium press box was redecorated prior to the 1987 season, and a few more seats were installed at the upper portion of the west lower stands. Also, the stadium's seating arrangement was renumbered prior to the 1987 season, to make all seats a uniform size. The addition of bleacher seating in 1988 brought the capacity to 80,150 and the elimination of some bleacher seating after the 1994 season to accommodate renovated visiting team dressing facilities, and other ensuing seating adjustments, brought the capacity to 80,000, its size until the expansion for the 2000 football season.

Most recently, starting in the summer of 2002 and continuing through the start of the 2003 season, concession stands in Tiger Stadium were renovated as the first part of what will be a multi-phased process to update the entire stadium.

2003 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

The 2003 National Champions compiled LSU's 2nd since 1958.

The LSU Fighting Tigers entered the 2003 football season with a potent offense, the potential for a dominant defense, and many unanswered questions.

The 2002 Tigers endured one of the biggest roller-coaster seasons in recent memory, winning six straight games after a season opening loss at Virginia Tech to move into the Top 10, but three losses in the final five regular season games, combined with the "Bluegrass Miracle"—Marcus Randall's 75-yard touchdown pass to Devery Henderson on the final play of the Tigers' 33-30 win at Kentucky—kept LSU out of the SEC Championship Game.

A 35-20 loss to Texas in the Cotton Bowl left the Tigers out of the final 2002 polls and heading into the 2003 season looking for redemption.

The Tigers earned the 15th spot in the pre-season polls by both the Associated Press and the board of coaches of ESPN and USA Today, but question marks were plenty surrounding Nick Saban's fourth LSU team.

Would quarterback Matt Mauck recover fully from the foot injury that ended his 2002 season prematurely? Would Marcus Spears and Marquise Hill develop into the dominant forces at defensive end that they were as Parade All-Americans in high school? Would Chad Lavalais continue to dominate at defensive tackle? Who would replace Bradie James and Jeremy Lawrence in the linebacking corps? And just who would run the football with LaBrandon Toefield and Domanick Davis now in the National Football League?

By time all was said and done with the 2003 season, all of these questions, and many others, would receive resounding answers from the Tigers.

LSU opened the 2003 slate with a 49-7 win over in-state foe Louisiana-Monroe, sending the Tigers with momentum into their first meeting with Arizona since 1984 and first visit ever to Tucson.

The purple and gold blew into the Old West with all of the force of a desert sandstorm, leaving the Wildcats as tumbleweed in a 59-13 rout in one of LSU's most complete games in many a year. The Tigers rolled up an incredible 38-0 halftime lead and finished with 481 total yards in scoring their most impressive non-conference victory away from Baton Rouge since 1986.

The Tigers returned home to face Western Illinois, the top-ranked team in Division I-AA. The Leathernecks put up a good fight, trailing just 6-0 until late in the first half, when LSU finally took control of the game and went on to a 35-7 win, moving the Tigers up to No. 10 for a key early-season showdown with defending SEC champion Georgia, ranked seventh.

The Bulldogs dominated the early going, moving consistently up and down the field on the LSU defense, but when the first 30 minutes ended, it was the Tigers who held a 7-3 edge, and would extend that edge to 10-3, a score that held until late in the fourth quarter.

That's when it appeared Georgia caught lightning in a bottle when David Greene, who had been harassed mercilessly by the Tiger pass rush, hit Tyson Browning with a screen pass that turned into a 93-yard touchdown that tied the game at 10-10. The record Tiger Stadium crowd of 92,251 had to be wondering if the rug would be pulled from under the purple and gold again.

LSU answered that question with an emphatic no. LSU needed only three minutes to take the lead back, with Skyler Green's over the shoulder catch of a Matt Mauck pass with 1:22 remaining pulling LSU into a 17-10 lead. Corey Webster's interception of Greene sealed the Tigers' first win over Georgia in 13 years and propelled LSU into the top 10.

The SEC's other Bulldogs, Mississippi State, provided no such challenge for the Bayou Bengals. LSU jumped out to a 24-0 halftime lead in Starkville and never looked back in a 41-6 rout that put the Tigers at 5-0 for the first time since 1973.

Now, the time seemed ripe for LSU to win back-to-back games over Florida for the first time since 1986-87.

Early on, the Gators were on the skinning block. Green returned a punt 80 yards for a touchdown, and a goal-line stand in which the Tigers recovered a Florida fumble at the 1-yard line seemed to have LSU on its way to 6-0.

But then, Chris Leak stopped playing like a freshman, and LSU's offense could not get untracked against a suddenly potent Gator defense. Florida would head back to Gainesville with a 19-7 victory, and now the Tigers stood at crossroads with roads games at South Carolina and a home date with Auburn on the horizon.

Led by a trio of freshman running backs in Justin Vincent, Alley Broussard and Barrington Edwards, the Tigers rushed for 263 yards on their way to a 482-yard effort by the offense against South Carolina. .

Meanwhile, the defense held the Gamecocks to a net rushing total of zero yards and scored a touchdown themselves on a fumble return by Jason LeDoux as LSU rolled to a 33-7 victory.

Beating South Carolina was a solid accomplishment, but now, LSU faced the same team that one year earlier had sent the purple and gold into its season ending tailspin. Auburn had struggled in early season losses to USC and Georgia Tech, but five consecutive wins had coach Tommy Tuberville's team looking ripe to take control of the SEC West.

The Tigers indeed had control of the SEC West when the game was over—the LSU Tigers. Mauck hit Henderson for a 64-yard touchdown pass on the sixth play of the game, and hit Clayton for an 18-yard score as part of a 21-point first quarter.

LSU's defense limited Auburn star runner Carnell Williams to just 61 yards on 20 carries, and Auburn was never in it as the Bayou Bengals rolled to a 31-7 victory and into the top 10 of the Bowl Championship Series standings at number 7.

2003 National Championship

LSU didn't show any signs of a letdown in its homecoming game, crushing Louisiana Tech, 49-10, scoring all of its points in the first half.

The Tigers were on a roll, and after an open date, they were back into the nation's elite, at No. 3 in the polls. Now, the dreams of a national championship were alive and well.

LSU's trip to Tuscaloosa was an eerie role reversal for the nearly 84,000 fans jammed into Bryant-Denny Stadium. For decades, it was Alabama who bullied the purple and gold; now, it was Saban's crew doing the bullying, shutting off Alabama in every conceivable way in a 27-3 rout that set up a showdown for the SEC West title the next week at Ole Miss.

Early on, it appeared the Rebels would finally reach the SEC Championship game, as Ole Miss grabbed a 7-0 lead when a Mauck interception was returned for a touchdown on the Tigers' first play from scrimmage.

LSU had dominated the rest of the game, holding a 17-14 lead late in the contest when Ole Miss' Eli Manning got one more chance to lead his team to victory.

It never happened, as Manning tripped over his own lineman on a fourth down in the final minute, allowing the Tigers to escape with a win in the biggest LSU-Ole Miss game since 1970.

To win the West and clinch a berth in the SEC title game, LSU now had a score to settle with the Arkansas Razorbacks, who in 2002 marched 81 yards down the field with no timeouts to score the winning touchdown and claim a 21-20 victory to steal the title game berth from the Tigers.

The first quarter and a half of the game appeared as if neither team could stop the other. The Tigers and the Hogs were tied at 17-17, and Ole Miss was still holding out hope for an Arkansas victory and a trip to the title game.

LSU then showed how it has developed what Saban likes to call a killer instinct. The Tigers scored 17 points in a 5-minute stretch late in the second quarter to break the tie, and then scored three consecutive touchdowns in the second half to run away to a 55-24 blowout and punch their ticket to Atlanta.

The week leading up to the SEC Championship game against Georgia centered as much on LSU's status in the BCS as it did on the Bulldogs. Since their win over Alabama, the Tigers had been mired at No. 3 in the BCS standings behind Oklahoma and USC, and all across the country, analysts were frantically trying to figure out every possible scenario as to just what two teams would play in the Sugar Bowl on January 4 for the national championship.

On championship Saturday, LSU made a statement for itself by blasting the Bulldogs in front of a partisan Georgia crowd, 34-13. Game MVP Justin Vincent scored on an 87-yard run and finished with a championship game record 201 yards on the ground.

Earlier in the day, USC routed Oregon State, 52-28, but that night, Oklahoma was blasted by Kansas State in the Big XII title game in Kansas City, 35-7, leaving more speculation than ever as to who would be making the trip to the Big Easy.

At 2:30 p.m. the day after the SEC championship game, LSU Chancellor Dr. Mark Emmert got a phone call. It was from Paul Hoolahan, Executive Director of the Nokia Sugar Bowl. The call relayed to Emmert the news that the Tigers would indeed be making the short bus ride to New Orleans for the title game to play Oklahoma.

LSU had waited 45 years for a shot at a national championship, and the Tigers hit the field running, driving to the Sooner 1-yard line on their opening drive. Although LSU came away empty, the tone of this evening was set, and it would be the white-shirted team that would be the aggressor.

No one felt this more than Oklahoma quarterback Jason White, the 2003 Heisman Trophy winner. Time and time again, he was buried by the LSU pass rush, led by All-American Chad Lavalais and the best pair of defensive ends in America in Marcus Spears and Marquise Hill.

When White did have time to throw, he found his receivers blanketed by the Tigers' aggressive secondary, most notably cornerbacks Corey Webster and Travis Daniels.

Indeed, it was Webster, the savior of the first win over Georgia, who set up LSU for its first score of the Sugar Bowl, intercepting White at midfield and returning the pick to the Sooner 32. Four plays later, Green took a reverse around right end to a 24-yard touchdown, and the purple and gold partisans reveled in a 7-0 lead.

A blocked punt early midway through the second quarter set up OU for the tying touchdown, but instead of folding, the Tigers immediately responded with a 9-play, 80-yard drive that ended with Vincent's 18-yard touchdown run that would give the Tigers a 14-7 halftime lead.

Two plays into the second half, LSU took one giant leap toward that championship when Spears grabbed a deflected White pass out of the air and rumbled 20 yards into the end zone, sending most of the Superdome record crowd of 79,342 into sheer pandemonium.

Mauck was intercepted early in the fourth quarter, and the Sooners got a touchdown from Kejuan Jones to cut the LSU lead to 21-14 with 11:01 still to play.

Saban and Oklahoma coach Bob Stoops, the nation's two premier defensive masterminds, set in for the final chess match that would determine the BCS champion. Stoops gained the upper hand with 5:45 left, as White led his team to the Tiger 12 with a first down.

The nation's highest scoring offense had made teams pay time after time when reaching the red zone. But LSU was no ordinary defense. And in a test of wills, the Tigers held firm, as Oklahoma did not move an inch from that point, with White's fourth down pass getting knocked away by freshman Jessie Daniels.

Oklahoma would get one more chance from midfield in the final minutes, but again, the Sooners were stuck in cement, and on fourth and 10, Lionel Turner buried White to send the Heisman winner off the field for the last time in 2003.

The Sooners had one slim chance, and that was to block a Donnie Jones punt with nine seconds left. But Jones made his last kick one for the ages. As it rolled out of bounds at the Sooner 12 on the west sideline of the Superdome, the clock ticked down to three zeros. The game was over…LSU was national champion!

1958 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

The 1958 National Champions compiled LSU's first perfect season since 1908.

For years, LSU fans eagerly anticipated the coming of each new football season with talk of the two Tiger teams regarded as LSU's national champions—the great 10-0 team of 1908 and "next year." After 50 years, next year finally came in 1958.

After seasons of 3-5-2, 3-7 and 5-5 under coach Paul Dietzel, and a team which included only three seniors among its 55-man roster, it didn't seem likely that 1958 would be "next year." Indeed, with a squad dominated by juniors and sophomores, many pointed toward 1959 as the year LSU would make a run at the top.

The LSU Fighting Tigers opened the 1958 campaign Sept. 20 at Houston against the Rice Owls. Although early in the season, Dietzel's Tigers, divided into three units—the White team, the Gold team (later shortened to Go) and the Chinese Bandits—showed unusual poise and balance. LSU scored in each period en route to a 26-6 victory over a team it lost to the two previous seasons.

The following week, the Tigers traveled to Mobile to take on Alabama in its first game under Paul "Bear" Bryant. LSU came away with a hard- fought 13-3 win before returning to Baton Rouge for its home opener against Hardin-Simmons. Against the Cowboys, the Tigers built a 20-6 halftime lead and used it to coast to its victory before only 45,000 fans, indicating that few had any idea what kind of team this would become.

LSU, now ranked No. 11, hit the road again the following week and served notice to the college football world. The Tigers routed the Miami Hurricanes 41-0 at the Orange Bowl to improve their record to 4-0, their best start since 1937.

No. 9 LSU completed the first half of its schedule with a 32-7 victory over Kentucky before a home crowd of 65,000, the largest yet to see the Tigers play. Sixty-three thousand turned out the following week anxious to see if the Bayou Bengals could snap a three-game losing streak to Florida in LSU's Homecoming game. The outcome was in doubt until the final three minutes, when placekicker/fullback Tommy Davis booted a 29-yard field goal, giving the Tigers a 10-7 victory.

Now 6-0, LSU earned the AP poll's No. 1 ranking. But the Tigers knew they had to overcome Johnny Vaught's deadly Ole Miss Rebels if they wished to remain on top, something they hadn't done since 1950.

The Rebels drove to second-and-one, just a foot from LSU's end zone, early in the second quarter before 67,500 fans, the first sellout in Tiger Stadium history. They were turned back by a superb defensive effort by the White team defenders. After that, it was all LSU as White team quarterback Warren Rabb and Go team signal-caller Durel Matherne ran for scores in the 14-0 Tiger triumph over their archrivals.

Now 7-0 and ranked No. 1 by AP, the Tigers had yet to impress the UPI board of coaches enough to earn the top rating, staying in the No. 3 position going into a home game with Duke. Although the Blue Devils did some things no other team could do against LSU all season—take an early lead, outgain the Tigers 353-yards to 285 and put a total of 18 points on the board—it was simply not enough. LSU bombed Duke for 22 points in the second quarter to take a 28-6 halftime lead and went on to a 50-18 victory.

When the UPI poll came out the following week, LSU was a unanimous No. 1 selection, a position it would not relinquish until it sustained a bitter 14-13 defeat at the hands of Tennessee in week eight of the 1959 season.

One week later, LSU traveled to Jackson, Miss., for a game against Mississippi State. It was a game in which 8-0 LSU could lose everything and the 3-4 Bulldogs could lose nothing. On a muddy field and with the Tigers tense, Miss. State took a 6-0 halftime lead and made it hold up until LSU faced a fourth and goal situation at State's 5 in the third quarter. With a possible national championship on the line, Rabb rolled left and found Billy Hendrix in the end zone to tie the game. Davis' extra point put LSU ahead 7-6 and allowed the Tigers to escape Jackson 9-0.

With one game against ancient rival Tulane separating LSU from its first recognized national championship (in those days, the wire services awarded their national championship trophies before the bowl games), some wondered how the Tigers would approach the 3-6 Green Wave, but a quote from Tulane halfback Claude "Boo" Mason took care of that. After losing to Vanderbilt, Mason told a reporter, "We'll beat LSU because they'll choke."

Whether the Tigers would choke was subject to debate at halftime, as LSU led only 6-0 before a then Southeastern Conference record crowd of 83,221 in Sugar Bowl Stadium. However, LSU took command in the second half, taking full advantage of Green Wave mistakes en route to a 35-point fourth quarter and a 62-0 thrashing of Tulane, the most lopsided score in the history of the series. Incredibly, LSU would defeat the Greenies by the same score in 1961 and 1965.

With a 10-0 record and national championship in hand, LSU accepted an invitation to take on the Tigers of Clemson, in the 25th annual Sugar Bowl Classic on New Year's Day, 1959. Once again, LSU found an opponent with little to lose but much recognition to gain in 8-2 Clemson, as Frank Howard's troops tried to deny LSU its first perfect season in 50 years.

After fighting off a series of bad breaks, including a fractured hand by Rabb in the first quarter, LSU got a break of its own when Chinese Bandit Duane Leopard recovered a fumbled punt attempt on the Clemson 11. On third and eight at the 9, Billy Cannon took a handoff from Matherne and hit Mickey Mangham with a touchdown pass on the halfback option for the game's only score.

The following season, a more experienced LSU team demonstrated how difficult it was to repeat as a national champion, going 9-1 during the regular season. Only the loss to Tennessee separated LSU from the school's second straight title.

LSU's SEC Championship Teams

Overall Record: 13-1 | SEC Record: 7-1 | Coach Nick Saban

LSU stormed to its second Southeastern Conference title under Nick Saban in three years as the Tigers blew through the conference slate with a 7-1 record, which included five league wins of 21 points or better.

Behind a suffocating defense and a balanced offensive attack, the Tigers earned a spot in the league's championship game for the second time under Saban with a 55-24 win over Arkansas in the regular-season finale in Baton Rouge.

LSU then followed that with a 34-13 trouncing of Georgia in the SEC title game, a contest that saw the Tigers pile up 293 yards rushing against the fifth-ranked Bulldogs with freshman Justin Vincent accounting for an SEC Championship Game record 201 of those yards.

The victory over Georgia propelled the Tigers in the BCS National Championship contest against Oklahoma, a game that LSU won by a 21-14 count to claim the school's second national title in football.

Overall Record: 10-3 | SEC Record: 5-3 | Coach Nick Saban

Following a strong 8-4 2000 season under first-year coach Nick Saban, the 2001 Fighting Tigers were widely expected to capture the SEC Western Davison championship and play in the school's first SEC Championship Game.

The Tigers got off to a flying start with home victories over Tulane and Utah State before the terrorist attacks of September 11 postponed LSU's SEC opener against Auburn until December 1.

Instead, the Tigers opened SEC play at Tennessee's Neyland Stadium in front of more than 107,000, the largest crowd to ever see LSU play, where the Volunteers got revenge for 2000 with a 26-18 victory, before LSU returned home and fell to 0-2 in the SEC with a 44-15 loss to Florida

LSU then defeated Kentucky and Mississippi State on the road, but those wins were erased by a 35-24 home loss to Ole Miss that seemingly finished the Tigers' title hopes off, dropping LSU to 2-3 in the SEC.

But instead of folding, the Tigers fought back. First, Rohan Davey threw for 528 yards and Josh Reed caught 19 passes for 293 yards as the Tigers bombed Alabama in Tuscaloosa, 35-21. Home wins over Middle Tennessee and Arkansas closed November and set up the Western division title showdown with Auburn.

The showdown was no contest. LSU rolled to a 21-7 halftime lead and cruised home to a 27-14 victory, sending the Tigers to their first SEC Championship game against a Tennessee squad that would look to punch its ticket to the Rose Bowl and a national championship date with Miami with a second victory over LSU.

Most teams would have wilted under the pressure, especially after losing their starting running back (LaBrandon Toefield) and quarterback (Davey), but LSU didn't just survived, it thrived. Led by the steady play of backup Matt Mauck, the Tigers stunned the college football world by upending the Big Orange, 31-20, sending LSU to its first Sugar Bowl since 1986.

The Tigers capped off this glorious season with a 47-34 pasting of Illinois in the Sugar Bowl, as Davey earned MVP honors by throwing for a bowl record 444 yards and three touchdowns, while Reed caught 14 passes for 239 yards in front of a partisan LSU crowd of more than 77,000, leaving LSU in the top 10 for the first time since 1987.

Overall Record: 8-4 | SEC Record: 6-1 | Coach Mike Archer

LSU looked to win its second SEC title in three years in 1988, and after a 10-1-1 season in 1987 under first-year coach Mike Archer, the Tigers looked the part of champions in their first two games, thrashing Texas A&M 27-0 in Death Valley, then taking the school's first win ever in Knoxville with a 34-9 rout of Tennessee.

LSU would quickly find itself 2-2, though, as it squandered a 13-point lead in the final five minutes of a 36-33 loss at Ohio State, then dropped a 19-6 decision at Florida before heading into a critical showdown with fourth-ranked Auburn.

In a classic defensive battle, two Auburn field goals gave the Tigers of the Plains a 6-0 lead late in the fourth quarter before Tommy Hodson hit Eddie Fuller in the end zone with less than one minute to play, tying the game and causing such a tremor that it was felt on a seismograph in the LSU Geology Department. David Browndyke then kicked the extra point to give the Bayou Bengals a 7-6 triumph in what will forever be known as the "Earthquake Game".

Tough home victories over Kentucky and Ole Miss followed, then came a trip to Alabama, where LSU fell behind 15-0 late in the first half before the Tigers rallied and took a 19-18 victory on Browndyke's field goal in the waning seconds. The Tigers won the SEC title the following week with a 20-3 win over Mississippi State.

LSU split its final two regular season games, losing to Miami and defeating Tulane, before a loss to Syracuse in the Hall of Fame Bowl ended the Tigers' season at 8-4.

Overall Record: 9-3 | SEC Record: 5-1 | Coach Bill Arnsparger

The Tommy Hodson era began at LSU in 1986 in Bill Arnsparger's third and final season in Tigertown, which got off to a flying start with a 35-17 upset of Texas A&M.

The Tigers then dropped a shocking 21-12 decision to Arnsparger's alma mater, Miami of Ohio the following week.

The loss to Miami was only a temporary setback. The Tigers began to roll behind their new leader, defeating Florida 28-17 in Gainesville, then coming home for a 23-14 win over Georgia. The Tigers rolled to victories over Kentucky and North Carolina before Ole Miss came to Death Valley and won for the first time in Baton Rouge since Archie Manning's sophomore season of 1968, knocking the Tigers out of first place in the SEC.

Now came a trip to league leader Alabama in Birmingham. In a white-knuckle struggle, the Tigers prevailed 14-10, leaving the Tigers needing only to defeat Mississippi State the next week to win the Tigers' first league crown since 1970.

In front of a pro-LSU crowd in Jackson, the Tigers left little doubt as to who would be kings of the SEC, as the Tigers mauled the Bulldogs 47-0 to win at least a share of the league crown. LSU defeated Notre Dame and Tulane to close the season, then Auburn upended Alabama in the Iron Bowl to give the Tigers the title all to themselves and secure the school's second Sugar Bowl berth in three years.

Arnsparger, who accepted the position of athletic director prior to LSU's game with Tulane, coached LSU for the final time on New Year's Day in a 30-15 loss to Nebraska in the Sugar Bowl.

Overall Record: 9-3 | SEC Record: 5-0 | Coach Charles McClendon

Archie Manning and Ole Miss left LSU three points shy of a perfect season and the chance to play Texas in the Cotton Bowl for the national championship in 1969. After refusing a bowl berth following a 9-1 season, LSU was determined to remedy this failure in 1970.

The Tigers' hopes took a serious hit on opening night, as Texas A&M came to town and pulled off a 20-18 upset. The loss left the Tigers bloodied but unbowed, as LSU then rattled off seven consecutive victories, including a 17-9 victory at Auburn over future Heisman Trophy winner Pat Sullivan, then a 14-9 triumph in Birmingham over Alabama squad, the Tigers' second straight over Bear Bryant's Crimson Tide.

LSU would have two big non-conference games before its December 5 showdown with Archie Manning's Ole Miss Rebels for the SEC championship. First was a visit to South Bend and second-ranked Notre Dame, where LSU limited Ara Parseghian's powerful offense led by Joe Theismann to under 250 yards, but the Tigers missed several chances to win the game and fell, 3-0. The Tigers now needed two wins to lock up an Orange Bowl berth opposite Big Eight champion Nebraska, and got the first at Tulane Stadium over a pesky Green Wave squad, 26-14, setting up the title match with the Rebels.

Manning would return to Death Valley with a cast on his left arm that severely limited his throwing motion. The way LSU played that warm December night, Manning could have been Superman himself and it probably wouldn't have mattered. Tommy Casanova and Craig Burns combined to return three punts for touchdowns, and Ronnie Estay nailed Manning for a safety as LSU brought Christmas to Tiger Stadium early with a 61-17 rout of the Rebels and send the Tigers to Miami.

In the Orange Bowl against a Nebraska team looking to win a share of the national championship, LSU held a 12-10 lead after three quarters before wilting under the charge of the powerful Cornhuskers, 17-12.

Overall Record: 10-1 | SEC Record: 5-0 | Coach Paul Dietzel

Coming off of a 5-4-1 campaign in 1960, LSU wanted to get its 1961 campaign off to a flying start, but a 16-3 loss to Rice in the season opener signaled the beginning of what could have been a very difficult season, but as it turned out, the loss to the Owls meant little.

Over the final nine games of the season, LSU would allow a measly 30 points, with 14 of those scored by Kentucky in a 24-14 Tiger triumph in the fifth game of the year. The Tigers blanked Florida, 23-0, then took a 10-7 win over Ole Miss to leave them needing only a win over archrival Tulane to win a share of the league title.

For the second time in four years, Andy Pilney and his Green Wave suffered a 62-0 humiliation at the hands of the Bayou Bengals, and SEC champion LSU was on to the Orange Bowl to face Big Eight champion Colorado.

In what was Paul Dietzel's final game at LSU, the Tigers had little trouble in silencing the Buffaloes, 25-7.

Overall Record: 11-0 | SEC Record: 6-0 | Coach Paul Dietzel

In the modern era of college football, many coaches, especially in the hyper-competitive world of the SEC, would not survive seasons of 3-5-2, 3-7 and 5-5, but LSU athletic director Jim Corbett showed patience with the Tigers' young innovator, 35-year old Paul Dietzel, and for his fourth season in Baton Rouge, Dietzel would come up with the innovation that would revolutionize college football, and football on the bayou would never be the same.

Dietzel unveiled his three units—the White Team, the Go Team and the Chinese Bandits—in impressive road victories over Rice and Alabama (in its first game under Bear Bryant), before LSU returned home to defeat Hardin-Simmons.

After crushing Miami and Kentucky, LSU moved to third in the polls for a homecoming showdown against Florida in front of the first sellout crowd in Tiger Stadium history. The 67,500 in attendance weren't disappointed, as the Tigers won 10-7 to move to number one in the Associated Press poll, and LSU then backed up that ranking with a 14-0 shutout of sixth-ranked Ole Miss.

A 50-18 victory over Duke moved LSU up to the top spot in the UPI coaches' poll, but the Tigers nearly lost it all the next week against Mississippi State in Jackson, falling behind 6-0 at halftime before a touchdown in the third quarter, and Tommy Davis' extra point gave LSU a 7-6 triumph, leaving only nemesis Tulane standing between the Tigers and the brass ring.

The Green Wave held sway in the first half, limiting the Tigers to two field goals and a 6-0 lead at intermission, but in the second half, the Wave was swallowed up, as the Tigers scored an incredible 56 points, including 35 in the fourth quarter, to win 62-0 and leave no doubt as to who was number one.

LSU then took its victory lap in the Sugar Bowl against Clemson with a 7-0 victory and the perfect ending to the first perfect season at LSU in exactly 50 years.

Overall Record: 9-1-1 | SEC Record: 6-0 | Coach Bernie Moore

LSU started off in fine fashion against a pair of SWC powers, defeating Rice 20-7 at home then tying Texas at Austin, 6-6, before destroying Georgia in the SEC opener, 47-7, and shutting out Ole Miss, 13-0.

The Tigers beat border rival Arkansas in Shreveport, 19-7, then blanked Vanderbilt in Music City and Mississippi State in Birmingham, then returned home to down Auburn 19-6 and Southwestern Louisiana 93-0.

LSU finished the regular season by whitewashing rival Tulane, 33-0, leaving the Tigers as the nation's highest scoring team with 281 points. The Tigers finished runner-up in the AP poll to Minnesota, but took national championship honors in the Williamson poll. The Tigers' season went sour again in the Sugar Bowl, though, as coach Buck Shaw's Santa Clara club shocked LSU 21-14.

Overall Record: 9-2 | SEC Record: 5-0 | Coach Bernie Moore

The start of the season proved to be tough for LSU as Rice came to Baton Rouge and handed the Tigers a 10-7 defeat.

But led by the exploits of a freshman end named Gaynell Tinsley, the Tigers would not lose again in the regular season. It started with an 18-6 win over Texas in which the Tigers scored two fourth-quarter touchdowns for the victory, then continued all the way to New York City with a 32-0 rout of Manhattan, then to Shreveport for a win over Arkansas and on to Nashville with a 7-2 victory over Vanderbilt in the SEC opener.

Auburn would fall in a 6-0 tussle in Death Valley, but no opponent the rest of the way would be that close. The Tigers then disposed of Mississippi State and Georgia before crushing Southwestern Louisiana 56-0 and Tulane 41-0 to end the season 9-1 and send SEC champion LSU to its first bowl game ever, a Sugar Bowl date with Sammy Baugh's TCU Horned Frogs.

With heavy rains turning the Tulane Stadium field to slop, the expecting passing matchup between Baugh and LSU's Abe Mickal never developed. Baugh threw an incomplete pass in the end zone for a safety that gave LSU a 2-0 lead, but the Frogs drove for a game-winning field goal and 3-2 triumph in front of an overflow crowd of 35,000.

BILLY CANNON HB

1959 Heisman Trophy Winner

Even by today's standards Billy Cannon was a rare athlete, combining sprinter speed with brute strength.

Cannon could consistently run a 9.5 in the 100-yard dash and, at 6-1, 210 pounds, he had the size to overpower his opponents as well as outrun them. In 1957, he was an immediate standout as a sophomore, offensively and defensively.

As a junior, Cannon was the driving force behind the Fighting Tigers as they carved out a perfect season and captured the 1958 national championship. He passed for a touchdown and kicked the extra point in LSU's 7-0 win over Clemson in the Sugar Bowl, and earned MVP honors.

Cannon's most memorable performance came in 1959 against Ole Miss. Top-ranked LSU trailed the third-ranked Rebels 3-0 early in the fourth quarter, when Cannon fielded a punt at the LSU 11 and broke seven tackles on his way to paydirt. LSU won the contest 7-3. Considered one of the best collegiate backs of his era, Cannon was awarded the Heisman Trophy at the conclusion of the 1959 season.

Billy Cannon was presented with the 1959 Heisman Trophy by then Vice President Richard Nixon.

25 JOSH REED WR

2001 Biletnikoff Award Winner

When one thinks of some of the finest players in the history of the Southeastern Conference, Josh Reed's name will now be included on that list. Reed, who will go down as one of the most decorated players in school history, virtually re-wrote both the LSU and SEC receiving record books despite playing only 28 games at wide receiver.

Originally signed out of Rayne (La.) High School as a tailback, Reed moved to wide receiver in week 9 of the 1999 season out of a necessity. The results were immediate as he caught five passes for 100 yards against Houston in just his second game at the position.

A year later, in 2000, Reed earned First-Team All-SEC honors after catching 65 passes for 1,127 yards and 10 touchdowns for the 8-4 Tigers. His 102.5 yards receiving a contest led the SEC and he ranked second in the league with just under six catches a game.

Reed put together the finest year for a receiver in SEC history in 2001 as he shattered the league's single-season yardage mark with 1,740 yards on a school-record 94 catches. Reed set a pair of league marks in a 35-21 road victory over Alabama as he hauled in 19 passes for 293 yards and a touchdown. He capped his record-setting career in grand fashion, setting a pair of Sugar Bowl record with 14 receptions for 239 yards and two touchdowns in leading the Tigers to a 47-34 victory over Illinois.

At the conclusion of his junior season, Reed was named the winner of the Biletnikoff Award, which is presented annually to the nation's top collegiate receiver. Reed was drafted with the fourth pick of the second round of the 2002 NFL Draft by the Buffalo Bills.

TCU 3, LSU 2

Four days of rain turned an expected passing battle into a punting duel between quarterbacks Sammy Baugh of TCU and LSU's Abe Mickal. The Tigers threatened often, once getting to the six-inch line, but TCU's Taldon Manton kicked a winning 36-yard field goal. LSU scored when All-America end Gaynell Tinsley harassed Baugh into throwing an incompletion in the TCU end zone for an automatic safety.

Charles Alexander won Offensive Player of the Game honors as he set a pair of Sun Bowl rushing records, carrying 31 times for 197 yards, but LSU mistakes and a superb passing attack by the Pac-8 team enabled the westerners to take the victory. LSU scored the second time it had the ball, but Stanford racked up a touchdown and a field goal for a brief lead which LSU topped with a final minute, first half six-pointer to take a 14-10 lead into intermission. The second half was all Stanford as quarterback Guy Benjamin added two more TD passes to his second period strike for the triumph.

Missouri 20, LSU 15

It was a case of two separate games: the first half was all Missouri and the second half all LSU. The only trouble was that the Big 8 team put more points on the board in its half than the SEC entry did in its. Missouri piled up a seemingly commanding 20-3 halftime advantage, but Coach Charles McClendon's charges came out firing. Although they were not able to overcome the score, they did pile up 247 yards to 84, and 15 first downs to four for Missouri. All-America tailback Charles Alexander played his last game as a Tiger and made it memorable as he gained 133 yards on 24 carries.

LSU 34, Wake Forest 10

It was the end of the Cholly Mac era and it was a glorious end! The Tigers were 10 feet off the ground as they dashed out of their dressing room and immediately gave notice it was going to be their night. The first three times they had the ball they drove downfield, scoring two touchdowns and missing the third when they lost a fumble at the goal line. From then on, it was just a matter of what the final score would be.

January 1, 1983 (54,407)

Nebraska 21, LSU 20

In one of the most exciting games in LSU history, the Tigers came within an eyelash of upsetting powerful Nebraska. Leading 17-7 late in the third period by virtue of two Dalton Hilliard touchdown runs and a 28-yard Juan Carlos Betanzos field goal, it appeared the Bayou Bengals were on the verge of the upset of the year. But two late touchdowns by the Cornhuskers offset a 49-yard Betanzos field goal, and the Tigers' noble efforts resulted in a one-point heartbreaker.

1985 Sugar Bowl

Superdome • New Orleans, La.
January 1, 1985 (75,608)

Nebraska 28, LSU 10

The 1985 Sugar Bowl featured LSU against Big 8 Conference champion Nebraska. It had been a remarkable turnaround season for LSU. The Tigers finished 8-2-1 after going 4-7 (0-6 in SEC play) the year before in 1983. Bill Arnsparger, in his first year as the LSU head coach, made believers out of everyone in the state of Louisiana with the Tigers surprising ascension in 1984.

A heavy underdog, LSU jumped out to a quick 10-0 lead over the Tom Osborne's Cornhuskers. Freshmen kicker Ronnie Lewis put LSU on the board with 4:40 left in the first period drilling a 37-yard field goal.

Dalton Hilliard, LSU's outstanding running back, who saw limited playing time due to a case of the flu, scored with 13:11 left in the second period on a 2-yard run putting the Tigers ahead 10-0.

Nebraska woke up after that and scored on its next possession. Quarterback Craig Sunberg hit receiver Doug Dubose on a 31-yard TD pass with 10:31 left in the second quarter, cutting the lead to 10-7.

The second half was all Nebraska. The Huskers scored one touchdown in the third quarter when Sunberg scored from nine-yards out to take the lead 14-10. Two fourth quarter touchdown passes by Sunberg to Todd Frain sealed the deal and Nebraska pulled away for a 28-10 win.

Baylor 21, LSU 7

The Tigers got on the scoreboard first, but that would be all the scoring LSU could muster, as the Baylor defense stopped the Tigers, 21-7, before 40,186 at Liberty Bowl Memorial Stadium in Memphis. Norman Jefferson provided the LSU heroics with a 79-yard punt return with 5:17 left in the first quarter that would give the Tigers a 7-0 lead. The return would be a Liberty Bowl record and Jefferson's second scoring return in an LSU uniform. Baylor's high-powered offense was able to gain 489 yards against LSU's defense while the Tigers settled for 192 yards. Jeff Wickersham completed 11-of-24 passes for 95 yards while Dalton Hilliard carried 20 times for 66 yards.

1987 Sugar Bowl

Superdome • New Orleans, La.
January 1, 1987 (76,234)

Nebraska 30, LSU 15

In Bill Arnsparger's final game as LSU head coach, No. 6 Nebraska ripped off 30 unanswered points to beat the Tigers 30-15.

The Cornhuskers swarmed all over standout LSU freshmen quarterback Tommy Hodson giving him little time to throw the football. Meanwhile, the Nebraska offense flourished en route to defeating No. 5 LSU.

The loss was LSU's fourth straight in a bowl and dropped LSU's Sugar Bowl mark to 3-7, in what would be the Tigers' final appearance in the New Orleans classic until 2002. LSU scored first on a one-yard run by Harvey Williams, capping a 66-yard drive on the first series of the game.

Nebraska's scoring started with a field goal by Dale Klein. Quarterback Steve Taylor polished off a 72-yard drive with a 2-yard touchdown run with 39 seconds before halftime to give the Cornhuskers a 10-7 lead. Nebraska came out in the second half and marched 78 yards for another score on a 1-yard run by running back Tyreese Knox, building its lead to 17-7. Completing a run of 30 unanswered points, Nebraska added two fourth quarter touchdowns on a three-yard pass from Taylor to tight end Todd Millikan and another 1-yard plunge by Knox. With 2:01 left in the game, Hodson completed a 24-yard touchdown pass to receiver Tony Moss. A successful two-point conversion pass to Alvin Lee made the score 30-15.

The Tigers closed out Mike Archer's first year as head coach in grand fashion with a resounding 30-13 win over South Carolina. The LSU defense ran the South Carolina offense into confusion, but it was the offense that owned the show as the pitch-and-catch combination of Tommy Hodson and Wendell Davis thrilled the crowd of 82,119. LSU jumped out to a 14-0 lead before the Gamecocks could put a field goal on the board. The Tigers led 20-6 at the half and rolled from there in the second half. Davis--the game's MVP--caught nine passes for 132 yards and three touchdowns.

Syracuse 23, LSU 10

The Tigers went to Tampa, Fla., as co-champions of the Southeastern Conference, but came up short in this game as a solid Syracuse offense was spurred by the running halfback Robert Drummond. A stingy Orangeman defense held the Tigers at bay. Drummond was the offensive star of the game, running for 122 yards on 23 carries while Tiger quarterback Tommy Hodson was picked off three times by the aggressive Syracuse defenders. A crowd of 51,112 was on hand in Tampa Stadium for this January 2 game that saw Syracuse jump out to a 10-0 lead before the Tigers got a touchdown on the board to make it 10-7 at the half. But the last two quarters belonged to Syracuse as LSU finished its season at 8-4.

The Tigers wrapped up the first year of the Gerry DiNardo era with a 45-26 win over Michigan State before a sellout crowd of 48,835. The teams battled evenly in a first half of big plays that included a 78-yard TD pass by Michigan State on the second play of the game, an Eddie Kennison kickoff return for a touchdown for LSU, a Michigan State kickoff return for a touchdown and a 51-yard TD run by Kevin Faulk that contributed to a 24-21 MSU halftime lead. But the Tigers broke it open in the second half with 24 unanswered points, including a fumble return for a touchdown by defensive end Gabe Northern. In all, LSU set or tied 11 Independence Bowl records in the romp.

LSU 10, Clemson 7

Quarterback Herb Tyler led a balanced LSU attack against a stubborn Clemson squad to send the LSU Tigers to a 10-7 win in the Peach Bowl at the Georgia Dome. The win gave the Tigers their second straight bowl win and their first 10-win season in nine years. Clemson struck first, taking a 7-0 lead when quarterback Nealon Greene took the ball in from five yards out after LSU had turned the ball over deep in Clemson territory. But it would be Clemson's only points of the night. In the second quarter, Kevin Faulk capped a seven-play, 80-yard LSU drive with a three-yard touchdown run and Wade Richey added a 22-yard field goal before intermission for a 10-7 LSU lead at the half that would stand the test of the second half. The game was sealed when LSU's Aaron Adams batted away a 52-yard Clemson field goal try with less than two minutes to play.

Rondell Mealey electrified a frigid Independence Bowl crowd with a 222-yard rushing performance to pace LSU to a convincing 27-9 win over Notre Dame, avenging a loss to the Irish during the regular season. Mealey subbed for starter Kevin Faulk who was injured early in the game, and didn't miss a beat. The teams exchanged field goals early before the LSU touchdown surge began. Scott Cengia hit field goals of 33 and 21 yards for the Irish in the first half while Wade Richey booted a 37-yarder for a 6-3 Notre Dame lead at the half. Richey added a 42-yarder early in the second half before LSU's Herb Tyler hit Abram Booty with a 12-yard scoring strike for a 13-6 Tiger lead. Cengia hit one more field goal, a 33-yarder early in the fourth quarter, but the Irish would score no more. Mealey scored twice in the final period on runs of two and one yard to send LSU to victory.

LSU 47, Illinois 34

LSU's high-powered offense led by quarterback Rohan Davey and Josh Reed proved to be too much for seventh-ranked Illinois as the Tigers rolled to a 47-34 win over the Fighting Illini. The win marked LSU's first New Year's Day bowl victory since a win over Wyoming in the 1968 Sugar Bowl. LSU, behind the arm of Davey and the running of tailback Domanick Davis, jumped on the Illini early as the Tigers hit paydirt on a 4-yard Davis run at the 7:22 mark of the first quarter. Davis followed with second-quarter touchdown runs of 25 and 16 yards to give the Tigers a 20-0 lead just 20 minutes into the contest. Davey hit Reed with a 5-yard TD pass with 4:42 left in the first half and then found Robert Royal for a 7-yard scoring strike just before halftime to give the Tigers a 34-7 cushion at the break. Illinois pulled to within 41-28 midway through the fourth quarter, but Davis' fourth touchdown run, a Sugar Bowl record, put the game away for the Tigers at 47-28.

Texas 35, LSU 20

LSU and Texas met on the gridiron for the first time since the 1963 Cotton Bowl and the two teams put on quite a show before a sellout crowd of over 70,000 fans in Dallas. Despite holding only a 10-7 lead after the first quarter, the Tigers dominated the first 15 minutes of the contest. In the first quarter alone, LSU racked up 187 yards of offense compared to zero for the Longhorns. In that first quarter, LSU ran 30 plays for 187 yards, compared to only three plays for zero net yards for the Longhorns. In all, LSU held the ball for just over 13 minutes in the first quarter, while Texas had it for less than two minutes. After a dominating first quarter, the Tigers stretched their lead to 17-7 early in the second quarter on a 10-yard run by Domanick Davis. Texas responded with a pair of TDs to take a 21-17 lead at halftime. LSU's offense never got back on track in the second half as the Tigers managed just a fourth quarter field goal in falling to the Longhorns, 35-20.

Jack Hunt's assist to Corry Webster gave the Tiger the momentum early in the game.

Skyler Green ran 24 yards for touchdown to give the Tigers the early lead.

After an Oklahoma TD, the Tigers rallied back when Justin Vincent ran 18 yards for a touchdown just before halftime to give the LSU a 14-7 lead.

January 4, 2004 (79,342)

LSU 21, Oklahoma 14

Behind a suffocating defense that limited the nation's top scoring offense to only 154 yards, the Tigers claimed their second national title in football with a 21-14 win over Oklahoma in the Sugar Bowl. The victory in the BCS National Championship contest marked LSU's first national title since 1958 and also sent the Tigers, champions of the Southeastern Conference, to a final overall record of 13-1. Running back Justin Vincent earned MVP honors for the game, rushing for 117 yards and one touchdown in leading the Tigers to the victory. Vincent opened the contest with a 64-yard run on the game's first play, opening the door for what appeared to be an early LSU TD. However, quarterback Matt Mauck fumbled the snap on first-and-goal at the 1-yard line to halt the Tiger drive. The Tigers did score on their next possession, which was setup by a Corey Webster interception that gave LSU the ball at the OU 32-yare line. Three plays later, Skyler Green went 24-yards on an end-around, giving the Tigers a 7-0 advantage. The Sooners tied the game at 7-7 midway through the second quarter on a 1-yard plunge by Kejuan Jones, which was setup by a blocked punt. The Tigers led 14-7 at halftime following an 18-yard run by Vincent. LSU struck again early in the second half as Marcus Spears returned an interception 20 yards for a TD just 47 seconds into the third quarter, giving the Tigers a 21-7 advantage. A defensive struggle continued for most of the second half before the Sooners pulled to within 21-14 on another 1-yard run by Jones with just over 11 minutes left in the contest. The teams traded possessions for the next five minutes before the Sooners mounted a drive deep inside LSU territory. OU had first-and-10 at the LSU 12-yard line before the Tigers turned the Sooners away on four straight plays, including a fourth-and-10 situation with 2:52 to play. After another three and out for the Tigers on offense, the Sooners had one final chance. However, the Tigers held the Sooners at bay, sacking quarterback Jason White on fourth-and-10 to secure the victory and the school's first national title in football in 45 years. Defensively, linebacker Lionel Turner led LSU with nine tackles, including a pair of sacks, one of which came on the last offensive play of the game for the Sooners. In all, LSU recorded five sacks in the contest and held the Sooners to only 54 yards rushing.

2003 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

The History of LSU

1860s - 1920s

- The institution opened as the Louisiana State Seminary of Learning near Pineville, La., on January 2, 1860 and subsequently closed June 30, 1861, because of the Civil War. It reopened on April 1, 1862, but was again closed on April 23, 1863, due to the invasion of the Red River Valley by the federal army.
- The seminary reopened October 2, 1865, but was destroyed by fire on October 15, 1869. The seminary moved to Baton Rouge, reopening on November 1, 1869, where it has since remained. In 1870, the name of the institution was changed to Louisiana State University.
- The Louisiana State Agricultural & Mechanical College was established in New Orleans in 1874. The two institutions were merged on Jan. 2, 1877, and began their first joint session on Oct. 5, 1877.
- In 1886, the federal garrison grounds (now the site of the state capitol) were formally declared the domicile of the University. Land for the present campus was purchased in 1918, and construction began in 1922.
- On Nov. 25, 1893, LSU played its first football game, and three years later LSU adopted the tiger as the official mascot.

1920s

- With the support of Governor John M. Parker and the approval of a severance tax during the constitutional convention of 1921, the construction of the new campus, known today as Louisiana State University Agricultural and Mechanical College, began.
- The Gym-Armory was built in 1925 west of the academic quadrangle for the purpose of housing the LSU basketball team and other indoor sporting events. Tiger Stadium was completed in 1924 and on Thanksgiving Day of that year, Tulane and LSU played the first game on the new campus. In 1928, upward expansion added 10,000 seats to the 12,000-seat stadium.
- The formal dedication of the new campus took place on Friday, April 30, 1926. The date was chosen because on April 30, 1803 the United States Congress signed the Louisiana Purchase documents.

1930s

- During this time many of LSU's live oaks and magnolias were planted by landscape artist Steele Burden for what has become a symbolic part of the great legacy at LSU. The live oak trees on LSU's campus have been valued at more than $36 million. Through the LSU Foundation's "Endow an Oak" program, individuals or groups are able to endow live oaks across campus.
- In 1930, the student body adopted the alma mater that still is in use today. LSU is the home of The Southern Review, one of the world's most prestigious literary journals, established in 1935 by Robert Penn Warren, Cleanth Brooks, Albert Erskine, and Charles Pipkin.

- The Huey P. Long Fieldhouse, named in honor of the former Louisiana Govenor and U.S. Senator, was constructed in 1932 and served as the campus' first student union. The Long Fieldhouse contained administrative offices and an outdoor pool that was the world's largest at the time.
- In 1937, two new athletic venues were completed and expanded. The John M. Parker Coliseum opened and served as a multipurpose arena mostly for livestock shows and rodeos. It was also used for commencements and convocations and served as home of the LSU basketball team. Alex Box Stadium also served as the football practice field. Tiger Stadium received its second expansion, adding a north endzone and bringing the capacity to 46,000.
- Huey P. Long and Castro Carazo teamed up to co-author notable songs, including "Touchdown for LSU." During his tenure at LSU, Carazo compiled one of the most complete university band libraries in America.

1940s

- The ROTC program, mandatory until 1969, carries on what is perhaps the universities' oldest tradition. The military heritage that has been part of the institution since its beginning has given LSU the nickname, "Ole War Skule." In WWII, only Texas A&M and the military academeis of Annapolis and West Point were equal to the Ole War Skule in providing officers to the armed forces.
- In 1943, the LSU Band invited its first coed member.

1950s

- In 1950 LSU enrolled its first African American student into its graduate program. Throughout the 1950s, air conditioning slowly began to be phased into administration and classroom buildings throughout the campus.
- A.P. Tureaud, Jr., enrolled, but resigned before the end of the fall term in 1953, while Brown vs. The Board of Education of Topeka, Kansas, struck down racial segregation in public schools a year later.
- Tiger Stadium was expanded in 1957 with the south endzone providing the final piece to completely enclose the stadium. The enclosure provided not only additional seating but also men's dormitories. Stadium capacity was now 67,720.
- The LSU Tiger Football team won the 1958 National Championship, defeating Clemson, 7-0, in the Sugar Bowl and finishing with an 11-0 season. The Tigers then earned the school's second national title in football in 2004, defeating Oklahoma 21-14 in the Sugar Bowl.

1960s

- In 1964, a $5.5 million student union was built to serve the university in many capacities. The three-story facility includes a 1,315 seat theatre, 333 seat movie cinema, bowling lanes, game room and pool hall, post office, cafeteria, and a craft shop, as well as ballrooms and conference rooms for hosting seminars and special events.

- Also in 1964, six black students enrolled as undergraduates.
- By the end of the decade, rising tensions due to U.S. involvement in the Vietnam War was mounting. The LSU ROTC program became a target for protestors, as dissatisfaction with the war increased. The pressure increased for LSU to either cancel its program or make it voluntary. In October 1968, the LSU Faculty Council voted to make the ROTC program voluntary, and on May 26, 1969 the LSU Board of Supervisors made it official.

1970s

- Former professor T. Harry Williams was honored with the Pulitzer Prize for his biography of Huey Long in 1970.
- With the growing popularity of collegiate athletics, two new athletic facilities were built and another was expanded. In 1971, LSU basketball introduced a state-of-the-art 15,000-seat multipurpose arena. The Assembly Center would eventually be named the Pete Maravich Assembly Center and nicknamed "The PMAC" following the death of LSU basketball and NBA legend "Pistol" Pete Maravich in 1988.
- In 1974, Athletics Director Carl Maddox expanded the growing LSU athletic compound with the addition of a multipurpose sports and recreational complex that now bears his name, the Carl Maddox Fieldhouse. Tiger Stadium was expanded in 1978 by adding 8,000 seats in a new West Upper Deck to lead the Tiger football program into the next decade with a capacity of nearly 80,000 seats.
- In 1978, LSU was named a sea-grant college becoming one of only 25 universities nationwide to be recognized as both a land-grant and sea-grant institution.

1980s

- In 1985, the Natatorium was built for the LSU Swimming & Diving program as the United States Sports Festival came to Baton Rouge.
- James Wharton introduced a new admissions policy that would increase university admission standards. The standards would require high school students to complete a list of core requirements throughout their high school careers. In 1987, the board of supervisors approved the proposed admission standards.
- In 1987, LSU was designated as a Research University I, putting it in the top 2 percent of the nation's colleges and universities. Only 80 universities, 59 public and 29 private, share this designation.

1990s

- In 1992, The Student Recreational Sports Complex opened to rave reviews by LSU students and faculty.
- On May 20, 1994, the LSU Alumni Association dedicated its new home. Special honorees attending were Lod Cook, President Gerald Ford, President Jimmy Carter, President George Bush, White House Chief of Staff Mac McLardy, and Governor Edwin Edwards.

- Head Coach Skip Bertman built the LSU baseball program into one of the most dominating programs in the country. With National Championships coming in 1991, 1993, 1996, and 1897, the Tigers would continue their dynasty into the next century by winning their fifth title in 2000. By the late 1990s' the LSU Tiger baseball team became known as the "Program of the Decade" by all of college baseball.
- Speaking of dynasties, LSU Head Track & Field Coach Pat Henry managed to reach major milestones throughout his tenure at LSU. He has led the Lady Tiger track & field team to 22 National Titles, 12 outdoor and 10 indoor, including the 2004 indoor title.
- Henry's men's teams have won five NCAA titles, most recently the 2004 indoor crown. Henry is the only coach in NCAA history to guide both the men's and women's team to NCAA titles in the same year. Under Henry's direction, the LSU track & field program has attained unparalleled success: 27 NCAA titles and 19 SEC crowns.

2000s

- In 2000, LSU opened its home football season to a newly expanded Tiger Stadium. With an additional 11,600 seats due to the East Upper Deck addition and 70 Tiger Den Suites, Tiger Stadium is now the sixth largest on-campus arena in college football with a seating capacity of 91,600.
- In 2001, the Lod Cook Hotel and Conference Center opened on the LSU campus giving Tiger fans and visitors a full-service hotel on campus.
- In 2002, the $15 million renovation to the Gym-Armory to provide the Cox Xommunication Academic Center for Student-Athletes was completed, giving LSU student-athletes one of the nation's top facilites for learning.
- Pat Henry's track and field dynasty continues into the 21st century as the Tigers have now captured 27 national titles under Henry. Most recently, LSU became the first school to win both the men's and women's indoor titles in the season season when both programs captured the crown in 2004. As a University, LSU has accounted for 43 national titles and 105 Southeastern Conference titles.
- Nick Saban, on his way to National Coach of the Year honors, led the 2003 football team to the national title, defeating Oklahoma in the 2004 Nokia Sugar Bowl to cap a 13-1 season, including a win over Georgia in the SEC Championship game.
- President George W. Bush addressed the graduating class of 2004 in the spring commencement ceremony at the Pete Maravich Assembly Center. Bush became the first sitting president to make a commencement address at LSU.

President, LSU

On April 1, 1999, Dr. William L. Jenkins, formerly Chancellor of Louisiana State University and Agricultural & Mechanical College, became president of the LSU System, which includes nine institutions on 10 campuses in five cities, as well as 10 public hospitals in 10 cities. With the departure of Chancellor Mark Emmert in mid-June, the LSU Board of Supervisors asked President Jenkins to again assume the role of Interim Chancellor until a successor for Dr. Emmert can be selected.

A native of South Africa, Dr. Jenkins studied at the University of Pretoria, where he received his professional veterinary medicine degree in 1958 and specialist credentials in 1968. He received his Ph.D. degree from the University of Missouri , Columbia, in 1970. After practicing veterinary medicine for four years, he joined the faculty at the University of Pretoria, advancing through the ranks to become professor and head of the Department of Veterinary Physiology, Pharmacology, & Toxicology in 1971.

He moved to the United States in 1978 and joined the faculty in the Department of Veterinary Physiology & Pharmacology at Texas A&M University. He was appointed dean of the LSU School of Veterinary Medicine in 1988, and was named LSU's provost and vice chancellor for academic affairs in September 1993.

When he was appointed LSU's fifth chancellor in November 1996, Dr. Jenkins reorganized the campus administration to be more effective and more responsive, and oversaw the development of a strategic plan to guide the University in its preparation for the challenges of the next century.

Over the years, Dr. Jenkins has received numerous teaching and service awards and recognitions, having been named the 1997 Communicator of the Year by the Public Relations Association of Louisiana and a Distinguished Alumnus by the University of Missouri in 1999. The regional chapter of Toastmasters International also presented him with its 1999 Communication and Leadership Award, and he was awarded the Vision of Excellence Award 2000 by the New Orleans Regional Chamber of Commerce and the New Orleans Chapter of MetroVision. In addition, the University of Pretoria awarded an honorary doctoral degree to Dr. Jenkins in September 2000.

Dr. Jenkins has been active in continuing education and has delivered more than 150 lectures and addresses to diverse groups in both the United States and abroad. He has taught extensively at both the professional and graduate levels. He has published more than 60 scientific articles and has contributed 15 chapters to various textbooks. He is co-author of a textbook on veterinary pharmacology.

Dr. Jenkins has been and continues to be a member of many professional organizations and select committees. Most recently he served on the National Institute of Health's Alcohol Abuse and Misuse on College Campuses Committee and on a special Steering Committee of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools to review accreditation criteria for colleges and universities. Dr. Jenkins also is a member of the National Association of State Universities and Land Grant Colleges' Committee on Food and Society and currently serves on the Governor's Advisory Commission on Coastal Restoration and Conservation.

His current community engagement includes serving on the boards of the Louisiana Endowment for the Humanities, Greater Baton Rouge Chamber of Commerce, Academic Distinction Fund, Council for a Better Louisiana, Arts Council of Greater Baton Rouge, The Nature Conservancy of Louisiana, and the Baton Rouge board of the National Conference for Community and Justice.

Dr. Jenkins and his wife, Peggy, have four children -Sharon, Gwynn, Anthea, and Warren- and nine grandchildren.

Kenneth E. Carpenter, Faculty Athletics Representative

Kenneth E. Carpenter is in his second year as LSU's faculty representative in NCAA and Southeastern Conference matters.

Carpenter, a professor in the School of Architecture, has taught at LSU since 1986. He received his bachelor's degree in architecture from the University of Oklahoma in 1962 and his master's from the University of Minnesota in 1967. Before joining the LSU faculty, he served at Clemson University as associate professor of architecture from 1967-77; Ball State University, where he was professor and chairman of the Department of Architecture, 1977-81; and, Iowa State University, serving as professor and chairman, Department of Architecture from 1981-86.

At LSU he served as the dean of the College of Design from 1986-1997; Interim Executive Director of International Programs from 1997-98; and Interim Dean of the College of Art and Design from 2001-02.

Carpenter is a member of Phi Kappa Phi, the American Institute of Architects, and the American Association of University Professors.

Athletics Director Skip Bertman

Already a Louisiana Legend and one of the greatest college baseball coaches of all time, J. Stanley "Skip" Bertman has made the seamless transition into the athletics director's chair with the same enthusiasm, vision and demand for excellence that were trademarks of his stellar coaching career.

In just three years as LSU's director of athletics, Bertman has already added to his impressive list of on-the-field achievements. Under his direction, LSU enjoyed arguably the greatest athletics year in the history of the institution in 2003-04. Three teams won national championships, nine teams finished in the nation's top ten, and fourteen teams ranked in the top 25. LSU teams also enjoyed improved grade point averages across the board, making the LSU student-athlete experience a success on and off the fields of competition.

While supervising the Tigers' progress on the playing fields, he has begun to implement measures necessary to realize his vision of building the LSU athletics department into the best in the country. Bertman's bold and innovative plans promise to keep the Tigers among the nation's elite in all phases of collegiate athletics.

Bertman is now in the midst of upgrading LSU's athletics complex. Working hand in hand with the Tiger Athletic Foundation, Bertman has already overseen the completion of the Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes while launching renovations to Tiger Stadium and the Pete Maravich Assembly Center, and beginning construction on a new Football Operations Center.

It was also Bertman who took the bold but essential move to implement a seat contribution program in Tiger Stadium to fund facility improvements and ensure the financial stability of the LSU Athletics Department for the next decade.

Bertman was named LSU's athletics director on January 19, 2001. With Bertman, LSU gained an athletics director who provides the leadership and experience necessary to manage the Tigers' $52 million budget.

Bertman guided LSU to five NCAA baseball titles, and his teams drew huge crowds to venerable Alex Box Stadium, as the Tigers led the nation in attendance in each of his final six seasons (1996-2001).

He also served as head coach of the 1996 U.S. Olympic team which captured the bronze medal in Atlanta.

Bertman continues to be honored for his remarkable coaching tenure, as he was inducted in June, 2002, into the Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame. He was inducted into the American Baseball Coaches Association Hall of Fame in January, 2003.

In a Baseball America poll published in 1999, Bertman was voted the second greatest college baseball coach of the 20th century, trailing only Rod Dedeaux of Southern California. Bertman and Dedeaux are the only coaches to win five CWS titles.

He had previously earned recognition as one of the nation's brightest assistant coaches while at the University of Miami (Fla.) for eight seasons (1976-83). Before working at Miami, Bertman was renowned for his coaching excellence. In 11 seasons at Miami Beach High School, he directed the Hi-Tides to a state championship and two runners-up finishes and he was named Florida's Coach of the Year on three occasions.

In 1975, Bertman coached at Miami-Dade Downtown, leaving after one season to join legendary head coach Ron Fraser at Miami. The move was a homecoming of sorts, as Bertman spent his collegiate playing days with the Hurricanes as an outfielder and catcher from 1958-60. He earned his B.A. in health and physical education from Miami in 1961 and received his master's degree from UM in 1964.

Bertman and his wife Sandy are the parents of four daughters -- Jan, Jodi, Lisa and Lori. The Bertman's have three grandchildren -- Sophie Faith and Isaac Stanley, the children of Emile and Lori Bertman Guirard, and Samuel Aaron, the son of Drew and Lisa Pate.

The SKIP BERTMAN Legacy

Bertman's unyielding desire to succeed drove him to the pinnacle of his profession, and his astute knowledge of the game -- obtained from over 40 years of coaching -- combined with his steadfast determination and irrepressible enthusiasm transformed LSU Baseball into the nation's premier program.

Dan Radakovich

Sr. Associate Athletics Director

Dan Radakovich enters his fourth year as LSU's senior associate athletics director after joining the university in May of 2001. He came to LSU after serving as director of athletics at American University in Washington D.C.

As LSU's senior associate athletics director, Radakovich oversees the daily operations of the LSU Athletics Department and he serves as Skip Bertman's chief assistant. He also directly supervises the sports of baseball and men's basketball.

Prior to his one-year stint at American University, Radakovich spent six years as the associate athletics director at South Carolina where he directed the financial operations for the Gamecocks' $30 million athletic department budget. He also served as the department liaison for marketing and promotional activities with Host Communications and was responsible for home event management and supervision of concessions, football travel and the video department. Radakovich also worked closely with South Carolina Athletics Director Mike McGee in laying the ground work for a new $70 million arena being built in Columbia. During his tenure with South Carolina, Radakovich supervised the finances and logistics for $33 million in facility improvements.

Radakovich served as the senior associate athletics director at Long Beach State from 1989-94. In that capacity, he managed a $5 million budget and supervised the nationally recognized men's basketball and baseball programs. In addition, Radakovich reorganized the fund-raising operations and coordinated the production and sales of radio broadcasting packages.

Radakovich began his collegiate athletics career as the athletics business manager at the University of Miami in Coral Gables, Fla., from 1983-85. He worked in the private sector for four years before joining Long Beach State.

A native of Aliquippa, Pa., Radakovich graduated from Indiana University of Pennsylvania in 1980 with a bachelor of science degree in finance. Radakovich was also a football letterwinner as well as a student coach at IUP. He then went on to earn his master's degree in business administration from the University of Miami in 1982.

Radakovich is married to the former Marcie McDonald and the couple has two children, Christian (14) and Grant (10).

Judy Southard

Associate Athletics Director/
Senior Women's Administrator

Judy Southard, who had a very successful career as both a head women's basketball coach and director of athletics, enters her fourth year as LSU's Senior Women's Administrator after joining the department in the summer of 2001.

Southard came to LSU from Texas Woman's University, where she served as the school's director of athletics for nine years.

As LSU's Senior Women's Administrator, Southard oversees the highly successful Tiger women's athletics program. She directly supervises volleyball, soccer, women's basketball, softball and men's and women's golf. She is also instrumental in monitoring the department's gender equity and minority issues plan.

Southard has served on numerous national committees during her career in athletic administration. She is currently a member of the NCAA Women's Gymnastics Committee and was named in the summer of 2004 to both the SEC Executive Committee and the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Committee.

While at Texas Woman's University, Southard initiated a corporate partnership program for the athletic department that tripled the involvement of area businesses and corporations in Pioneer athletics. Southard also established the TWU Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame and she played a key role in the addition of softball and soccer to TWU's list of intercollegiate sports. In 2000, Southard served as chair of the NCAA Division II Women's Basketball Committee.

Prior to her nine-year stint at Texas Woman's University, Southard served as head women's basketball coach at Marshall University in Huntington, W. Va., for 11 years, where she led the Lady Herd to five Southern Conference regular-season titles. During her 11 years at Marshall, Southard was named Southern Conference Coach of the Year three times and her career record of 178-130 still stands as a school record for women's basketball victories. Southard also served as assistant athletics director at Marshall from 1983-1988, including a four-month period when she was interim director.

Before going to Marshall, Southard spent three years as head coach at Tennessee-Martin and she also served for one season as an assistant coach at Tennessee. As a high school teacher from 1970-77, Southard coached both basketball and tennis, leading her West Florence High School basketball team to the South Carolina 4A state title in 1976.

A native of Columbia, S.C., Southard earned a bachelor's degree in physical education and health from Coker College in 1970 followed by a master's degree in physical education from Tennessee in 1978.

Verge Ausberry

Associate Athletics Director/Operations

A former LSU football standout Verge Ausberry joined the LSU Athletics Department administrative staff in August 2001.

Ausberry is responsible for all corporate sales and marketing for the LSU Athletics program. He also supervises game management, strength and conditioning, the Dr. Martin Broussard training room, the Jeff Boss Equipment Room and video operations for various sports. He also directly supervises the sports of men's and women's swimming and diving.

Ausberry, from New Iberia, La., played inside linebacker for the Tigers, lettering in 1986-89. He was the leading tackler on the team in both 1988 and 1989 and was part of two Southeastern Conference championship teams (1986 under Bill Arnsparger and 1988 under Mike Archer), playing on teams that went to three bowl games: the 1987 Sugar Bowl, the 1987 Gator Bowl and the 1989 Hall of Fame Bowl. In those three years, the Tigers had a combined overall record of 27-8-1 and 16-3 in SEC games.

Although this is Ausberry's first tour of duty with the administration of the Athletic Department, he has remained very close to the LSU athletic scene in the 1990s, first serving for almost seven years as a member of LSU's highly regarded Academic Center for Athletes where he worked with many of the student-athletes, primarily dealing with LSU's football squad.

After leaving the Academic Center, he moved in July 1999 to the Tiger Athletic Foundation staff as part of LSU's fund-raising arm prior to accepting his present position.

Ausberry received his Bachelor of Science degree in education in May of 1990 and his Master of Education in Administration, Supervision and certification in Child Welfare in May of 1992. He is presently a Doctoral Candidate in Higher Education Administration at LSU. He is married to the former Cheri Morial of New Orleans and they have a son, Austin.

Bo Bahnsen

Associate Athletics Director/Internal Relations

Bo Bahnsen serves as LSU's associate athletics director for internal relations, overseeing the ticket office and all customer service operations, and the integration of the Pete Maravich Assembly Center into athletics department operations.

He also directly supervises the sports of men's and women's indoor and outdoor track and field and men's and women's cross country.

Prior to moving into his current position in December of 2003, Bahnsen◊s primary responsibility for the previous 14 years was to serve as LSU's NCAA compliance officer.

A 1982 graduate of LSU, Bahnsen served as administrative assistant for the men's basketball team for five years before moving into athletics administration as director of purchasing for two years. In 1989, he was assigned his primary responsibility as NCAA compliance officer as assistant athletics director, then was promoted to associate AD in 1996.

Bahnsen has been responsible for overseeing the successful implementation of LSU's Tradition Fund Program, a football seating plan that requires contributions for the right to purchase approximately 45,000 seats in Tiger Stadium beginning with the 2004 football season.

Beginning in July of 2004, the management of the Pete Maravich Assembly Center shifted from the university to the athletics department. Bahnsen will be involved in coordinating the transition and integration of management of the arena.

Bahnsen, 45, served as manager of the LSU basketball team as an undergraduate and became administrative assistant for the team upon graduation in May of 1982. In July 1987 he became administrative assistant to athletics director Joe Dean, overseeing the purchasing office until his promotion in 1989.

A native of El Campo, Texas, Bahnsen graduated from Wharton High School in 1977 and attended Wharton County Junior College for two years before transferring to LSU in 1979. He earned his bachelor of science in physical education and is currently working on his masters in education administration.

Bahnsen is married to the former Karen Mayson, former LSU golfer and current head coach of the Lady Tigers golf program. The couple has two children, Darren (14) and Devin (12).

Mark Ewing

Associate Athletics Director/Business

Mark Ewing, a 20-year employee of Louisiana State University, joined the LSU Athletics Department in January 2001, and serves as the department's associate athletics director for business.

Ewing came to the athletic department from LSU's Office of Budget and Planning. He served as LSU's Budget Director overseeing the development and management of the university's $360 million operating budget.

Prior to his service at LSU, he was employed by Cajun Electric Power Cooperative where he managed accounting for the company's $2 billion plus construction division.

As associate athletics director for business, Ewing has assumed responsibility for the athletic business operations including budget, travel, personnel, and purchasing as well as responsibility for concession operations.

Ewing, who is a native of Pointe Coupee Parish, received a Bachelor's degree in finance from LSU in 1978 and a Master's degree in public administration from LSU in 1995.

Ewing and his wife, Gail, have three daughters, Andrea, Arleen and Molly Sue.

Chris Howard

Associate Athletics Director/Compliance

Chris Howard was named LSU's Associate Athletics Director for Compliance in December of 2003, coming to Baton Rouge from the NCAA Office in Indianapolis.

Howard served as assistant director of enforcement services at the NCAA for two years after one year as a representative for agent, gambling and amateurism issues.

At LSU, Howard serves as the compliance coordinator and liaison between LSU and the NCAA and SEC offices for NCAA rules interpretations and other matters. He is also responsible for developing and coordinating educational components for staff, student-athletes, booster organizations and entities outside the athletics department on NCAA and SEC rules and regulations.

Howard was a combat medical specialist in the United States Army from 1986 to 1995 before earning his undergraduate degree from the University of Kansas in 1997. He earned a Master's degree in education from Kansas in 2001 and a juris doctor degree from the University of Kansas School of Law in 2001.

After serving an internship at Kansas in facility operations and event management, he was named assistant program supervisor in charge of student support services in 1997. Howard moved into private law practice for two years before joining the NCAA office in 2001.

He and his wife Krista have two children, Chris, Jr., and Olivia.

Herb Vincent

Associate Athletics Director/External Affairs

Herb Vincent, the sports information director at LSU from 1988-2000, returned to his alma mater in August 2002 to serve as Associate Athletics Director for External Affairs.

In his present position, Vincent serves as the primary public relations officer for the LSU Athletics Department and all its entities, including the Tiger Athletic Foundation. He also directly supervises the sports of gymnastics and men's and women's tennis.

Vincent served as the LSU sports information director from July 1988 to July 2000. He was appointed assistant athletics director in November of 1989, and then was elevated to Associate AD/Communications in 1992. Besides supervising the LSU Sports Information and the Electronic Media offices, Vincent also was in charge of the athletic photography and coaches' video offices.

He joined LSU as assistant sports information director in February of 1988 and was promoted to the position of SID in July of that year.

Prior to his return to LSU, Vincent served as Vice-President for Communications for the College Sports Southeast regional cable network, headquartered in Birmingham.

Vincent is a 1979 graduate of Catholic High School in Little Rock, Ark., and received a bachelor's degree in journalism from LSU in 1983. He worked as a student assistant in the sports information office directed by CoSIDA Hall of Famer Paul Manasseh during his undergraduate years.

After graduating from LSU, Vincent spent the 1984 season as assistant PR director for the United States Football League's New Orleans Breakers. In 1985, he was assistant PR director for the USFL's Los Angeles Express and was promoted during the season to the PR staff's top position.

Before joining LSU in 1988, Vincent spent one year as assistant SID at Louisiana-Lafayette (then Southwestern Louisiana), where he served as director of athletic publications and the Shreveport native also worked at the Southeastern Conference offices in Birmingham as assistant public relations director in charge of basketball publicity.

Vincent is married to the former Jamey Cavacini of Versailles, Ky.

2003-2004 LSU ATHLETICS

A CHAMPIONSHIP SEASON

LSU enjoyed perhaps its best all-around athletics season ever in 2003-04 as the Tigers claimed three national chamipionships, including the 2003 BCS National Title in football, the first on the gridiron for the school since 1958.

Pat Henry's men's and women's indoor track and field teams became the first program in NCAA history to sweep the national titles at the NCAA Indoor Meet, claiming the school's 42nd and 43rd national championships.

The Lady Tiger basketball team advanced to the Women's Final Four for the first time in school history, while the softball team made its second trip to the Women's College World Series. Smoke Laval led the Tiger baseball team to the College World Series for the second straight year and the 13th time overall.

In all, LSU had nine of its team finish the season ranked among the top 10 in the nation, while 14 of LSU's 20 teams were ranked in the top 25.

In addition to its success on the field of play, the Tigers also had four student-athletes earn Academic All-America honors with another 107 being named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll for the year.

Tiger fans again turned out in record numbers as over 1.2 fans filled LSU stadiums and arenas in 2003-04. The Tiger baseball team led the nation in attendance for the ninth time, while LSU's football team averaged a school-record 90,974 fans per game, a figure that ranked sixth nationally.

LSU's success athletically coupled with its academic achievement made the 2003-04 season one of the best in the history of Tiger athletics.

2003-04 LSU Athletics: A Championship Season

A record 1.2 million fans watched LSU athletics in all 20 sports during the 2003-04 athletic season.

All-Sports Success

LSU's athletics program has traditionally been strong throughout all of its varsity sports and has fielded nationally competitive teams in most of its sports.

A total of 18 of LSU's 20 athletic teams participated in NCAA postseason play last year with 14 of the sports finishing the year ranked among the top 25 in the nation. LSU had nine of its team ranked in the top 10 for their respective sports last year.

LSU ranked No. 11 in the nation in the United States Sports Academy Directors' Cup for the 2003-04 season.

In all, LSU has won an SEC-leading 43 national titles, including three during the 2003-04 year. In addition, LSU ran its all-time SEC titles to 105 by winning conference championships in football and softball in 2003-04.

Athletics as a Business

Athletics is mistakenly thought of as merely entertainment. In fact, the total revenues of over $37.5 million generated annually by the Athletic Department is:

- twice that of the sales of an average manufacturing plant in Louisiana
- twice the volume of an average food processor
- about seven times more than the typical apparel plant in the state

Attendance

LSU teams draw some of the largest crowds in all of college athletics:

- More than 1.2 million fans watched LSU athletics in all 20 sports during the 2003-04 athletic year.
- Since 1957, LSU has averaged over 74,000 fans a contest in football, including over 90,000 for the past three seasons.
- In 2003, LSU football set a school-record by averaging 90,974 fans a contest, a number that ranked sixth nationally. The 90,974 average per game, made Tiger Stadium more populated than 51 of Louisiana's 64 parishes.
- LSU baseball set the standard in college baseball for attendance again in 2004 as more than 291,000 fans watched the Tigers play at Alex Box Stadium in regular and postseason play.

CHAMPS Program

LSU sponsors a fully funded life skills program for student-athletes. The program is called CHAMPS, an acronym for Challenging Athletes Minds for Personal Success. Under the CHAMPS program, LSU sets up a number of projects and workshops that aid student-athletes in addressing day-to-day living situations, handling stress and preparing for post-college life.

Under the CHAMPS program, LSU also establishes community service projects in which student-athletes organize and participate. The LSU CHAMPS program sponsors an annual Halloween "Boo-Zar" on campus. The boozar is a trick-or-treat night in the LSU Field House in which athletes from all sports distribue candy to Baton Rouge area children. Each athletic team participates in CHAMPS workshops, which educate them in life skills and personal development.

Community Involvement

Because of the athletic facilities on the LSU campus, Baton Rouge is able to attract many events and conventions that benefit the community in both public relations and monetary means. LSU has played host to such events as the National Sports Festival (now called the Olympic Festival) and the International Special Olympics. In 2001, LSU hosted the U.S. Senior Olympics and in the past has played host to the U.S. Junior National Track & Field Championships.

The LSU campus is annually the site of the LHSAA Track & Field Championships as well as the Louisiana High School All-Star Games, bringing to campus thousands of young people and their parents. Most recently, LSU hosted the 2002 NCAA Outdoor Track & Field Championships at Bernie Moore Stadium.

Economic Impact

LSU has a tremendous impact on the economy of the Baton Rouge area. LSU sporting events bring money into the Baton Rouge economy, not only from throughout the state, but throughout the southeast.

According to a study by LSU economics professor Loren Scott, the existence of LSU Athletics generates $131 million in sales for businesses in the Baton Rouge community, another $40 million in household earnings and supports over 2,100 jobs in the Baton Rouge area.

Finances

The LSU Athletic Department is a totally self-sufficient auxiliary of the University. No state tax dollars are used to finance LSU athletics. All money spent by the Athletic Department is generated by the department through ticket sales, corporate sponsorships, radio and television revenue, the Tiger Gift Center and concessions, and is supplemented through revenue-sharing resulting from LSU's membership in the Southeastern Conference.

Individual Athletes

Year in and year out, LSU boasts some of the most renowned athletes in all of college athletics.

Former NBA Most Valuable Player and worldwide entertainment superstar Shaquille O'Neal delighted Tiger basketball fans for three seasons. Former PGA Champion David Toms played for the Tigers in the late 1980s, while Major League Baseball standouts Todd Walker and Paul Byrd learned their trade at Alex Box Stadium. Four former LSU football players were members of the 2004 NFL Super Bowl Champions New England Patriots.

Sometimes overlooked are some of the finest female athletes in the country in their respective sports: golfer Meredith Duncan, softball All-American Britni Sneed, women's basketball All-American Marie Ferdinand, and track superstar Muna Lee have dazzled LSU fans in recent years.

Job Placement

Is there life after college athletics? LSU is helping to answer that question with a job placement program as part of the Ninth Semester Program. LSU works closely with the Career Placement Center on campus as well as professional recruiting services to offer advice to athletes on entering the job market upon graduation.

National Awards

LSU has had one winner each of the Heisman Trophy, Adolph Rupp Award and Golden Spikes Award, the premier individual awards in football, basketball and baseball. The Heisman Trophy, given annually to college football's best player, was won by Billy Cannon in 1959. The Adolph Rupp Award, which goes to college basketball's top player, was won by Shaquille O'Neal in 1991. The Golden Spikes Award, given to college baseball's most outstanding player each year, was won by Ben McDonald in 1989. In 2001, Josh Reed added his name to the list as he claimed the Biletnikoff Award, which goes annually to the nation's top receiver.

National Championships

LSU has won 43 national titles in its athletic history, the most of any school in the SEC. Most recently, the Tigers claimed three national titles during the 2003-04 season with championships being brought back to Baton Rouge in football and men's and women's indoor track and field.

Stadiavision

At all LSU football games in Tiger Stadium, basketball games at the Pete Maravich Assembly Center and baseball games at Alex Box Stadium, live action is shown on monitors near concession stands and restrooms so fans won't miss the action in progress.

Tiger Gift Center

LSU operates a fully stocked merchandise store on the campus, giving fans a wide array of LSU clothing and memorabilia. The Gift Center is open on football, basketball and baseball game days for fans' convenience. The Tiger Gift Center also went worldwide during the 2000-01 season as LSU merchandise can now be purchased from anywhere in the world on LSU's website, LSUsports.net or at LSUtigergifts.com.

University Involvement

LSU continues to produce profits in its athletic department, despite generally difficult economic times for college athletic programs.

Athletics has contributed over $10 million to the academic side of the university in the past 13 years. In 1994-95, athletics contributed $100,000 to the LSU Libraries to assist in buying books and other materials necessary to keep LSU's library system among the finest in the nation, and in 1996 generated over $30,000 by dedicating all ticket sales from the Spring Football Game to the libraries. Most recently, the LSU athletic department purchased new uniforms for the Tiger Marching Band, which will be on display for the first time during the 2004 football season.

After the 1988-89 fiscal year, LSU Athletics donated $2 million to the general fund of the university to help offset projected losses. LSU Athletics has also donated sizeable amounts of money to fund professorships and provide for repairs in academic facilities.

The Southeastern Conference

The Southeastern Conference, with its storied 72-year history of athletic achievements and academic excellence, has built perhaps the greatest tradition of intercollegiate competition of any league in the country since its inception in 1933.

The 2003-04 academic year was another season to remember for the SEC as conference teams captured six national titles and nine national runner-up finishes. In the last 15 years, the SEC has won 100 national team championships for an average of more than six per year.

LSU won the conference's first three NCAA titles of the year, in men and women's indoor track and football. Auburn won both the men and women's swimming & diving titles and Arkansas won the men's outdoor track & field championships. Georgia finished first among Southeastern Conference schools and fifth overall in the Sears Trophy final standings.

Overall, the SEC finished in the top two in 10 of its 20 sponsored sports and in the top five in 15 of the 20 sports. Seven SEC teams participated in football postseason bowls with LSU wining the BCS Championship game. Six men's and seven women's basketball teams were invited to the NCAA Tournament with LSU and Tennessee advancing to the Women's Final Four. An NCAA record nine teams advanced to postseason play in baseball with four teams (Arkansas, Georgia, LSU and South Carolina) advancing to the College World Series.

With 170 teams, over eight per sport, advancing to NCAA postseason competition, the SEC continued to solidify its place as the nation's premier conference.

In addition to the six team championships, 81 SEC student-athletes garnered individual national championships, while 498 individuals were awarded with first-team All-America honors. Student-athletes around the league continued to excel in the classroom as well with 1,954 earning recognition on the SEC Academic Honor Roll.

On the national all-sport level, the SEC placed seven teams in the top 30 of theSears/NACDA Director's Cup rankings. Georgia led the league with a fifth-place finish. Florida placed sixth, while LSU was 11th, Tennessee finished 14th, Auburn 23rd, Arkansas 27th and Vanderbilt 28th to round out the league's top 30 finishes. Ten of the SEC's 12 schools finished in the top 50 of the Sears Cup Standings. Alabama (41) and Kentucky (45) also made the top 50.

Media

2003 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

Media Guidelines

CREDENTIALS

Credentials for LSU home games are issued for working media only and should be requested as early as possible due to severe space limitations and demands.

• All members of the media must request credentials in writing through sports information director Michael Bonnette.

• Requests are honored from sports editors of daily newspapers and sports directors of television and radio stations. Requests from individuals not employed by a media outlet will not be considered.

• Requests from radio stations must come from the sports director of that radio station and may be filled with a ticket in the stands of Tiger Stadium due to space restrictions in the LSU press box.

• The official website of LSU athletics and the official website of the visiting school will be credentialed. Also, the official online service of the national over-the-air or cable television network which owns broadcast rights to the game requested will receive credentials. Other websites will not be credentialed unless they meet specifications outlined below:

1. Must be a legal corporate entity which has been in business at least one full calendar year and has provided coverage of LSU or the visiting team for at least one year.
2. Must provide daily coverage of ALL athletic teams of LSU or the visiting team with its own staff of reporters, photographers and equipment.
3. Must travel to and cover all football away games and all major post-season events.
4. Must provide coverage of all press conferences of ALL athletic teams at LSU or the visiting team.
5. Must be accredited by home university as working media.

Note: Websites that sponsor message boards, message centers or chat rooms where people are allowed to post anonymous information will not be issued credentials. If a medium has an online site and they sponsor these anonymous forums, they may continue to request credentials under its traditional medium (newspaper, magazine, radio, television), but will not be granted additional passes for online staff.

• Spouses, dates, non-workers and anyone under 18 years of age are not permitted in the working press area.

Media Gameday Rules for Tiger Stadium

Entrance

The entrance to the Tiger Stadium Press Box is through the press elevator, located between Gates 4 and 5 on the west side of the stadium. The elevator will be in operation two hours prior to kickoff. Media Will Call is located at the entrance to the elevator and will be open two hours prior to kickoff.

Level I - Photo Deck Radio/Television

This level offers space for network television and both coaches' film crews. This level also accommodates booths for both home and visiting radio crews, as well as network television, public address and scoreboard operations and LSU and visiting coaches' booths. Only those with appropriate passes will be allowed on this level.

Due to lack of space on the photo deck, no video cameras will be allowed on the photo deck other than the originating network camera, home and visitor coaches' video and scoreboard video camera.

Level II - Working Press

This level is reserved for print media and statistical operations. Fax service is available. Several pay phones (with no removable jacks) and several phones with removable jacks are available on a first-come, first-served basis.

Sidelines

LSU follows NCAA and SEC rules regarding media representatives on the sidelines.

- Photographers are not permitted to shoot between the 25-yard lines and must wear armbands at all times.
- Armbands must be worn on the arm -- not on the leg or camera.
- No credentials will be issued to freelance photographers, cutline writers, equipment carriers or radio station representatives, except for the two teams' broadcast originating networks.
- Armbands will not be mailed or otherwise issued prior to gameday. Armbands must be picked up at the press elevator no earlier than two hours before kickoff.
- Only one armband will be issued per person at the press gate and identification will be requested.
- Due to space restrictions, those media wearing armbands will not have access to the press box at any time without other proper credential. A box lunch will be served at ground level for photographers.
- No one under 18 years of age will be issued an armband for sideline access.
- Photographers should contact Steve Franz, LSU Coordinator of Photography, for further information at (225) 578-4193.
- Photographers may send photos from the LSU Photo Room located in the Southwest Corner of Tiger Stadium.

Contact Steve Franz to reserve space.

Press Box Services

Complete individual and team statistics, running play-by-play, postgame coaches' quotes and game facts will be distributed to members of the working media.

- Press kits are provided 30 minutes prior to kickoff, or earlier upon request. Press kits include program, flip card, updated statistics for each team, conference statistics and gameday notes.
- A pregame meal will be served beginning 90 minutes before kickoff. Soft drinks will be available throughout the game.

Parking

Media parking is located in lots nearby Tiger Stadium. Because of limited space, requests for parking should be made with credential requests. It should not be assumed that parking passes will be provided with all media credentials.

Pro Scouts

Due to severe space limitations, scouts of professional football teams are not issued press credentials. Tickets will be made available to pro scouts at regular price. Requests for tickets should be made well in advance of the game to guarantee availability and should be requested through LSU Sports Information Administrative Secretary Pat Fredericks at (225) 578-8226.

Satellite Trucks

Any outlet using a satellite truck must request satellite truck access and must have a truck in place at least five hours prior to kickoff (example: 2 p.m. for a 7 p.m. kickoff). The area immediately adjacent to Tiger Stadium where satellite trucks are parked becomes very congested with pedestrian traffic in the hours prior to kickoff. Any satellite truck arriving less than five hours prior to kickoff may be denied access to the stadium. Requests for parking area for satellite trucks must be made by noon Wednesday prior to Saturday games and must be approved by SID Michael Bonnette.

MEDIA SERVICES

LSUsports.net

The media and general public can access information pertaining to all of LSU's 20 varsity sports at www.LSUsports.net, which is the home page of LSU Athletics. Media and fans can access everything from the current media guide to updated statistics and game notes at this website, which is updated everyday all year long.

LSU Image Media Database

Members of the media can obtain photos on all LSU coaches and athletes as well as official LSU logos on the internet at http://media.lsusports.net. The site features head shots and action shots of all of LSU's football players. The site will be updated weekly throughout football season. To gain access to the database, please contact Michael Bonnette in the LSU Sports Information Department for a login and password.

SEC Teleconference

Each of the 12 SEC coaches will be featured on a weekly teleconference each Wednesday during the regular season. Contact LSU or the SEC Office for times and phone number.

LSU Satellite Feed

Video highlights of LSU football are available via satellite each week during the regular season. Contact LSU for dates, times and coordinates.

Press Luncheon

Nick Saban's weekly press luncheon is held each Monday throughout the regular season (except prior to open dates). The luncheon will begin at 11:30 a.m. and coach Saban will address the media at approximately Noon in the Press Conference Room of the LSU Athletic Administration Building.

Phones

There are a limited number of telephones available in the press box, therefore writers on deadline are encouraged to order phone lines from BellSouth in Baton Rouge (1-800-238-5501). Several credit card phones are available on a first-come, first-served basis in the visiting media area of the press box. When ordering phone lines for the press box in Tiger Stadium, the physical address for Tiger Stadium is 3800 Highland Road, Baton Rouge, LA 70803.

Head Coach Nick Saban

- Requests for interviews with Nick Saban should be coordinated through sports information director Michael Bonnette at (225) 578-8226.
- Coach Saban will participate in the Southeastern Conference teleconference with the other 11 league coaches each Wednesday at 10:07 a.m. CST. Contact LSU Sports Information or the SEC Office for the complete times, dates and phone number of the conference.
- Coach Saban will conduct a weekly press luncheon each Monday during the season (except open date weeks). He will meet with all members of the media at 11:30 a.m. in the Press Conference Room on the fifth floor of the LSU Athletic Administration Building.
- Coach Saban will meet with the media immediately after practice on Wednesday afternoon in the Lawton Room.
- Coach Saban is also available by request between 11:30 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. Tuesday through Friday during the season. Contact Michael Bonnette to arrange these interviews with Coach Saban.

Practices

LSU football practices are open to the media on Monday thru Wednesday from the beginning of practice until team or group work begins. Media members should request to have their name placed on a practice pass list for admission to practices. Media members are asked to remain at least three yards off the sideline at all times.

Players

All player interviews must be coordinated through the LSU Sports Information Office at least one day in advance.

- Phone interviews should be requested through Associate SID Brian Miller. The player will return the call at an agreed-upon time from the LSU Sports Information Office.
- Players are available through Wednesday of game week. No player interviews will be conducted after Wednesday.
- Team locker rooms are off limits to media representatives at all times.

Postgame

LSU abides by Southeastern Conference policy regarding equal access to all members of the working media.

- Coach Nick Saban will conduct his postgame news conference at home games approximately 10 minutes after the game in the Media Interview Room located just off the chute area leading to the LSU locker room. His postgame press conference can also be heard in the press box.
- The LSU locker room is closed. Several players will be brought into the Media Interview Room following coach Saban's postgame news conference.
- The opponent's coach will conduct his postgame news conference in the interview room located across from the visitors' locker room in the Southeast portal of the stadium. TV lighting and adequate electrical outlets are available in the visitors' interview area.

Michael Bonnette

Assistant Athletics Director/Sports Information
mbonnet@lsu.edu

Michael Bonnette enters his fifth year as LSU's Sports Information Director and first as an assistant athletic director after being promoted to his current position in July. Bonnette was originally elevated to Sports Information Director in August of 2000. As Sports Information Director, Bonnette serves as the chief contact for LSU's national champion football team as well as overseeing all publicity activities for the 20 sports sponsored by the Athletic Department.

The 34-year-old Bonnette, who served as an Associate Sports Information Director for seven years, is in his 10th year with the LSU Athletic Department. Prior to taking over as Sports Information Director, Bonnette was the top assistant for football publicity as well as handling all media relations efforts for LSU's nationally-ranked women's basketball team. He also served as the editor of LSU's award winning gameday football program.

Bonnette joined the LSU SID staff as an intern in 1993 after serving as a student assistant within the department for four years.

The Lake Charles, La., native has been around the sports media relations profession his entire life as he is the son of longtime McNeese State Sports Information Director Louis Bonnette. His brother Matthew Bonnette is the Assistant Sports Information Director at Northwestern State University in Natchitoches.

Bonnette, who is a 1993 graduate of LSU, serves as vice president for SIDs of the Louisiana Sports Writer's Association. He is married to the former Robin Arnaud of Opelousas, La., and the couple has two sons, Peyton (6) and Grant (5).

Kent Lowe

Senior Associate SID

Kent Lowe was appointed senior associate SID in August, 2000, after serving as associate SID for nine years. He serves as the primary media contact for the LSU men's basketball team and women's golf team. Lowe also coordinates the annual Louisiana High School All-Star events held on the LSU campus.

His voice is also well known as the color analyst on home women's basketball and softball broadcasts on the LSU Sports Network.

Lowe, 46, came to LSU in 1988 from Louisiana Downs where he served as publicity director for the Bossier City, La., racetrack. Lowe was promoted to associate SID in July of 1991 after serving as assistant SID since August of 1988.

Lowe is a member of CoSIDA and presently serves as secretary-treasurer of the Louisiana Sports Writers Association. Prior to working at Louisiana Downs, Lowe worked for several years as a correspondent for The (Shreveport) Times and for the past 12 years has written a weekly bowling column for The (Baton Rouge) Advocate.

Lowe, a native of Shreveport, is a 1979 graduate from LSU-Shreveport. He earned his masters degree at LSU in 1982.

Laurie Cannon

Associate SID
lcannonl@lsu.edu

Laurie Cannon enters her third year at LSU as associate SID in charge of track and field and gymnastics. In addition, assists in game management for LSU's seven home football games. She came to LSU after spending one year at Baylor University where she served as the primary contact for the Bears' track and field and cross country programs, and assisted with the publicizing of the Bear football team.

A 2000 graduate of Utah State, Cannon earned bachelor of arts degrees in business administration and exercise science. At her alma mater Cannon served one year as an assistant media relations director and one year as a media relations student assistant. Her duties at USU included serving as the primary contact for the Aggies' gymnastics, softball and women's soccer programs.

While a student at Utah State, Cannon was a four-year letterwinner for the Aggies' nationally ranked gymnastics team. She served as team captain during her junior and senior seasons.

Cannon is a native of Carmichael, Calif.

Bill Franques

Associate SID
wfranqu@lsu.edu

Bill Franques, who served as the LSU baseball administrative assistant for three seasons, returned to the Sports Information office in August of 2000. Franques had previously served as Associate SID for nine years.

Franques' responsibilities as administrative assistant included handling the Tigers' media and public relations, coordinating team and recruiting travel, organizing fund-raising events and booster club meetings, and overseeing office operations.

As associate SID, Franques continues to work as the baseball program's media relations director. He also serves as the Alex Box Stadium public address announcer, and he is the radio color analyst on LSU Sports Network broadcasts of baseball road games. In addition, Franques is the producer and co-host of LSU Sports Journal, a monthly television program featuring LSU sports personalities.

The LSU baseball media guide, edited by Franques, has twice been named best in the nation by the College Sports Information Directors of America and the National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association. His baseball brochures have finished among the top six in the USA in nine of the past 11 seasons, including a No. 3 ranking in 2003.

Franques received a bachelor of arts degree from LSU in 1985. The Lafayette, La., native is married to the former Yvette Lemoine of Bunkie, La., and they have two children, William Paul, Jr., born September 23, 2000, and Benjamin Lewis, born April 18, 2002.

Brian Miller

Associate SID
bmiller@lsu.edu

Brian Miller enters his third year at LSU as an associate SID after spending three years in the same capacity at Auburn University.

Miller, 31, is the secondary contact for football and the primary contact for LSU's nationally-ranked women's basketball team. He will also assist in the publicity of all other LSU sports. His 2002-03 LSU women's basketball media guide was named "Best in the Nation" by CoSIDA out of 112 Division I entries.

A native of Hamilton, N.Y., Miller spent three years handling soccer and women's basketball at Auburn and worked with the track and field and women's tennis programs on the Plains. Miller graduated from Northeastern University in Boston, in 1996 with a degree in broadcast journalism and began his career in sports information at NU as a student assistant in charge of the publicity of the Huskies' baseball program.

Miller spent one year at Florida Atlantic University as an assistant SID after graduation before spending three years at Louisiana Tech University, two as an assistant (1996-98)and one as the director (1999). At Louisiana Tech, Miller primarily handled the publicity for football and women's basketball. He also spent three seasons as the play-by-play voice of the Lady Techsters basketball team, which included two trips to the NCAA Final Four.

Miller is married to the former Stacey Hill of Mangham, La., and the couple has two sons, Trey (3) and Cody born July 1, 2004.

Melissa Reynaud

Associate SID

Melissa Reynaud enters her fourth year on the LSU sports information staff as Associate SID in charge of the nationally recognized softball program. She is also in her third season as the primary contact for the women's volleyball program. Her 2004 LSU softball media guide was ranked third in the nation.

Reynaud, 28, is a Marksville, La., native and a 1997 graduate of LSU in Mass Communications. Prior to coming to LSU, Reynaud was the assistant SID at Northwestern State University in Natchitoches. At NSU, she was the primary media contact for the women's basketball, soccer and softball teams and assisted with the other 11 sports including the NCAA Tournament men's basketball team and Division I-AA football team.

Prior to that, Reynaud worked as an intern at Ole Miss. During her year in Oxford, she worked primarily with the volleyball and men's and women's track and field programs while assisting with football and both basketball teams.

Reynaud began her career at Northwestern State where she was a graduate assistant for two years while earning a master's degree in sports administration.

Steve Franz

Photography Coordinator
sfranz2@lsu.edu

Steve Franz joined the LSU athletics department in July of 1998 after being around the Tiger sports scene for years.

Prior to joining LSU athletics, the New Orleans native served as photographer for the independent Tiger Rag magazine for five years. Franz was also a photographer for United Press International covering some of the area's major political events, Presidential visits, the New Orleans Saints and the NCAA men's and women's Final Fours in New Orleans.

Franz, a member of the National Press Photographers and Sports Shooter.com, has had his pictures published in several national magazines, including Sports Illustrated and The Sporting News.

Franz, an LSU graduate, also served a summer working in New York state as an assistant photographer for the Buffalo Bisons minor league baseball team and as chief photographer for the Niagara Falls Rapids pro team.

Franz, 34, attended Archbishop Rummel High School in Metairie and received his bachelor's degree from LSU in December of 1993.

Jason Feirman

Publications Director
jfeirma@lsu.edu

Jason Feirman is in his fifth year as the director of all of LSU's athletics publications. His responsibilities include the production of media guides, posters, schedule cards, advertising campaigns and various other design projects for all 20 varsity sports.

Feirman also oversees the design of outdoor signage on LSU Athletics facilities, including the scoreboards for Tiger Stadium, billboards at Alex Box Stadium, Maravich Center, and the Charles McClendon Football Practice Facility.

Feirman has coordinated numerous media guides that finished among the top in the nation of the annual CoSIDA publications contest. In 2000-01, six media guides produced placed in the Top 20 in his first year. In 2002-03 the LSU women's basketball media guide was named "Best in the Nation" by CoSIDA out of 112 Division I entries. In addition, the LSU Baseball Media Guide finished third in the nation and was awarded best cover. This past year the LSU Baseball media guide was second in the nation, the softball guide finished third in the nation, and the women's golf guide placed first in district.

Prior to being named the full-time director in August of 2000, Feirman served as publications student assistant for two years in the sports information office. He served as assistant sports editor of The Reveille in fall of 1998 and as a sports reporter for Tiger Television in spring of 1998. He was a stringer for The Associated Press from 1996 to 2000 covering LSU, and he held a sports internship at WGNO-TV, ABC affiliate in New Orleans.

Feirman, 26, received a bachelor's of arts degree from LSU in December of 2000. A Metairie, La. native, he was born on July 16, 1978.

David Hurd

Graphic Design Coordinator
dhurdl@lsu.edu

David Hurd is in his second year as graphic design coordinator for LSU Athletics. His responsibilities include assisting in the design and production of all athletics publications.

Hurd designed the 2003-04 LSU men's tennis poster that placed sixth in the nation in the annual CoSIDA publications contest. The poster was one of 65 entries for all Division I sports.

Prior to earning his bachelor's degree in graphic design in May, 2003, Hurd, 26, worked as a student assistant in the LSU athletics department for three years.

Hurd, a Metairie, La., native, is a graduate of Archbishop Rummel High School. He and his wife, the former Kathy Lagarde, became proud parents of their first child, Elizabeth Catherine, on February 2, 2004.

Annie Martin

amart22@lsu.edu

Annie Martin is in her first year as graphic design coordinator for LSU Athletics. Her responsibilities include assisting in the design and production of all athletics publications for LSU Athletics as well as for the Tiger Athletic Foundation.

Martin, 23, worked as a student assistant in the LSU athletics department for one year prior to earning her bachelor's degree in graphic design in May, 2004. As a student, she designed LSU's 2004 softball media guide, which placed third in the nation in the annual CoSIDA publications contest. Martin also spent time working in the Union Programs Department and the Performing Arts Series while pursuing her degree.

She is an Albany, La., native, is a graduate of Albany High School.

Electronic Media

The Athletics Administration building houses a television control room that is used for video scoreboard broadcasts in Tiger Stadium and the Pete Maravich Assembly Center.

Kevin Wagner

Assistant AD/Television

Kevin Wagner, LSU's Assisant Athletic Director for Television, is the executive producer/director for LSU's four major coaches' television shows featuring football coach Nick Saban, men's basketball coach John Brady, women's basketball coach Pokey Chatman and baseball coach Smoke Laval. He oversees all television projects associated with the LSU Athletics Department, including the coordination of LSU's video scoreboards in Tiger Stadium and the Pete Maravich Assembly Center.

Wagner, 48, was promoted to his current position of Assistant AD/Television in August, 2003 after joining LSU as assistant coordinator in August of 1989. He served as Coordinator of Electronic Media/Television for eight years prior to his most recent promotion.

A 1980 graduate of LSU in broadcast journalism, Wagner was a four-year Tiger letterman in diving (1975-79), earning All-Southeastern Conference honors in 1979 on the three-meter springboard.

A native of Houston with 23 years of experience in broadcast journalism, Wagner and his wife Karen have two daughters, Allyson, 24, and Jennifer, 22, and a granddaughter, Kaleigh Ryan.

John Schiebe

Manager of Television

John Schiebe begins his 11th year as chief assistant in the television department. He came to LSU in August of 1994 from the University of Mississippi where he served as post-production supervisor in the Teleproductions Center. He was there for one-and-a-half years.

Schiebe served as a production assistant in Educational Television Services at Oklahoma State from 1984 through 1987 before becoming a producer/director in Agricultural Communications at OSU from 1987 until 1993 when he joined Ole Miss.

A 1986 graduate of Oklahoma State, he was born in Minneapolis, Minn. and attended high school in Oxford, Miss.

Schiebe, 43, is married to the former Mollie Clements of Memphis, Tenn., and they have two children, Tom, 16, and Pat, 15, both members of the varsity football team at the Dunham School in Baton Rouge.

Paul Danna

Coordinator

In August of 2002, Danna returned to the LSU Athletics Department after a two-year stint at ESPN in Bristol, Conn.

Before working for ESPN, Danna served as a full-time television producer at LSU for two years (1999-2000) and was involved with production of LSU programming since 1991 when he was a student at the university.

Danna, 31, worked as a student assistant in the Electronic Media Department from 1991-95 before working for local television station WBRZ, first in the production department and later as a news editor.

He freelanced for various sports production companies for three years, most notably during the 1997 and 1998 seasons as a member of the ESPN College Gameday crew which traveled to various football stadiums around the country prior to games.

Danna, known as "Speedy" throughout the LSU athletic department, graduated from LSU in 1995 with a bachelor's degree in mass communications. He married the former Susan Marlowe in July.

Inside LSU Football with Nick Saban

Inside LSU Football with Nick Saban returns this season as the primary source for Tiger football news. Jordy Hultberg will serve as host for the eighth straight year, joining LSU head coach Nick Saban to provide detailed game highlights, in-depth analysis and profiles on the 2004 Tigers.

The show also features an "Ask the Coach" segment as well as spotlighting a different aspect of the football program each week.

Inside LSU Football is syndicated weekly during the football season throughout all major markets in the state of Louisiana and across the South on Cox Sports Television and Fox Sports Net. In addition, the show can be viewed in its entirety on LSU's official athletic department web site, LSUsports.tv.

Inside LSU Football debuts on Sept. 5 and will continue throughout the season with the last show airing on Nov. 29

Check local listings for air times as well as the affiliate that Inside LSU Football with Nick Saban can be viewed.

Inside LSU Football with head coach Nick Saban hit the road again in 2003 for the National Championship Edition of Inside LSU Football at the Sugar Bowl with a live telecast from downtown New Orleans.

Catch the show in its entirety on LSU's official athletic department web site, LSUsports.tv.

Watch the Replay

For the second consecutive year, Cox Sports Television has teamed up with LSU to be the exclusive regional cable sports network of LSU Athletics.

The television package, which was signed in February of 2003, gives LSU year-round exposure on the regional sports network and will include close to 40 LSU sporting events as well as monthly magazine shows featuring LSU athletics on Cox Sports Television.

Included in the agreement, is a tape-delay package of all 11 of LSU's regular-season football games in 2004. LSU football games will be aired at 5 p.m. on the Sunday following each contest with a second showing coming on Wednesday night each week. Lyn Rollins will handle the play-by-play call of the football games, with Rene Nadeau providing the game analysis and Jordy Hultberg serving as the sideline reporter.

Cox Sports Television is an innovative 24-hour local sports network that delivers exclusive programming, including both professional and collegiate sporting events, to approximately 600,000 viewers in Louisiana, southern Mississippi, western Alabama and the Florida panhandle.

Jim Hawthorne

Voice of the Tigers

Jim Hawthorne begins his 22nd year as the "Voice of the Tigers"and during that time the Anacoco, La. native, has established himself as one the top play-by-play men in all of collegiate athletics.

A veteran of calling the action of over 30 years, Hawthorne also handles men's basketball and baseball broadcasts on the LSU Sports Network. He called LSU's 21-14 win over Oklahoma in last year's BCS National Championship Game, while also making the call for LSU's five national titles in baseball and the Tigers' two Final Four appearances in men's basketball.

As LSU's Assistant Athletic Director for Radio, Hawthorne is responsible for personnel, equipment and formatting of all network broadcasts and affiliation of the 40-plus stations that make up one of the most powerful collegiate radio networks in the nation.

In addition, he hosts the weekly "Tiger Sportsline," a one-hour live call-in show with the football, basketball and baseball head coaches, as well as serving as the host for Inside LSU Basketball with John Brady and Inside LSU Baseball with Smoke Laval.

Hawthorne has done play-by-play from the high school to the professional level, including Northwestern State, Centenary College, Texas League Baseball and World Football League broadcasts. Hawthorne is married to the former Juanita Carol Thomason, also of Anacoco, and has a son, Joseph William, and two daughters, Jaime Lynn and Amanda Ruth.

Doug Moreau

Analyst

Doug Moreau, a former Tiger football great, serves as color analyst for all LSU football games. He returned to the radio booth in 1988 after serving on the TigerVision (pay-per-view) broadcast crew from 1982-87. He worked on Fighting Tiger radio broadcasts from 1972-81 prior to switching to television. The former LSU All-American was one of the all-time great receivers in Tiger history, and still ranks in the top 10 in scoring as a receiver/placekicker for the Tigers from 1963-65. He was a tight end for the Miami Dolphins from 1966-70 and presently serves as District Attorney for East Baton Rouge Parish.

Jordy Hultberg

Sideline Reporter

Jordy Hultberg, a former LSU basketball player (1976-80) and assistant basketball coach under Dale Brown (1980-1983), begins his eighth season as the sideline reporter for the LSU Sports Network. Hultberg also serves as the host of Inside LSU Football with Nick Saban, while continuing to host the LSU Sports Journal along with The Tiger Recap.

In addition to his duties with LSU, Hultberg handles sideline reporting duties for the NBA's New Orleans Hornets, while also serving as the host for the Byron Scott Coaches Show on Cox Sports Television.

He is married to the former Shannon Williams and has three children, Jordan, Richard and K.K.

LSU Sports Network History

The LSU Sports Network, in its 16th year of in-house operation, brings Tiger football to LSU followers across the country. With two 50,000-watt clear channel affiliates and three 100,000-watt FM stations, LSU Fighting Tiger Football is distributed by satellite to over 40 radio stations throughout the South and is anchored by flagship station WDGL-FM ("The Eagle 98.1") in Baton Rouge.

The LSU Sports Network is one of the most diverse and progressive college radio networks in the country, utilizing an in-house radio studio to originate over 140 live events in football, men's and women's basketball, baseball and softball. With FM radio station WTGE-FM (107.3 FM) serving as a flagship station for women's sporting events and call-in shows, LSU has moved to the forefront in publicizing its women's sports on radio.

In addition to live events, network programming also includes a weekly live coach's show for football, men's and women's basketball and baseball.

Tiger Sportsline with Nick Saban

Tiger Sportsline with Nick Saban, a weekly one-hour radio program each Wednesday night, returns for the 2004 season. It is designed to give Tiger fans an inside look at LSU football.

The show will once again be hosted by "The Voice" of LSU athletics, Jim Hawthorne and will be broadcast live at Superior Grill on Government Street in Baton Rouge. Fans have the opportunity to come out and watch the show broadcast live from Superior Grill each week and ask Coach Saban questions in person. Tiger Sportsline also has a live call-in segment for Tigers fans listening at home.

For the fifth consecutive year, Coach Saban will invite a weekly media guest to join him live at Superior Grill.

The first show kicks off on Sept. 1 and continues each week throughout the season, including both bye weeks. It will conclude on Nov. 24, the week of LSU's season-finale against Arkansas.

LSU coach Nick Saban and the Voice of the Tigers Jim Hawthorne host the show in front of a packed house at Superior Grill in Baton Rouge.

Tiger Athletic Foundation

The Tiger Athletic Foundation (TAF) is a private, nonprofit foundation dedicated to supporting LSU and its Athletic Program. The Foundation is administered by its own board of directors, comprised of TAF donors, which meets quarterly. Officers of the corporation are elected bi-annually.

Maj. Gen. R. G. Richard, USMC (Ret.)
Chief Executive Officer

Louisiana State University has a proud athletic tradition, highlighted by scores of Southeastern Conference and NCAA championships in more than 20 men's and women's varsity sports. Thanks to generous private-sector contributions, the Tiger Athletic Foundation continues to play an integral role in sustaining that outstanding tradition. As the central fund-raising organization in support of LSU athletics, TAF's mission is clear – to lead the university in building a comprehensively superior athletic program.

Unrestricted contributions to the Tiger Athletic Foundation benefit every athlete and team at LSU through scholarship and academic awards, as well as through the construction and maintenance of athletic facilities. These projects, large and small, chart the unmistakable course to excellence. And it is the shared vision of alumni and friends of LSU that are making them a reality.

The Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes is perhaps TAF's most significant contribution to the University to date. The center benefits not only LSU's athletics program, it also provides a 1,000-seat classroom for use by the entire University population.

WHO IS TAF?

- The TAF is made up of average Tiger fans who make donations to help fund the mission of Tiger Athletics.
- Nearly two-thirds of TAF's members have donated less than $1,000 in their lifetime to TAF
- Less than 1% of TAF's members have donated over $100,000 in their lifetime to TAF
- Approximately half of TAF's members are football season ticket holders
- TAF's membership is 14,000 strong and growing

A donation to the Tiger Athletic Foundation assists in its programs of support for LSU Athletics.

- Funding scholarships for LSU's student-athletes.
- Funding the construction and renovation of facilities and the purchase of equipment to provide Tiger student-athletes with the best possible opportunity to compete at a national level.
- Funding support for facilities and programs to enhance the academic opportunities for student-athletes.
- Providing support to assure the best possible coaching and support staffs are in place to lead the LSU athletic program.

$1 MILLION-PLUS PROJECTS

Eastside Expansion of Tiger Stadium - $50 Million
The TAF financed an eastside expansion that added over 11,000 seats to Tiger Stadium and moved it up among the five largest on-campus stadiums in America. The eastside expansion not only created 70 Tiger Den suites to the stadium, it has provided over 300,000 more fans the opportunity to see LSU football since the expansion was opened in 2000.

Cox Communications Academic Center for Student-Athletes - $12 Million
The TAF provided LSU with unquestionably the most advanced academic facility in America for its student-athletes. By renovating LSU's old Gym Armory, the TAF allowed LSU to make the emphatic statement that the academic welfare of its student-athletes is its foremost priority. Opened in 2002.

Scoreboards in Tiger Stadium, Assembly Center, Outdoor Track - $5.2 Million
The TAF added to fan enjoyment in LSU's major athletics facilities by purchasing state-of-the-art video scoreboards in 1998.

Lawton Squad Room - $1.2 Million
The TAF funded the construction of a squad meeting room attached to Tiger Stadium for use by LSU's athletics teams. Prior to the construction of the Lawton Squad Room, there was no one place in LSU's athletics complex where the entire football team could meet and view instructional and motivational video presentations. Opened in 1997.

UNDER CONSTRUCTION

Football Operations Center - $15 Million
The TAF is building a stand-alone Football Operations Center in which all facets of the national champion Tiger football program will be under one roof. The building will include locker rooms, meeting rooms, coaches offices, video operations, a training room and strength facility. Scheduled to open in the fall of 2005.

Mike the Tiger's Habitat - $3 Million
LSU's legendary live mascot is getting a new home, thanks to the TAF. This new habitat will provide Mike with a new 15,000-square foot environment with lush planting , a landmark size Live Oak tree, a beautiful waterfall and a stream evolving from a rocky backdrop overflowing with plants and trees. It will be one of the finest live tiger habitats in America. Scheduled to open in the fall of 2005.

Westside Renovation of Tiger Stadium - $60 Million
The TAF is currently renovating the Westside of Tiger Stadium in order to provide 3,200 new club seats and a new press box. The new club seats will provide additional revenue for the athletics program to invest in future facility projects. Scheduled to open in September of 2005.

The 2003 LSU football season is dedicated to the memory of Jeff Boss, who served as the Tigers' supervisor of athletic equipment for 24 seasons. The Tigers wear the letters "JB" on the backs of their helmets, and they wear a black patch with the letters "JB" on their jerseys as a tribute to Boss, whose signature phrase, "Super Great and Getting Better!" always encouraged the multitude of players, coaches and managers with whom he worked.

> "I don't think there is anyone in this program in the four years I have been here that has given more unselfish devotion to LSU, but probably more importantly to the players themselves."
> - LSU Head Coach Nick Saban

Boss was diagnosed with brain cancer shortly after the Tigers returned from the Cotton Bowl last January, and he passed away on October 27. A native of Lake Charles, La., and a graduate of McNeese State University, Boss continued to work at LSU until June while undergoing treatment for his illness.

Boss wasn't on the sidelines for the Tigers' 2003 season opener against Louisiana-Monroe, marking the first time he had missed an LSU game in 24 years. Two weeks later, coach Nick Saban and a dozen football players presented Boss with the game ball from the UL-Monroe contest.

LSU honored Boss on September 29 as the school named the football locker room for him at a ceremony that saw dozens of former Tiger football players and managers return to campus for the event.

During his illustrious career, Boss was named the winner of the 1990 Glenn Sharp Award that goes annually to the Equipment Manager of the Year. Boss' years of expertise also aided him in the design and development of a football shoe, the "Boss Shark," that was nationally marketed by Nike.

Boss was widely recognized as the best in his field of equipment management; however, his greatest contributions to the LSU football program came through his infectious enthusiasm and his ability to influence his players and student managers in a positive manner. As the supervisor of the LSU locker room, he helped to cultivate team chemistry by offering advice and inspiration, by occasionally settling disputes, and by demonstrating the values of organization and attention to detail. Because of his commanding presence in an intimate, sometimes volatile setting, he affected the lives of players in ways that a coach could not.

"I think the most special quality that Jeff has is that he never thinks about himself," Saban said at the naming ceremony for the Jeff Boss Locker Room. "There is not one person in our organization that the players hold in higher regard for what he does for them."

Boss is survived by his wife, the former Karen Ibert of Franklinton, La., and a 13-year old daughter, B.J. The Boss family received the game ball after the Tigers defeated Georgia on December 6 to win the SEC Championship.
